Millinery opening April 6th and 7th. W. J. Guy and wife visited in Albany Tuesday. Hoe Cake soap is pure, and will not destroy clothing. W. H. Worrell visited relatives in Albany last Sunday. Groceries—quality excellent—prices low—at Bach & Buhl's. Justice Lovelace and wife visited relatives at Salem this week. Hon. M. A. Miller was doing business in Albany yesterday. Frank Alexander and family have moved into the Bennett house. Phil Ritter returned to-day from a trip to the front of the O. C. & E. B. & B. are the initials of Bach & Buhl—but their groceries are A. 1. Born, Sunday, March 28, in Albany, to the wife of Mr. Chas. Scott, a son. Dr. R. H. Curl and wife have been visiting in Lebanon the past few days. You can make nice soft soap with Soap Foam. Directions on each package. Be sure and see the bargains in mandolins, for $3, at Will's music store. Hoe Cake soap wrappers are worth a cent apiece in valuable presents. Save them. Cheap, Cheap, Cheap, is the way they are selling at Read, Peacock & Co's big sale. Prof. J. Whitehorn, teacher of physical training, organized a class in this city last Saturday. Hon. E. R. Skipworth, of Eugene, visited over Monday night with his parents in this city. Miss Edna Allen, of Albany, spent Sunday and Monday in Lebanon, the guest of Miss Libbie Carothers. Are you looking for an engagement or wedding ring? French the Jeweler, Albany, has some handsome ones. One-half wool dress goods reduced to 10 cts., and bleached, all linen table cloth for 35 cts. a yard, at the Racket Store. The best dressed men in Linn county are those who buy their clothing from Bach & Buhl. Good suits for low prices. Prof. G. L. Calavan and wife passed through Lebanon yesterday on their way to Sodusville, on a visit to Mrs. Calavan's parents. High grade sewing machines for $25 at E. U. Will's music store, Albany. Send for descriptive circulars. Old machines repaired. Seventeen hundred feet of sewer pipe was received at Grant's Pass last week, and is being used to repair ditches and drains. Frank Skipworth came home last Thursday for a few days' visit with his parents, but has prolonged his stay on account of poor health. Pianos and organs sold on closer margins than by any other music house in the state, at E. U. Will's. Call or write for prices. Money to loan. A limited amount of money to loan on good farm security. Call upon or write to S. N. Steele & Co., Albany, Oregon. It will pay you to take the entire family to town and get them a new outfit while the big sale is going on at Read, Peacock & Co's Lebanon store. G. Byron Milloy and Mrs. Stella Rankin were married last Saturday, at the home of the bride's mother, in Albany, C. E. Hawkins, J. P. officiating.

Miss Myrtle Springer left Medford Sunday for Lebanon, Oregon, her erstwhile place of residence, where she will remain permanently.—Medford Mail. J. M. Settle returned home yesterday from Wheatland, where he had been to visit his nephew (a son of Sina Settle), who is dangerously ill with typhoid fever. The Ladies Auxiliary of the M. E. church, South, will serve cake and coffee at the residence of Mrs. Klepper, Friday, April 9th, from 7:30 to 10 p. m. Everybody invited. S. D. Titus, of Scio, will preach in the Baptist church next Sunday at 11 a. m. Mr. Titus was converted during Rev. Lindsey's meetings at Scio, in February. This will be his first sermon. Ladies: You are cordially invited to attend Miss DuMont's spring opening of millinery, on Tuesday and Wednesday, April 6th and 7th. All the latest styles for ladies, misses and children. Dr. Jones, of Sodusville, was in Lebanon yesterday on his way to Salem, to attend the graduating exercises at the medical school in that city, his son being one of the number who will graduate this year. There will be public exercises at the public school building next Monday afternoon. Prof. Baker requested us to announce that the patrons and friends of the school are cordially invited to attend these exercises. S. E. Young, of Albany, has united his son P. A. Young with him in his business of general merchandising and hereafter that business will be continued under the firm name and style of S. E. Young & Son. The front of Bach & Buhl's store now presents a very attractive appearance. The attractiveness is due to the fact that painter W. E. Hardee has painted the store front this week—and he did an excellent job of work. A good many Albany people have had the measles recently. The measles have also been general in western and southern Oregon. In Ashland nearly everybody got spotted, including one old gentleman, seventy years of age. Maron Correll and Jas. Cowan, of Wain county, Ky., arrived in town this week, and are now visiting their old friend, W. J. Scanland. Both of these gentlemen are out here for the purpose of locating somewhere in this valley. A new star route has been established from Lebanon to Lacomb. The stage will leave Lebanon daily, except Sunday, at 1 p. m., arriving at Lacomb by 4 p. m.; leave Lacomb daily, except Sunday, at 9 a. m., arriving at Lebanon by 12 a. m. No preaching at the M. E. church, South, next Sunday. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Prayer meeting Thursday evening. The pastor will preach at Spencer at 11 a. m.; at Crabtree church at 7:30 p. m. Union services of young people's societies in church at 6:30 p. m. Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets move the bowels gently, relieve the cough, cures the feverish condition and headache, making it the best and quickest remedy for Coughs, Colic and LaGrippe. Cures in one day. "No cure, no pay." Price, 25 cents. For sale by N. W. Smith. The Scio roller mill now has the largest stock of flour on hand ever accumulated there. After having filled the flourhouse and all of the available space in the mill, a track or truckway has been constructed from the mill to the warehouse, the lower story of which is now being filled. A. B. Nickerson, who has been working in a planing mill at Ainslie, Wash., spent Tuesday night in Lebanon with his parents. Al was on his way to Cottage Grove, having accepted the position of foreman of a planing mill at that place. He says his wife will move up to Cottage Grove in a few weeks. Services as usual at the C. P. church Sunday morning and evening. The theme at 10 o'clock will be "Sabbath Observance." Sunday school meets promptly at 10 o'clock. The Endeavor society will unite with the other societies in a union service in the evening. All are invited. J. A. LONGBOTTOM, Pastor. George M. Bilyeu has during the past month or six weeks lost about twenty head of cattle despite all that he could do to prevent their death. Mr. Bilyeu has plenty of feed and his cattle are all in fair winter condition. He is of opinion that his losses are caused by a sort of dry murrain, which will be abated as soon as grass is sufficiently advanced to furnish pasture.—Scio Press. Jessie, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Allen died last Saturday, at their home just south of the city, after several weeks' illness with typhoid fever, together with brain trouble. Jessie was about ten years of age. Rev. C. G. Harmoh conducted the funeral services in the M. E. church on Sunday afternoon, after which her remains were laid to rest in the Masonic cemetery. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community.

Last Tuesday Surveyor Fisher and Messrs. E. Kuebler, E. E. Hammaok and P. Lewis, as viewers, surveyed and viewed the new road that will probably be opened from Main street to the Sweet Home road, near John Bland's. This road should by all means be opened. There are several families along the route completely shut in. We hope the county court will open the road. Ed Hatch arrived at Gates Sunday night from the mines with the news that L. E. Lebarre, an old miner, was drowned last Friday when crossing the north fork of the south Santiam at the Andem mines. Being unable to control his boat while crossing he was carried over the falls into 25 feet of water and was never seen afterwards. His body has not been recovered. The deceased was a resident of Portland and leaves a wife and two sons.—Albany Democrat. A large crowd of the members and friends of the Cumberland Presbyterian church gathered at H. J. Boyd's residence Tuesday evening and marched to the C. P. parsonage, where they tendered a surprise and donation party to the new pastor, Rev. Longbottom, and family. There were between sixty and seventy persons in the party, and the table was heavily loaded with their donations. Refreshments were served during the evening. All present spent a most enjoyable evening. The fine residence of A. Becker in Albany caught fire at an early hour yesterday morning, and was burned to the ground, together with most of the contents. It is supposed the fire originated from a defective flue. The house was insured for $1500. The loss was about $2500. The alarm was sounded by Lair Thompson, who was returning home from work in the Herald office, but before the fire engines could reach the scene the house was in ashes. A piano and some furniture down stairs was saved. Enforcing the Memory. At one time East France is said to have had a law "that the children should be taken to the limits of the district and there soundly whipped, in order that they might forever remember the boundary line." So on Tuesday evening the members of our church, together with quite a number of the members and friends of the other churches of the town, concluded they would cause us never to forget our moving into the town by coming on us unawares and giving us a sound "pounding." We wish to say to you, friends, that we heartily appreciate your kindness to us, and we assure you we shall not forget the time of our coming into your midst. J. A. LONGBOTTOM, A. V. LONGBOTTOM. Notice. LEBANON, Or., March 29, 1897. TO THE EDITOR: In your last issue my attention was called to a certain notice wherein some good people claim that some one was trying to slander J. J. Sawyer. If this notice has reference to what I have said about the above gentleman, I will say, for those good people's benefit, I have written statements in my possession to bear me out in what I said. To give justice to all concerned, please investigate a little before making any more assertions. J. L. HANSARD. "T and Test Social." The following program will be given at the "T and Test Social" to-morrow evening, at the residence of J. W. Meizies: Quartette....."We'll All Take T" Recitation.....The T Party Solo.....Revolutionary T Recitation.....Selected Duet.....Charity Paper.....Originality Solo.....Selected All are cordially invited to attend. Refreshments, 15 cts. Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets do not affect the head or produce nervousness like the Sulphate of Quinine. Mr. N. W. Smith is authorized to refund money in every case where it fails to cure Coughs, Colds and LaGrippe. Price, 25 cents. Hoe Cake soap contains no free alkali, and will not burn the hands. Save your Hoe Cake soap wrappers, they are worth a cent apiece. Call and see Miller's new stock. Use Hoe Cake soap. We can afford to have you try all five flavors—one after another—of Schilling's Best tea, and get your money back if you don't like any. Your tea-trade for the next ten years is worth having.
