Again the ring of the wheat hauler's horses are heard on the streets of Ione and the warehouses are beginning to fill with wheat that will bring the highest prices the farmers of this section have had in years.

The extra session of Congress is over and the tariff that is to govern business for the next number of years, is a law and now whether it be for good or ill we must adapt ourselves to the condition. The Republican party have made good for many years in upbuilding many parts of the United States under the laws that have been theirs and it is fair to be supposed that the administration now in power will maintain that state of affairs. Of course there are many who are never satisfied; who constantly howl that the money power own the country, but were it not for aggregation of capital, where would be the development of this wonderful western land. All who wish can find a way under present conditions and it is to be hoped that the people in the cities, who are complaining of severe poverty, will come to Morrow county and raise wheat and cattle and find what it is to live the "natural life".

We are pleased to announce to our readers, an addition to the Enterprise staff, by the arrival at the home of the Editor, Monday, August 2, a seven pound Girl. Mother doing well and the Baby is the finest on earth.—Monument Enterprise.

Here's wishing you as much happiness in possession of the Enterprise daughter as we have in the one the Proclaimer owns.

W B Ewing and family moved into their new residence Monday which has been lately completed.

The meeting held here Saturday by F M Saxton assisted by Cooper was largely attended by those interested in irrigation and others who came out of curiosity, for rumors of ditches that would have to be cemented, and a charge of $6. for each and every well in use and other requirements became afloat which gradually simmered down to a charge of 15 cents per acre for all acreage under ditch and $1. for filing papers.

Dry land farmers may still haul water and the air we breathe is still free, but as soon as the Wrights perfect their Airship and there use becomes general, we will be required to pay so much a cubic foot for the air we breathe, either with or without sand, and no doubt they will adjust matters to prevent us getting more than our share when the wind blows.

The Proclaimer for $1.50 a yr C J White and wife of Willows attended the water meeting.

Mr and Mrs Ed Farnsworth of Rhea riding stopped long enough while enroute to the mountains, Saturday, to take out their ditch right.

Notice—Ben Buschke of Ione wishes to notify parties on the Northside who have stock running at large that if they don't keep them out of his grain he will take them up and bring them to Ione to the livery stable where the owner will have to pay charges.

Among others who attended the meeting from down the creek were Mr Peterson, J F Deas, Mrs M F Settlemier and son Bert, Robert Wilson and wife, Mr and Mrs Huff Mrs Petro and daughter Mollie, Dr Ruedy, W B and H S Ewing, Dr Kestner, E F Fairhurst and S M Morgan; from Ione down were Mrs Lena Ray, Archer Rice, Johnnie Bryson, F C Diligant and J F Hardesty and others whom we failed to get names.

L E Mc Bee and little daughter Hazel left Tuesday morning for the fair at Seattle. They were joined at the Junction by his mother Mrs Buckingham, of Echo, and expect to be absent about 10 days.

C F Dempsey and wife returned from Portland Friday and are now at the Jake Bortzer farm. While in Portland their only daughter, Thelma, aged three years, took Cholera Morbus and died August 3. Mr and Mrs Dempsey have the sympathy of all who know them, in their sad affliction.

The bridge across Willow creek at this place has been declared unsafe and a man is engaged at present putting in braces and supports. To the writer a notice put up requiring those who use the bridge to walk their horses across and enforce same, might be a timely suggestion, as a gallop is a common gait with some while going across.
