Mrs Archie Cox went to the Junction Tuesday to see Mrs Shamhart started on her trip to meet her husband in New Mexico. Upon her return on Mrs Cox subscribed for the Proclaimer before going on to her home on Rhea Creek.

Glenn Burroughs, the son of Mr and Mrs French Burroughs, is home from Walla Walla where he graduated from Whitman College. Mr Burroughs has specialized in mathematics and the sciences, and will teach these branches when he has recovered from his long student life, by rusticiating upon his father's fine ranch on Rhea Creek for a time.

D H Andrews has Volney Ray and Poke Judy helping him with his first alfalfa cutting.

Mrs Burroughs has 300 little chicks. Many of them are frying size now.

Chicken dinner with all the "fixin" at the Hotel Sunday.

Laxton McMurry has a crew of cutting his fine hay.

Born to Mrs Lutie Knopf, June 24 a 10 lb boy at the home of her father, Mr A T King. Mrs Jordan was in attendance and reports a fine boy and a happy healthy mother.

Mrs Knappenberg made a business trip to Heppner Monday.

Mr Chas Sperry has returned from a business trip to the Valley. He has his fence painted and is in a generally progressive mood.

Mr Arron Agee brought in a nice sample of rye. It looks pretty good and he says he planted it on the outside of his wheat field to feed the squirrels.

Dummy brought in 37 sacks of wheat Wednesday and sold 27 to Joe Waters. Come again Dummy

Chas Dickey is busy at odd times white washing the trees in front of his Pastime.

Suits cleaned and pressed for $1 extra pants 40c and ladies skirts $1.50 at the barber shop. Ralph Hymar Prop. Also get your shoes shined.

The Hotel is putting up as fine as can be found out side of Portland. If you want a good dinner, go there and get it. You will be pleased.

Don't cook dinner at home Sunday. Go to the hotel and enjoy a good dinner, without the trouble of cooking it.

Walter Becket and Theodore Anderson were in Ione shopping Wednesday.

Ed Fuller and a brother, brother in-laws of Geo Calkins arrive from Minnesota Tuesday to make their home in Ione.

F H Wilson says his wheat will go 20 bushel to the acre. From the sample he brought in the other day we believe it will.

Moving picture show at Walker's Hall every Thursday, Friday, and Saturday eveing at 7 30. Two films only.

WHAT SOME OF OUR PEOPLE ARE DOING.

Mayor Padberg is getting ready for a trip to the Cascade Mountains, and will take his family over land, staying until school commences.

Mr and Mrs A Young are eating the fine strawberries they raise in their yard.

Johnny Bryson has moved into the old Wood home and has cleared away the old shrubbery and commenced raising a lawn.

Mr Howard is building as fine a bungalow on his place near town as one could wish to see.

French Burroughs is cutting hay and he has any amount of it.

Mrs Willard Blake is busy with those boys of her's.

Mrs Oscar Cochran, as usual the busiest woman in town. And the one with the most responsibility, the small children are all well taken care of. Mr Cochran is home from the hospital and is about on his crutches.

Lute Jordan has returned from an eastern trip and will go to house keeping the John Blake house near the rink.

Mr Race is too busy to talk to, telling the farmers that this is the time of the year to haul their winter wood and coal to the farm.

Mrs Loren Hale is certainly busy. They have moved into their fine home on second street and she is overhauling and making nice the whole thing from garret to cellar and the yard too.

Frank Parker is cutting lots of wood, thinking of the winter demand.

Mrs Ganger is cooking for lots of people in her hotel. Mighty good cooking too.

Mrs Walker has put in new Axminster carpets down stairs and her home is simply dear

Mr Carle has been burning up the weeds by the side of his lawn so it won't get seeded.

D C Ely is still sadly pulling weeds, and wishing they hadn't got so far ahead of him. He is considering giving the Aid Society a job of finishing them, as the ladies take in all classes of work twice each month. But D C is afraid it would not be proper to ask them to do this work.

Mrs Waters is busy with about 125 little thoroughbred chickens she has raised. She has the full blooded anonas and these she has set incubators and raised in brooders this fine lot of young chickens.

It is worth a visit there to see them.

Mr and Mrs Frank Robinson on their way to Ione Rock to visit Mr Robinson's father.

Walt Smith has his wind mill running in the lot by the side of his house and uses water all the time to raise some alfalfa for feed for his horse so it will be in time to take the girls riding.

Bert Mason is enjoying riding in the swellest rig in town. And more than one girl looking anxiously after him as he goes down street.

Mrs Engelman is admiring the pretty new dresses she got in Portland.

Mrs Rufus Cochran, is as usual entertaining company. Her house is always attractive.

Picnic Friday, July 2
