Mr. Smith's involuctary tap was due to nervous prostrathrestened for a time with typhoid fever, but careful attention prevented any serious results and he is now in his usual good health.

A resident on South slough, in Coos county, was caught in his own bear trap the other day. He had set the trap a day or two before, and so well did he cover it with leaves and moss that he was unable to locate it when he went to look for it. While hunting for the trap, he put his foot in it and was held fast, remaining there for a day and a night, until rescued by A. Nichols, who happened to be looking for cattle in the neighborhood and heard his calls for assistance.

"Doe" Johnson trapped a beaver of unusual size near Junction City the other day. It weighed about 80 pounds and the hide is worth $5 or $6. This beaver was an old-timer, and had frequently been seen on the river of late years, and all attempts to cepture it failed. It was seen a few days ago and word was sent to "Doe" Johnson, who eaught it without difficulty, "Doe" is an old hand at the business, and in speaking of plouver days, said that in me day in 1875, while going from near Junction on the river to Eugene he caught 75 beaver and sold the hides for

(From Albany Herald, Mar. 6.) A number of bridgemen were in Albany vesterday, it being the date for the opening of bids for the erection of a wagon bridge at Gates, to repiace the one washed out by last winter's flood, It was a joint meeting of the county courts of Linn and Marion counties, the North Sautiam, the stream to be bridged, being the dividing line between the two counties. Judge Barton and Commissioners Curt and Walters, of Linu county, and Judge Terrell and Commissioners Davis and Watson, of Marion county, met at 1:30 and opened bids, which were for both steel and wood. The bids were as follows, the larger amounts being for steel; Pacific Bridge Co., $3100, $3600, $4000.

$3500; $1.80 per foot. H. M. Stone, $1450, $1040. San Francisco Bridge Co., $2950, $8977; $1.75 per foot.

C. F. Royal, $1700, $1650

J. E. McCoy, $1237. R. M. Gilbert, $8, $7.50 per foot; 98 cents for approach; build bridge, $826. L. N. Roney, 12 propositions, $1195

J B. Tillotson, 10 propositions, $1280 to $1440.

Oregon Bridge & Construction Co., $2784.

F. E. Woodward, $1680, $8 per lineal foot, $1 for approaches; for whole bridge, $1485.

The various plans and bids were discussed during the afternoon, and at an evening session the contract was awarded to J. E. McCoy at $1237.

The bridge is to be a standard Howe truss, 174 feet long.

The bid at $826 was not considered. it being too low for satisfactory work. The Mill City people are anxious for the rebuilding of their bridge, and the two countles should consider that proposition.

A Clubbing Offer.

A great many of our readers in Line county like to take the Weekly Oregon ian. We have made arrangements whereby we can furnish it at a reque tion from the regular price to those who want both the EXPRESS and the Oregonian. The regular price of the Oregonian is $1.50 per year, and of the Express $1.50 when in advance. We will furnish both f r $2, per year in advance, a saving of one dollar to the subscriber. The Oregonian gives all the general news of the country once r week, and the Express gives all to: local news once a week, which will make a most excellent news service for the moderate sum of $2, per year Those who are at present subscribers of the Express must pay in all arrearages and one year in advance to obtain his special price. So much litigation has grown out of the attempt of Mrs. Della Frazier to horsewhip Emmett Holman, that Crook county is threatened with an increase of taxes. The Prineville Review says: "A bait is demanded by the citizens, not only of this place, but of the entire county, in reference to the cases now pending, and those which have occurred during the week. The start in the first case was trivial, but arrests and rearrests have been made, and our city and county have been put to useless expense, and it is time to call a halt."
