The Albany Democrat speaks highly of Mrs. Clara Hoffman's lecture in that city. The finest line of dress patterns in the city is to be found at the Racket store. Lease has been issued for the marriage of George Collett and Naomie Hawk. For sale, 4000 first class heart shanks will be sold at a bargain. Inquire at this office. Miss Maggie Butler, of Monmouth, visited friends in Lebanon Sunday and Monday. Mrs. Frank Alexander left yesterday for a few weeks' visit with her parents in Lane county. Remember Mrs. Clara Hoffman's temperance lecture, at the M. E. church to-night. Everybody get ready for the mask social to be given about March 19, by the Lady Macabees. In less than a month 37 new members have been admitted into the A. O. U. W. lodge in Albany. Bargains in mens', youths' and boys' clothing, at the office of the Waterloo Woolen Mills. F. Y. Mulkey was over from Monmouth last Saturday and Sunday, visiting Lebanon friends. The Experience social to be given by the Epworth League on Feb. 19 has been postponed one week. Take notice—the drama to be given the 22nd has been postponed until the 23rd—the following night. Are you looking for an engagement or wedding ring? French the Jeweler, Albany, has some handsome ones. One-half wool dress goods reduced to 30 cts., and bleached, all linen table cloth for 35 cts. a yard, at the Racket store. The ladies of the Relief Corps have taken a great deal of pains with their drama, and will no doubt get a crowded house. Mrs. Stewart, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. O. Peterson, for some time, left Monday for her home in Oregon City.

Hon. M. A. Miller returned home yesterday from Salem where he had been to see the big elephant perform—the legislature. Married, Feb. 15, at the court house, in Albany, by Judge Barton, Mr. Asa M. Austin and Miss Maggie Patton, both of this county. A good assortment of mens', youths' and boys' clothing is now on sale at the Woolen Mills office at Waterloo. You can get great bargains. Rev. A. L. Black, the young minister from McMinnville, preached two excellent sermons in the Baptist church in this city last Sunday. Married, Feb. 10, at the home of J. E. Berry, by Rev. Amos Horner, Mr. Jos. Haslet, of Lebanon, and Mrs. Rebecca A. Doty, of Sweet Home. It will pay you to take the entire family to town and get them a new outfit while the big sale is going on at Read, Peacock & Co's Lebanon store. Both Attorney Garland and Attorney Brown are confined to their beds this week with an attack of la grippe, but at this writing they are improving. H. E. Smith, travelling agent for the state of Oregon, for the Washington Co-operative Life Insurance association, is in the city in the interest of his association. Gentlemen, you will never regret it if you buy your clothing from the Waterloo Woolen Mills Company. The prices are very low and the quality is very good. About twenty members of the I. O. O. F. lodge left yesterday morning, in hacks, for Seio, for the purpose of visiting the Seio lodge and to assist them in initiating new members. The revival meetings at the Cumberland Presbyterian church, conducted by Revs. Jack and Boyles, are still in progress. Much interest is being manifested, but no conversions have been made as yet. E. B. Crouch and family expect to leave here about the first of March for Southern California. They will go from here to Los Angeles, and Mr. Crouch will leave his family there until he finds a location. The captain of the Albany Salvation Army and the captain of the Vancouver Army are to be married to-morrow. They will then be stationed at Oregon City. A new force will be sent to Albany—Tuesday's Democrat. The Valentine social given Tuesday evening at the residence of J. S. Hughes was a grand success in every respect. Ed Aldrich and Miss Annie DuMont were awarded the prizes for receiving the ugliest valen lines. On account of the death of Mrs. Randle, the two rooms of the public school taught by Prof. Ailingham and Miss Ward in the academy building was dismissed at noon on Wednesday until Monday morning. Mrs. Arab West left this morning for Anaconda, Montana, where she will make her home for the present, at least. Mrs. Julia Sheridan accompanied her. We wish them a pleasant journey and success in their new home. Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets do not affect the head or produce nervousness like the Sulphate of Quinine. Mr. N. W. Smith is authorized to refund money in every case where it fails to cure Coughs, Colds and LaGrippe. Price, 25 cents. Mrs. Mary Irvine Slauson has written a very interesting account of Mrs. Cleveland's reception at the White House, to the Albany Democrat. Mrs. Slauson is a daughter of Hon. R. A. Irvine, of Albany. Unfortunately we have not space to publish the account. The sons and daughters of the Pioneers of Oregon, of Lebanon and vicinity, who desire to join the Pioneer organization which will meet in Brownsville next June, will please leave their names with M. A. Miller. We should send a large delegation from this place. There will be no preaching at the M. E. Church, South, next Sunday. The pastor, Rev. Craig, will preach at Crabtree church at 11 a. m., and at Tennessee school house in the evening, Sunday school at 10 a. m. Epworth League at 6:30 p. m. No prayer-meeting this week. Frank Holcomb, sentenced to the penitentiary from Benton county for 15 years for larceny, was pardoned last Saturday by Governor Lord, after serving a year and a half. Al White, sentenced in 1881 from Clackamas county for rape, received his freedom after 15 years, 5 months and 28 days behind the walls. J. R. Ewing has bought his partner, B. F. Kirk's, interest in the barber shop. Mr. Ewing expects to employ a good barber to help him and will no doubt keep the shop up to the high standard it has already obtained. Mr. Kirk intends to work in Albany for a while, but thinks he will move to Southern California in the near future.

Malaria produces weakness, general debility, biliousness, loss of appetite, indigestion and constipation. Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic removes the cause which produces these troubles. Try it and you will be delighted. 50 cents. To get the genuine ask for Grove's. For sale by N. W. Smith, Lebanon, Or. A letter written by Dist. Atty. Hayden to C. H. Dalrymple prior to the June election has been published in the Albany Herald. The letter does no credit to either the writer or the recipient. It is almost needless to state that the subject of the letter was the resignation of Mr. Dalrymple as nominee for district attorney. Monday's Democrat contains the following: "A live scrapping match occurred on the motor as it reached the depot at 12:45 to-day. Over the payment of their fare by ten members of the Payton Company, quite a mix-up occurred, in which Conductor Conn came out on top, while one or two musicians went down, one off the car." One of the questions in the recent teachers' examinations was the following: "With what events were the following cities or towns associated?" Several places were mentioned, among others Salem, of course referring to Salem, Mass., and intending to bring out the famous witchcraft stories. One answer, though, was shifted to Oregon and was: "The Mitchell holdup."—Democrat. Dan McClain's livery stable in Harrisburg burned to the ground one day last week, at 1:30 p. m., during a heavy rainfall. The stable was one of the oldest institutions in that town. The stock and vehicles were removed without injury, but the barn and other contents were totally consumed. Twenty tons of hay were burned in the barn. The building and contents were insured for $700. The Enterprise Lumber Co., of Berry, has failed, and a deed of assignment made by the three individual members, partners in the company, has been filed with the county clerk, naming C. E. Hawkins, of Albany, assignee. The total liabilities are unknown, but it is understood that they are heavy. Not a few creditors of the insolvent company are Santiam farmers, whose bills for labor have been refused payment on one pretext or another for a long time.—Stayton Mail. J. I. Jones, the manager of the Jones sawmill, near Eugene, has arrived in Eugene to start up the mill, says the Guard. An order for 3,000,000 feet of lumber is now in, and the mill will start up the first of next week. One planer is running at the mouth of the flume, another one has arrived, and still another is expected in a few days. As soon as they can be placed in position three planers will be kept busy planing. The lumber is sawed by the machinery on the mountain and floated down the flume to the railroad at Cottage Grove. The Albany Democrat gives a timely warning, as follows: There are said to be some insurance agents in the valley working for a reliable old line company, who, in order to get business, offer to give a 20-year tonline policy, representing that it may be paid in 12 annual payments, which, of course, is impossible and would not be backed by any company. They were in Salem and it was reported would probably be in Albany. If they do business in the regular way, all right, but if any such bait is given, look out. It is best nowadays anyway to be on your guard. The Kentucky Colored Jubilee Singers gave entertainments in our city last Saturday and Monday evenings, to small but appreciative audiences. There is a comical darkey with them who furnishes lots of fun for their audiences. They are excellent singers and deserving of much larger houses than they had here. If McKinley's promised prosperity had only reached us at even this late date, we have no doubt that the opera house would have been crowded to its utmost capacity, but money is so scarce that many people cannot attend the entertainments they otherwise would. The Jubilee Singers entertained the citizens of Albany Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. The Corvallis Times says that Monday morning a pair of young people from the classic Long Tom arrived in town Monday, intent on matrimony. The Times has an interesting account of the affair, but the sum and substance is that they were short of funds and had to rule themselves accordingly. The county clerk kindly issued the license on credit and himself stood good to the county for the fee. Justice Carille offered to perform the marriage ceremony for $3 on a silver basis, but they requested an hour's time in which to consider the matter. Before the hour expired the couple returned and informed the justice that there was a little preacher in town who had done the job for $1.50. Good clothing—at a low price—at Bach & Bull's. Wash your white clothing with Soap Foam, and they will never turn yellow. M. A. Miller has a full and complete line of cough syrups.

Departed This Life. Mrs. M. E. Randle, wife of Prof. S. A. Randle, died very suddenly yesterday morning, at about half past nine o'clock. She had been gaining strength every day since her late sickness, and for the last week had desired all the children to be in their places in school. George, their son, had just come from an errand, and found her in the kitchen, engaged in some work, apparently as well as usual. She followed him into the sitting-room, and, as she sat down in her chair, asked him to make up the fire, which he did. He then started to leave the room, when she said, "Don't leave me alone just now, George." He returned to her at once and found her dead in her chair. Thus, without a struggle, she passed from earth. The funeral will occur at their residence at the academy to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock. Mrs. Randle was about 73 years of age. She was highly respected and beloved by all her acquaintances. The people of Lebanon and vicinity deeply sympathize with the bereaved relatives. A Petition Sent to Senator Dawson. The Albany Herald published, last Tuesday, a petition to Senator Dawson requesting him to attend the joint convention and support John H. Mitchell for U. S. Senator. The petition was signed by quite a large number of republicans in the principal towns in the county. The Albany Democrat makes the following comments in regard to the petition: The petition sent to S. A. Dawson shows the names of 29 persons who helped elect him senator from Seio. The records show that Mr. Dawson received only 10 votes at Seio. There is a joke on somebody. A young man 18 years of age, who signed the petition to Senator Dawson in which it is stated he helped elect him to the high and honorable position, (he was elected in June, 1894), is having his hands full explaining matters. Home Talent. The people of Lebanon always patronize entertainments given by home talent much more than those given by travelling troupes. That is as it should be, as it not only keeps their money in their home town, but also entertainments given by home talent are almost invariably for the purpose of assisting some worthy cause. Moreover, the entertainments by home talent are nearly always well worth the admission price, as the amateurs of our town always endeavor to please every one in their audiences—and generally succeed even to that extent. We believe that this will be the case with the military drama to be put on next Tuesday evening by the Woman's Relief Corps, as they are exerting themselves to make the drama a model of perfection. They have secured a fine variety of costumes and more scenery than usual. We hope and believe that they will be greeted by a large audience. W. R. C. Entertainment. The plot of the play to be given by the Woman's Relief Corps, next Tuesday evening, is very interesting and humorous incidents are plenty. Following is the SYNOPSIS: ACT I.—Charleston, S. C.—The Firing on Fort Sumter.—A Lovely Rebel. —The Quarrel.—The Escape. ACT II.—The Camp.—Farnsworth as Corporal Bunglestein.—As Dutch J. P.—Inside the Rebel Lines.—The Forced Marriage.—Face to Face. ACT III.—Farnsworth a Prisoner at Biddy McGee's Hut.—"Wash," the Negro, Hastens Through the Lines For Relief. ACT IV.—Biddy McGee and the "Thavin' Sojers."—Farnsworth in Disguise.—Startling Surprise.—The Tables Turned and Major Roberts a Prisoner.—Enter Kate Thorne and Friends.—Glad Tidings of Peace. Wm. J. Bryan's book ends with these lines, written by Ella Wheeler Wilcox: STILL Truth preclaims this motto, In letters of living light, No question is ever settled Until it is settled right. Ripans Tabules cure dyspepsia. Ripans Tabules: for sour stomach. Ripans Tabules cure constipation. Ripans Tabules cure liver troubles. Ripans Tabules: pleasant laxative.
