Miss Pearl Cason will be ready to reopen her music class the first of September.

The last lawn party of the season will be held at the home of Mr and Mrs P. G. Balsiger, Tuesday evening, August 31. It is free to all and everybody is invited and desired to come and have a good time.

The new superintendent of the Ione School, Mr Coffman of Wisconsin, arrived with his wife and four children in Ione Tuesday and are with Mrs Loren Hale until they fix their house for housekeeping, they having rented the J. E. Swenson house on Second street.

Notice—Ben Buschke of Ione wishes to notify parties on the Northside who have stock running at large that if they don't keep them out of his grain he will take them up and bring them to Ione to the livery stable where the owner will have to pay charges.

J. A. Waters and W. S. Smith left Wednesday for Spokane on a business trip.

C. E. Shaver received a postal card from Chas Dickey and he is working on a threshing machine in Idaho.

Mr and Mrs A. Young have been entertaining their daughter-in-law Mrs Walton Young and her daughter of Newhall, California.

Mr Herman made a business trip to Portland Wednesday.

It would be a good idea if the leak in the water pipe in front of the post office was fixed as there is a hole there almost large enough to bury a horse.

Geo Warner was in Tuesday and advertised his final homestead proof.

Mrs Frank Akers has returned from her trip to the mountains.

Paul Rietman is hauling in his wheat. Who said they didn't have anything on the north side.

PUBLIC SALE.

There will be a public sale of livestock at the C. P. Bowan ranch on Butter Creek, Tuesday, August 31st, at the hour of 10 A. M. Blooded Jersey and Holstein cows and calves, and also some good horses will be sold on eight months time at eight percent interest with approved security.

Mrs C. T. Walker went as far as the Junction with her two nieces who have been visiting her for some time; they going on to their home in Hays, Kansas while Mrs Walker went to Grants Pass where she will prove up on a stone and timber claim she has there.

Rube Sperry said if we didn't put his name in the paper this week that he would stop it.

Harry Akers who has been working in the harvest here and at Condon left Wednesday for Portland where he expects to remain.

Money to loan on Morrow County Farm land at 7 per cent From three to ten years.

W. S. Smith
Post Office, Ione, Oregon.

Viola Akers who has spent her vacation in the Gooseberry country is home again.

Mrs Leta Jordan and Mrs Walter Puyear have returned from their trip to the mountains, and the men about town are so pleased for Leta and Walter. They say the way those two poor men have starved themselves and grieved is enough to turn the hearts of stones, although they kept Biz's lunch counter well cleaned.

Ed Hammer and family returned Monday from a camping trip to Butter creek coal mines. They report a splendid time notwithstanding they lost their horses and had a hunt of three days before recovering them.

T. J. Mahoney was in town Thursday attending to business.

Bert Mason returned from a trip to Portland and Seattle, on last Wednesday.

Earl Puyear left today for Granville, Idaho.

Mrs Leta King, of Heppner, daughter-in-law of A. T. King, is in Ione visiting.

Messrs Johnson and Smith of Dryfork brought in two big wagon loads of hogs Wednesday. Rufus Cochran bought them and will soon make a shipment of hogs and sheep to Portland.

Chicken dinner with all the "fixin'" at the Hotel Sunday.

Walter Puyear fell and sprained his ankle very bad and is now on crutches.

Mrs Jordan has for guests Mrs Josephine Curran and Miss Lenore Curran.

The embroidery club meets with Mrs J. A. Waters to-day.

Mr Williamson is moving his family to town from the ranch. As their town house has been vacant for some time they are having a time clearing off weeds.

Anyone in need of lime, cement, and shingles call and see G. F. Parker before going elsewhere.

Bill Windsor and son, Walter, went to Idaho for a trip, Friday. They have done well here this fall in harvest and will return in a month or two for the winter.

R. S. Wilcox went to Portland to day having put his combine under cover for this year.

Geo C. Carter representing the Smith Premier Typewriter was in town this week.

R. W. Hickok was down from Heppner Thursday and went into the country.

Rufus Cochran has had the misfortune to lose his favorite riding horse. It had been used Sunday to bring some cattle into town and became overheated and died from the effects. Mr Cochran is feeling as bad over losing an old favorite and to know it died from want of care after its faithful life as from the money involved.

The Portland Commercial Club is advertising extensively through all the periodicals that go over the east and they are not only advertising Portland but are saying all kinds of good things for all Oregon.

WALL ON THE MAIN LINE.

Conductor Wall is gone from the branch line and is now delighting the travelers on the main road from Portland to Pendleton, with his genial and taking manner. Up here we surely will miss him as every man, woman and child knows him and as he is the same to all people and that sameness of the pleasantest ways we shall all regret his going.

ADVERTISING THE FAIR.

S. T. Warner, of Pendleton, has been thru the country advertising the fair at Pendleton. He was traveling by wagon and when he reached Ione had been out two weeks.

He has been to Pilot Rock, Heppner, Lexington and many points and went from here to Irrigon by way of the Willow creek. Mr Warner says the fair will be better than ever and that the people who miss it will regret it.
