Cecil.

H. S. Ewing made a business trip to Heppner Monday returning Tuesday.

The teacher engaged for the coming term of school here went back on us and at present we're without a teacher.

Mrs. Fred Pearson, formerly Miss Opha Hicklin, and a one time resident of Arlington but now residing at Stockton, California, visited her old school mates Mrs. M. V. Logan of this place and Mrs. Lena Ray of Ione, last week, while enroute to Seattle. Joining her husband there they will go East taking in New York and other prominent cities, expecting to be absent until November 1st.

Miss Hazel Mc Bee left Saturday for Buhl, Idaho, where she began school September 7th.

Miss Clara Wheelhouse of Arlington is visiting her little friends Luciel and Vivian Logan this week.

Mrs. Jack Hynds and children returned Saturday from a two weeks absence in Portland and vicinity.

John and Bee Miller, Herbert Everett and Natie Macomber started on a hunting trip to Desolation lake, but gave it up after going as far as the Coal mines—owing to the open season not being until the middle of the month, they said, but we think old Jack Frost bluffed them out.

John Mc. Carty of Echo came over Saturday and measured Rogers hay which he purchased. This is the second sale of hay here, Boyd Logan having sold 100 tons to Smythe for $9 per ton and Rogers sold for $8 giving 7 1/2 ft for a ton, which is about equal to $9 as otherwise measured.

Percy Boatman of Spokane left Monday to again enter school having spent his vacation on Doctor Ruedy's ranch one mile from Rhesiding. Percy is a brother-in-law of the Doctor.

Leon Logan and J. W. Osborn are busily engaged threshing, and judging from the extra sacks ordered, must be getting more of a yield than at first expected.
