Headquarters for the Jukes

Once upon a time a child who was asked upon an examination paper to define a mountain range replied, "A large sized cook stove." The same method of reasoning seems to go with older growth. A recent examination paper at the Sheffield Scientific School at Yale contained the question, "What is the office of the gastric juice?" And the answer on one paper said, "The stomach."—Cleveland Leader.

Handicap of Bad Roads.

"Don't you realize that you are financially handicapped by bad roads?" "Of course we realize it," answered Farmer Corntassel. "No automobilist dares travel fast enough to give us an excuse for collectin' a fine.—Washington Star.

Jaffer—But don't you believe competition is the life of trade?
Pugway—Sure! Sooner or later it leads to the formation of a trust, and that's the way to make money.

Wanted.

"Johnny, did you have a good vacation at that little lake resort?"
"No, sir. Maw wouldn't let me go swimmin', and she made me take a cold bath every mornin'."

Probably Insane.

"Winkley is a good deal of a crank, isn't he?"
"That doesn't half describe him. He's going around now insisting that if the postoffice department has to be made self-sustaining the war and navy departments ought to be run the same way."

Fine Recipe for Colds.

Any druggist can supply these ingredients, or he will get them from his wholesale house.

"Mix half pint of good whiskey; two ounces of glycerine; half ounce of Concentrated pine compound. Shake the bottle well each time and use in doses of a teaspoonful to a tablespoonful four times a day." This prescription is said to work wonders.

The Concentrated pine is a special pine product and comes only in half ounce bottles, each enclosed in an airtight case, but be sure it is labeled "Concentrated" in order to get the genuine article.

Household Talks

Preserving Hints.

The first consideration is a preserving kettle of brass polished until lustrous and with no stain of fruit.

This is the sort of vessel used by the old-fashioned housewife and the jellies of our grandmothers have never been equalled.

Porcelain kettles should be discarded as soon as they commence to crack and tin, iron or pewter should never be used.

The best jelly bag is a long one made of flannel, which is made in a point at the bottom.

This should never be squeezed in order to hasten the dropping or a discoloration of the fruit will result. In selecting fruit the greatest care should be taken to see that it is not overripe.

Berries that have been picked more than 24 hours are too old to make good jelly and preserves.

A cheesecloth bag will be found useful in straining the fruit through the colander.

Bruss Jelly.

Stew a quart of prunes in a quart of water until they fall to pieces. Press through a colander. Soak a box of gelatin in a cupful of cold water; pour on gradually a cupful of boiling water and stir until thoroughly dissolved. Add one pint of the prune pulp, the juice of a lemon or orange and a little sugar. Strain into wet mold. Put in cool place. Turn out and serve with whipped cream.

Good Doughnuts.

Two cups of hot mashed potatoes, four tablespoons of shortening, three cups of sugar, four eggs, three cups milk, five teaspoons of baking powder and flour, enough to make the usual consistency of doughnut dough. Make a cream of potatoes, shortening, sugar and nutmeg for flavor. Then sift about four cups of flour with the baking powder; add to the mixture as much flour as needed.

Old-Fashioned Drop Cakes.

Cream a scant cup of sugar with one-half cup of shortening, add a cup of molasses, one-half teaspoonful of powdered cloves and cinnamon, mixed, one teaspoonful of salt and two level teaspoonfuls of baking soda dissolved in one cup of cold water. Add enough flour to make a quite thick batter and drop this from a spoon into a greased pan. Bake in a quick oven.

Canning Sweet Corn.

For canning, cut the same as for drying. To thirteen pints of corn add one pint of salt and one pint sugar in granite pan and stir till it forms its own juice. Set on back of stove, where it will heat and stay hot for an hour or more, then draw to front of stove till it comes to a boil and can. For canning or drying always use corn rather too soft than too hard.

Delicious Broiled Steak.

Sprinkle the bottom of a skillet quite generously with salt. Place on the fire and let it become quite hot. Now put in your steak, turning frequently, so as to retain the juices. When done place on a heated platter and season with pepper; also add small bits of butter. This makes any steak quite tender and insures a rich flavor.

Hochester Gingerbread.

Beat half a cup of butter to a cream; gradually beat in half a cup of sugar, two well-beaten eggs, one cup of molasses, one cup of thick, sour milk and three cups of flour, sifted with one teaspoonful and a half of soda, one teaspoonful of ginger and one teaspoonful of cinnamon. Bake in two brick-leaf pans.

Green Tomato Pie.

Line a plate with nice crust, fill with peeled and sliced green tomatoes, add half a cup of sugar, one tablespoonful of butter cut into bits, four tablespoons of vinegar and sprinkle with cinnamon or nutmeg. Cover with a top crust and bake slowly.

Corn and Sweet Potatoes.

Cut the kernels from six ears of boiled corn. Cut into dice four large boiled sweet potatoes. Melt a tablespoonful of butter in a frying pan and stir into this the corn and sweet potatoes. Fry, stirring often, for ten minutes, then serve.

Green Tomato Mince Pie.

Chop fine one pint of green tomatoes and three large apples. Add three cups of sugar, three tablespoons of flour, one-half cup of vinegar, one-half teaspoon of salt, and one teaspoon of mixed spices. Bake with two crusts.

A Feeble Pleat.

The learned writers for the press are very, very good at proving how we waste on dress or furbelows or food. Each writer new who makes his bow with other sages vies to show unhappy mortals how they may economize.

They tell us of the thrifty French, who all excesses shun. But I'm not anxious to retrench; it isn't any fun. I'm weary of this endless song; I wish some seer wise would show us how to get along 'And not economize.

—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Tact.

I am sorry to have to tell you so boys," said the pleasant looking visitor who was addressing the Sunday school "but there is not one chance in a thousand that any one of you ever will be President of the United States."

Still he failed to secure their undivided attention.

"But if you live up to your opportunities," he went on, eyeing them keenly, "some bright boy in this audience may become a great baseball pitcher or the world's champion batsman."

Instantly every boy sat up straight and began to listen.—Chicago Tribune

Destroys Hair Germs

Recent discoveries have shown that falling hair is caused by germs at the roots of the hair.

Therefore, to stop falling hair, you must first completely destroy these germs. Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, will certainly do this. Then leave the rest to nature.

Does not change the color of the hair.

Ayer's

Formula with each bottle. Show it to your doctor. Ask him to heat it, then do as he says.

Recent discoveries have also proved that dandruff is caused by germs on the scalp.

Therefore, to cure dandruff, the first thing to do is to completely destroy these dandruff germs. Here, the same Ayer's Hair Vigor will give the same splendid results.
