This order includes Oregon, California, Nevada, Arizona and Utah. The Lawler company has a force of about 25 men doing development work on the Quartzville mines, on the Santiam, and the mill is kept running night and day. A lively time is expected there in the spring. Rev. J. A. Loughbottom, a Cumberland Presbyterian minister of Eugene, preached in the C. P. church in this city last Sunday and will occupy the same pulpit next Sunday. He may accept a call to this church. Patronize home industry, by buying your clothing from the Waterloo Wadon Mills. It will be doubly to your advantage—it will keep the money at home, and will save you twenty as the prices are very low. The meetings at Tennessee school house still continue with increasing interest. Rev. C. U. Cross, of Springfield, is assisting Rev. J. W. Craig in conducting the meetings, and they will probably hold over next Sunday. Joe Smith made a shipment of a good quality of fur to Chicago yesterday. It was from animals of his own catching. The shipment contained two fine beaver skins, two otter skins, and a general assortment of other valuable furs. Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets do not affect the head or produce nervousness like the Sulphate of Quinine. Mr. N. W. Married, Feb. 28, 1897, at Tangent, Mr. Alfred W. Long to Miss Ida Knighton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. P. Haynes, and was witnessed by a large number of relatives and friends. The newly married pair left this city Monday for Lincoln county, Wash., where the groom possesses a valuable farm. The Express congratulates. A. M. Hammer Saturday evening made an assignment of his property to S. N. Steele, for the benefit of his creditors. The deed of assignment shows the assets to be a lot in the Brasfield addition to Yaquina Heights, 38 acres in Benton county, mortgaged to secure a claim of John Conner, 6 shares stock in the L. E. Blain Clothing Co., lots 5 and 6 in Albany, mortgaged to B. & L. A. and to secure note Mrs. Stubbiefield, some mining stock and a note of S. W. Ross for about $11. Total value not given. The liabilities are about $11,500, as follows: W. L. Vance, $3000; David Link, $250; W. S. Dodd, 300; Etta Stubbiefield, $1250; Margaret Hammer, $1150; D. Wilson, $1800; Albany B. & L. A., $1925; John Conner, $1000; F. B. Prater, $400; L. E. Blain Clothing Co., $600.—Albany Democrat. Mr. Hammer's many friends in this locality will regret to learn of his misfortune. Annual School Meeting. Nearly one hundred voters attended the annual school meeting held in this district last Monday. Much interest was manifested in all matters pertaining to the school. The clerk's report was read and listened to with attention. It was unanimously approved. The board was requested to secure necessary additional school room, and also to report to the district three different sites suitable for the erection of another building. It is the purpose of the district, at some future time, to build either an addition to the present building or to erect another building in some other part of the city, as may be hereafter decided. For some reason, not made known at the meeting, the committee appointed at the last meeting made no written report embodying a plan for the acquisition, by purchase or otherwise, of the grounds of the Santiam academy, as requested to do. It seems that the persons controlling the academy were averse to the district's acquiring the grounds, and the matter has been dropped. S. O. Long and S. M. Garland were elected director and clerk, respectively. L. O. T. M. Mask Social. A mask social will be given by the Lady Macabees, at the Band hall, March 19, 1897.
