Because of a reduction in the appropriation the police commission of Astorin has decided to dispense with the services of Chief of Police C. W. Laughery after March 1.

An undertaker in Alameda, Calif., returned to a house after a funeral to get some of his trappings when a neighbor, seeing him trying to open the door, took him for a burglar and fired three shots at him.

Athena's city council has declared that all gambling games must stop, and that all saloons must close Sun days. Athena's city election will occur March 2, when it is expected that the proward come of the closing question will be warmily discussed.

It is is arrived that Horace Mann intende soon to remove to Idaho to engage in newspaper work. Mr. Mann edited the Times here, says the Stayton Mail, for about three years and last week announced, without further explanation, that it would not be issued this week.

The burglars that broke into a New berg store a little over a week ago were deliberate "crooks." They took 30 or 40 suits of clothes into the dressing room, and each of the two carefully fitted himself with a full suit. They also took several dollars worth of jewelry and two overcoats.

At a sale in Hillsboro of some personal effects distrained by J. P. Hicks for a board bill, Dr. Adkius bought a coin wallet and its contents. An examination : howed a collection of very old coins, mostly of Portuguese mint. One piece lears date of 1795, another 1796, while one is of date 1196.

A justice of the peace in Colfax. Wash., was called upon recently to perform a marriage ceremony in German. He at once secured an instructor, and in an hour he memorized in that tongue the American marriage ceremony, with which he joined the lives is of Christian Klewend and Anna M.

Gus Stalter, of Heppner, left that city last week for France, where he has fallen heir to a fortune, estimated to be Letween $5,000 and $10,000, left to him by an old man by whom he was brought up. Within this district is a large scope of mineral country.

The Port Orford Tribune man has the spirit of the true fisherman. He says deep-water fishing has been excellent this winter, among the rocks in the various coves near Port Orford, and some heavy strings have been taken. It is rare sport, standing out on a barren rock, in a driving cold wind, with half-frozen fingers, and an occasional breaker covering you over from head to heels, while you are kept busy either hauling out big fish or tryin - to unique your book from among the kelp or rocks, and occasionally struggling to put on a new hook in a burry with numb fingers. But it is exciting sport, especially when the fish are biting lively, and a fellow will remain in spite of everything, and always leave with regret. The Scio Press attacks live bird shooting in the following live manner: "Live bird shooting contests have become a fad with Albany sportemen of late. Nearly every week a match is reported in which a number of innosent pigeous are sacrificed to demon strate who is the better marksman and incidentally give an opportunity to gamblers and betting men to hazard their money. The laws of our country prohildt bull, dog and cock fights, and all states excepting Nevada will not allow prize-fighting by men. Yet, in the estimation of nearly all, the shooting of pigeons for mere sport is more heartlessly cruel than any of the various fights or contests mentioned. And, sportsmen should find some other less cruel method in which to decide who is the better marksman."
