"You've GOT To Earn MORE"

It isn't a question alone of whether you want a better salary—it's a hard condition of life that you must face to protect yourself and those dependent upon you.

You can't stand still—if you don't want to go backward, you must go forward—that is, you've got to earn more.

Earning more means holding a better position—independence, happiness, and a chance to provide for the future.

Thousands upon thousands who once held low, poorly paid positions now earn high salaries as a result of letting the INTERNATIONAL CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOLS show them how to accomplish the change. During last year about 4,000 students voluntarily reported increases in salary amounting to over two million dollars! Every month an average of 300 men voluntarily report to us advancement in position and earnings. Why not make YOUR start this month?

HOW TO DO IT

Simply mark on the coupon the position you wish to secure, then tear out and mail the coupon to the International Correspondence Schools. This puts you under no obligation whatever but allows our experts to adapt a course to your individual needs and circumstances.

You've got to earn more money.
The I. C. S. will help you.
Will you take the start today?

Odd Bits

Milburn, O.—J. D. Hart exhibited at the County fair a pair of stockings over 100 years old. They were made by his grandmother who picked the cotton, wove it into thread and then knit the stockings. During the storm in Galveston in 1900, they were rescued with difficulty and by merest accident were saved.

Beloit, Wis.—Clarence Montroy is earning money to pay his way through school by allowing automobiles to run over his body at a mile a minute clip. Then he takes up a collection in the crowd. He also bends horse-shoes in his teeth as a side line. He was left an orphan when his father murdered his mother, sister and brother and committed suicide.

Williston, N. D.—When Kenneth Jordan, an 8-year-old prisoner in the county jail, secured the keys from the sheriff and opened the doors telling the prisoners they could escape, only one of the twelve took advantage of the offer. The one who escaped was rearrested.

Chester, Pa.—When Williams Downs was entrapped by blue dye in a vat which he was mending he was overcome by fumes and taken out for dead. After the undertakers had prepared the burial and removed it to Downs' home, the corpse arose on his bed and screamed: "I'm not dead, and don't you think I am."

Shelbyville, Ind.—The Lon Mull farms near Manila have the record apple. It is sixteen inches in circumference and weighs 26 ounces.

Philadelphia, Pa.—It takes fifty cents to commit suicide by the gas route in Philadelphia. When Viola Day grew tired of life, put a pipe in a gas jet, the other end in her mouth and lay down to die, the quarter in the meter ran out and her life was saved.

London, Eng.—English women who have always looked on the use of rouge as bad taste, are beginning to use it in large quantities. The makers of cosmetics say that worry from the war is making the women pale and they are resorting to paints and powders in desperation.

Not Even Skin Deep.
Hokus—Yes, she's pretty, but she doesn't wear well. Pokus—Rubs off, eh?—Judge.

More Pressing Needs.
"I need shoes."
"Then why don't you buy some?"
"It is evident that you know nothing of family life. My graphophone needs records, and my wife needs dancing lessons."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Knew Arithmetic Anyhow.
A teacher of music desired to impress the pupils with the meaning of the signs "+" and "-" in a song they were about to sing. After explaining that "+" meant forte he said, "Now, children, if '-' means forte, what does '+' mean?"
Silence reigned for a moment, and then he was astonished to hear a bright little fellow about "Eighty!"

MANDOLIN FOR SALE—A reasonable price, apply at Journal office, Ione, Oregon. 16-25

FOR SALE—192 acres fine farm land, all fenced, cropped this season, $7.00 an acre. Small house on property. $700 cash, balance in 1917. 7 miles from Ione. See Ione Realty Co., Ione, Oregon, Box 162.

Live Stock in Alaska

Live stock has not received as much attention as crop production in Alaska, but enough has been done to show that there are considerable possibilities in this line. Grasses grow luxuriantly in the interior valleys, and forage crops of various kinds can be grown successfully in all parts of the Territory. One handicap, however is the difficulty of curing forage in the damp weather generally prevailing. It is proposed to meet this difficulty in part at least by the use of silos.

Consumption of Sugar

The consumption of sugar per capita in the United States is estimated to be more than ten times what it was a hundred years ago. During the past five years, the consumption has averaged about 83 pounds per capita. A hundred years ago the consumption of sugar varied widely. It was usually, however, between 4 and 10 pounds a year. Great Britain consumed 92 pounds per capita more than the United States in 1911, but France and Germany used far less, the per capita consumption being 39 and 42 pounds respectively.

There is an aerial machine far more economical of energy than the best aeroplane invented, and that is the bird known as the golden plover. This bird, can fly 2,400 miles without a stop, making the trip in not quite 48 hours and using only two ounces of fuel in the shape of body fat. A thousand-pound aeroplane, if as economical of fuel, would consume in a 20-mile flight not the gallon of gasoline required by the best machines but only a single pint. The fact that the screw propeller of the aeroplane has no lost motion, while the to-and-fro motion of the birds' wings appears to be an uneconomical way of applying power makes the fact regarding fuel seem even more strange.

"Advice Gratis," a Game.
To those who are willing to give and receive advice without asking payment hand a slip of paper and ask them to write down a few words of advice, then to fold the paper securely and deliver it to the collector, who will call for it presently.

The papers having been thoroughly shuffled in a hat or bowl, care being used not to unroll any, the players are requested each to draw one. Before opening it, however, the leader will direct him to give his opinion as to whether the advice he is about to receive is good or unnecessary or has other merit or demerit. He will then open the paper and read it aloud.

The advice will probably be more remarkable for its spicy personal character than its high moral tone. Such gems of counsel as "Try to rise earlier than 9 o'clock," "Give up smoking cheap cigars," "Use less rouge," "Stop flirting in street cars," "Be more select in your language" and the like will be suitable for the occasion.

The Farmer's Problem.
A farmer is moving and carries with him a fox, a turkey and a basket of corn. He comes to a river, and the boat will carry only the farmer and one of his charges. Now, if he leaves the fox and turkey alone the fox will eat the turkey, and if he leaves the turkey and the corn the turkey will eat the corn. How can he safely take them all across the river?

Answer.—By taking the turkey over, coming back and taking the fox over, bringing the turkey back, taking the corn over and coming back for the turkey.

Land of Wiggy Wug.
In the land of Wiggy Wug an elephant lived on a Persian rug. His automobile was a Wiggy bus. That sped over Wiggy road.

He had a messenger fat and strong that sang to him a Wiggy song: "I'll tell you the words—you see it's not long."

"I'm a beautiful Wiggy toad."

The elephant laughed and grew so fat that the toad had to find a Wiggy cat to carry his cane and hold on his hat as they rode through Wiggy road.

When some fellows "come back" they have a cold storage look.
