LOCAL

All communications, as far as possible, should reach us not later than Tuesday night. Please bear this in mind and have communications in on time.—Editor.

Mrs Wm Swanson is house-cleaning and having the house repapered.

Mrs Dobyns and Walter spent the day at Mrs Thorpe's home on Rhea creek last Sunday. This being the first time Mrs Dobyns has left her invalid husband for over two years and eaten a meal from home.

Mrs Pennington is better and her many friends are rejoiced that Dr Chick says she will not have to go to the Portland hospital at this time.

Don't cook dinner at home Sunday. Go to the hotel and enjoy a good dinner, without the trouble of cooking it.

Mrs Knappenberg and Miss Edna Woolery visited Heppner Tuesday.

The water conference at Heppner was largely attended and another meeting will be held in the near future.

The Misses Opal Cochran and Pearl Gason and Messrs Cash Mallory and Ed Fuller drove to the Mason ranch last Sunday.

Lost: one yearling jersey steer, with a wire on neck; spiked horn, light color, animal in good condition. Finder will be given by seeing R. W. Cochran.

Ed Miller's mother left for her home Wednesday after a nice visit here.

Born—Wednesday July 28th a son to Mr and Mrs Oscar William at the home of Mrs Jordan in Ione.

W T Mc Nab came over from Nez Perce Tuesday to be present at the water conference at Heppner.

Mr and Mrs Wilcox and daughter left Monday for a few days in Portland.

John Harbke came up from Portland Monday on a business trip.

Mr and Mrs Mahoney passed through Wednesday on a trip to Portland.

Mr Esque has started a shooting gallery in the old Harry Reed stand next door to the Hotel.

Anyone in need of lime, cement, and shingles call and see G F Parker before going elsewhere.

J P Rhea and wife of Walla Walla came over Saturday for a visit. Mrs Rhea said they had brought over some food for our people this time.

The Ione Proclaimer is $1.50 a yr.

Mrs Marcotte and daughter of San Jose, California are here visiting her sister Mrs N Swanson and her brothers, the Troedsons of Ella.

E. A. Race, Manager of the Wind River Lumber Co. went over to Moro last Monday and returned to Ione on Thursday with a wife. The young couple will make their home here and the people are more than pleased to have them among us.

The Hotel is putting up as fine food as can be found out side of Portland. If you want a good dinner, go there and get it. You will be pleased.

The Lawn Social given by the ladies of the Congregational church last Friday evening at the home of E J Bristow was a unqualified success. Early in the evening a peanut hunt was enjoyed by the children in which Charley Pennington took the prize. Refreshments were served and a large crowd did justice to the viands provided.

J W Becket of Portland came up last Saturday to visit his son Walter and family of Eightmile.

Miss Anna Swanson, who has been the successful nurse Ione has known for several years was married July 21st in Portland to Clyde Nichols of Grangeville, Idaho. The happy couple visited the Seattle fair and came to Morgan Wednesday of this week to visit Mrs Nichols parents. They will leave for their new home in Grangeville Monday.

Chicken dinner with all the "fixin'" at the Hotel Sunday.

What a Woman Did.

There is much to be said against the New York cabby, but there are frequent occasions when one is really deserving of sympathy. The other day a cabby drove a well dressed and refined looking woman to a Broadway restaurant, where she ordered an expensive lunch and then told the waiter that she had lost her purse, but that her cab was waiting and if he would send a boy with her she would go home for the money. The boy entered the cab with her, and she directed the cabby to drive to a Sixth avenue department store. When they arrived she left the boy in the cab, entered the store to make an imaginary purchase and went out at the opposite entrance. In the hope of getting information about his departed fare, cabby drove back to the restaurant, accompanied by the brass buttoned boy, whom he blackguarded all the way for letting the woman escape. The restaurant people discharged the lad for the same reason, and the driver cried quits.—New York Times.

Gladstone Nicknames.

A collection of the nicknames that were from time to time conferred upon Mr. Gladstone would be a fine dictionary of epithets alike of love and dislike. Besides such perennials as the Grand Old Man, "the G. O. M." and the People's William we recall the Franchise Bill, the Pope of England, St. William the Woodcutter, the Mahdi of Middlethian, the Old Parliamentary Head, the People's Will, Mr. Merrybelle, the Ancient Senator, Younger the Man, Hawarden Bill, Prime Billy, W. G., the Only William and the Old Gentleman. At one time his name was a favorite theme for Christmas carols, among which may be remembered the following elegant outburst of a Conservative wit: "I should be my first if I could throw my second at my wife."

More Than Pleased.

"Really, I do not sling," said Roggy Beavall.
"Oh, joy?" laughed the pretty girl with the hat of fudge.
"There it goes again. If you say 'Oh, joy?' again I shall go straight home. I really shall."
"Oh, joy! Oh, joy! Oh, joy!"—St. South Beach, Oregon.
