Chas Reed's eldest son, Walter Reed of Oregon City, is here for a visit.

Mr and Mrs Tom Wilson who have been here visiting Mrs. John and Mrs. Willard Blake, returned to their home in Portland Monday.

All kinds of Postal cards and Novels at the Chick Pharmacy.

Ed Ball, who has been in Portland for the past month, returned Saturday.

Mrs. A. C. Pettys returned last Friday from a visit at The Dalles.

Dave Biggerstaff broke his record the other day and told the truth and in return received from Lew Davidson a fine driving horse. For particulars apply at headquarters.

All kinds of New Stationery and some dandy Birth-day Postcards at the Chick Pharmacy.

Last week when it looked like the Ione people would have to carry water Agent Pennington wired the Railway Superintendent for permission to use the Company's tank and engine. The request was readily granted and Mr Kelly came up to see that everything was in order. The city main was connected and thanks to the courtesy of the officials of the O. R. & N. we have much good water.

The Hotel will be open and in running order on the 26th, so come in to the Demonstration train, they will be here on that date from 9am until 12, and have dinner with the railroad people.

Professor Kaufman, wife and family took his sister-in-law, Mrs. Fredenhagen for a drive Sunday and she viewed this fine rolling country from the hills.

Albert King was in and spent the day with his father, A. T. King, the other day and left $2 to pay for The Pioneer and Journal. Thanks Albert, tell your neighbors about a good thing too.

S. M. Moore left Tuesday for a business trip into Washington.

Mrs. Mickel who has been here the past week in the interest of the Hotel left for Portland Tuesday.

Mrs. C. W. Swanson returned from a visit to the Seattle fair last Friday.

Will Padberg delivered a six horse load of fine potatoes as were ever grown in town Tuesday. Half of the load went to Walker's store, the other half to Halvorsen & Mason.

Mrs. E. A. Race returned from Moro, Monday where she has been visiting her parents.

Mrs. A. E. Fredenhagen, a sister of Mrs. Kaufman, is here visiting from Seattle. Mr. Fredenhagen has the largest ice cream concession at the Seattle fair.

A. T. King was 70 years old the 12th and it is a treat to see a man so well preserved in this day of fast living. Also he has worked hard for years, it would be hard to believe him more than fifty.

Alcott Lundell, who has been visiting his sister Mrs. Emil Swenson of Grangeville, Idaho, returned home Saturday.

Miss Audrey Woolery is shopping in Portland.

John Clark has moved his family into Mrs. Barton's house.

Frank Young was in Saturday and took home his water tank that Paul Balsiger has been repairing.

D. I. Russell, the new heavy land owner of Ione, will go to Waitsburg this week to meet his wife and return to their Los Angeles home. Mr. Russell retired from actual business life two years ago and while he and his wife will spend two or three months here each summer, he has rented most of his land to Mr. Buschke who will take charge at once.

Mr and Mrs Ed Glock returned Saturday from a trip to the fair at Seattle.

Out at the J. L. Kincaid ranch they have certainly been raising some potatoes this year. The hills average ten pounds each and this being scattered among only a half dozen spots too.

P. W. Todd of Tillamook who owns the place known as the old Wilson place was here this week looking after his business interests. He will spend the winter in San Jose, California.

A. B. Grover who has been in Pendleton for the past month returned this week.

Mrs. H. M. Warren, formerly Miss Ethel Kincaid, and who now lives in Portland, sent news of a three ten pound son to her Ione friends, last week.

Walter Edbanks returned Monday from an overland trip to Grangeville, Idaho with the Bill Watson outfit. He reports a fine trip and all of the Ione settlement as well.

Mr and Mrs E. J. Bristow who have been visiting in and around Pendleton, for the past month, returned Tuesday.

Mrs. Chas. E. Nabb, the long lost and eagerly looked for wife of our sad eyed citizen of the past month, returned from Nez Perce, Idaho, to gladden the heart of her husband and son on Tuesday. And after all the times those poor souls have been in to look for her, when she got here she was not met.

Morgan

Mr. Cotter left last week for Seattle where he expects to visit the fair. George Martin accompanied him as far as Walla Walla where he stopped off to visit his parents.

Mr. Hass' family left last Saturday for Portland where they will remain for the winter. Mr. Hass stayed here to look after the ranch.

Mrs. N. Swenson and daughter, Hilma, came on Friday's train from Seattle where they have been taking in the fair and also visiting Mrs. Fred Gustafson, formerly Miss Augusta Swanson.

Bert Palmateer came home from Grangeville, Idaho, last Saturday where he has been working thru harvest. He thinks that country as much too wet as this is too dry.
