CITY COUNCIL CLOSES POOL HALL SUNDAYS

Orders Marshall to That Effect—$207.78 in Bills Paid—Will Pass Ordinance Prohibiting Entering Saloon on Sunday.

The City Council met Tuesday evening with Councilmen Moore, Bryson, Perkins and John Cochran present and Mayor E. L. Padberg presiding. Also present C. J. Pennington, recorder.

Bills to the amount of $207.78 were audited and ordered paid. After a thorough discussion of the matter the council ordered the marshal to see that pool halls in the city remained closed on Sunday. The motion was made by councilman Perkins and seconded by Cochran.

A committee has been appointed to draw an ordinance prohibiting any person, including the proprietor, from entering a saloon on Sunday. Provisions will be made in the ordinance in case of accident such as frozen water pipes breaking, etc.

WOULD SELL BUSINESS

On account of the poor health of Mrs. Cochran, the Ione Meat Market is for sale as is noted in our advertising columns. Mr. Cochran has been in the business here for over eight years and has the best equipped shop in the county. He also does a fine business all the year around and during the summer months the sales are enormous.

TELL US THE NEWS

Please remember that the editor is a comparative stranger and will appreciate any local news you may be able to give him. Accounts of marriages, entertainments, parties, etc. can be mailed or phoned or brought direct to our office and we will give them due mention. The names of visitors in town or doings of Ione people now living in other places make interesting news and the editor will be glad to get them. Help us make the Bulletin a real home paper for the people of Morrow County.

CLUB MEMBERS TO MEET

An important meeting of the Ione Commercial Club will be held tomorrow (Friday) night at the usual place at 8:30. The committee on by-laws will report and the members will pass upon the same. Also all bills to date will be passed upon. The celebration committee will also report. The presence of every member is urged.

The contest to determine who shall be Goddess of Liberty for the 4th of July parade has not opened very strong but it is expected that it will become more spirited in a short time. The votes this morning were: Mabel Davidson 50, Mae Ganger 50, Dorothy Taylor 35, Zelma Porter 26, Marie Cason 25, Amanda Carlson 25, Dorothy Ganger 25. Mrs. Ed Hale of Heppner is visiting her son, Jewel, in this city. Cecil Hale is spending the day at his brother's also.

Mrs. Henry Streeter of Cecil spent several days in Ione this week having her little son's face doctored.

IMPROVEMENTS

Beach Haines has the cleanest kitchen at the Ione Hotel that one will find in a year's travels. Also Beach decided that to keep it clean he must keep out the flies and therefore had built a screen affair that keeps Mr. Fly out entirely. During the past week Mr. Haines also had the office of the hotel repapered.

W. J. Puyear has made many improvements in his cafe the past week. A fresh coat of paint inside and out, with a neat sign on the window helps the looks a great deal. He has also added a new pool table.

DEPOT PAINTED

A force of O-W-R & N. painters are putting a new coat on their buildings on the branch. They brightened up the local depot and other buildings this week and they now present a fine appearance.

TWO MARRIAGES THE PAST WEEK

Miss Campbell First June Bride—Grace Brown Marries Young Washington Man.

Annie M. Campbell was the first June bride of this vicinity when, by the words of cupid's agent, Rev. Van Winkle, she was united in marriage with Arthur Keene last Thursday. The ceremony took place on the lawn at the home of the bride's parent's, Mr. and Mrs. W.T. Campbell. They will live on the groom's ranch on Rhea Creek and have the sincere wishes of a host of friends that their voyage on the sea of life will be a happy one. The Bulletin extends its heartiest congratulations.

Miss Grace Brown of Ione and Robt. Burroughs of Skamania County, Wash., were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents in this city at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, Rev. Van Winkle tying the nuptial knot. They left on the train the same morning for the groom's home where they will reside. The best wishes of their friends and congratulations of The Bulletin follow them.

Adrian Engleman brought in his usual crates of eggs Monday. Mr. Engleman believes in letting the hens do the work while the wheat is growing and thereby has a little spare cash at all times.

Mrs. M. B. Haines went to Portland Monday where she will visit relatives for ten days or more and take in the Rose Festival. She will also have her eyes examined by a specialist.

Jas. Carty and Pat Currin brought a band of beef cattle to Ione Saturday from Tub Springs. They were bought by Mr. Blake who shipped to Portland Sunday.

Mrs. Dezell, who visited several weeks in Ione at the home of her sister, Mrs. Bert Mason, left Saturday for her home at LaCrosse, Washington.

Algett Landell is spending the week in Portland, presumably to see that a certain young school teacher doesn't get lost in the Rose Festival crowds.

A. E. Johnson went to Portland yesterday but will return for the fourth after which he will take Mrs. Johnson to their home in the Rose City.

E. H. Turner returned from a visit to Spokane Thursday.

HEAVY RAIN AND HAIL STORM DAMAGES CROPS OF MANY MORROW CO. FARMERS

Several Lose Entire Stands--Downpour of Water Follows Hail, Washing Away Barns and Drowning Chickens and Hogs.

From the various reports that have been brought in regarding the heavy rain and hailstorm of last Saturday it is apparent that considerable damage was done to the crops of several individual farmers but the grain as a whole is greatly benefited by the moisture. Most of the damage was done in the Gooseberry country where, we are told, the hail fell in spots several inches deep in a very short time and was followed by a downpour of water. It is said that in some places a foot of water fell in two minutes and that during the worst of the storm it was impossible to see farther than 25 feet. In several places the roads were washed out and rocks piled several feet high in the canyons. The hailstorm also hit several places near Condon and wiped out a few wheat crops besides killing many chickens. Some of those who were hard hit by the storm are: J. A. Lovgren, whole crop; Elza Sutton, whole crop; Wm. McClintock, whole crop; Ed Dalzell, barn washed out; Wm. Mackie, 140 acres of grain; Fred Akers, 300 acres of grain; Newt King, 30 hogs; M. R. Ball, header and 120 chickens; Ralph Akers, 160 acres grain and 350 chickens, and many others had small losses.

LAWN PARTY

A lawn party was given last Thursday evening by the young people's class of the Christian Church Sunday School on Mrs. Dobyns' lawn and with their invited guests the party numbered close to fifty. Outdoor games were played and the orchestra rendered several selections. Rev. Van Winkle gave two short comical readings. The evening was fine and the party was not dispersed until about eleven o'clock. The lawn was beautifully decorated with Japanese lanterns.

ATTEND CONVENTION

Rev. Van Winkle will attend the State convention of The Christian Church at Turner and expects to be gone about a month. It is expected that in the near future a minister will arrive to take the pastorate of the local Christian Church.

STORM VISITS CECIL COUNTRY

Damage to Hay Slight and Other Crops Greatly Benefited by the Heavy Rain.

There was an unusually hard electrical storm in this region Saturday, which was followed by soaking hard rain, a general benefit to every thing except the hay and the damage will be slight to that.

The heaviest of the week Saturday caught a wagon that Boyd Logan was tightening the tires on in the creek and washed away one wheel.

Dr. H. W. Copeland of Lexington was in Cecil Friday. He is representing the John W. Graham Co. of Spokane for school supplies and also carries a line of optical goods.

Mrs. J. W. Oathout, mother of C. W. Oathout, left Saturday for her home in Minnesota but will stop over for a few days in Portland.

Mrs. M. V. Logan and children were passengers to Arlington Saturday for a few days visit with friends there.

Mrs. Carle of Ione and sister came down Friday for a few days visit with Mrs. Franklin who resides on the Rogers place.

L. E. McBee and wife and two daughters came over from Pendleton Tuesday in their auto for a few days visit.

Wm. Hynd of Sand Hollow came down Wednesday returning next day.

Walter Pope was a visitor at Arlington Tuesday.

Ed. Melten went to Arlington Friday.

IONE WINS THE SECOND GAME FROM HEPPNER

Only Three Heppner Batters Connect Safely With the Ball and Fourteen Fan the Breasts—Ione Boys Land on Reitman.

The ball game at Heppner Sunday was won by Ione, 8 to 5. The Ione boys started in at the first of the game and hammered hits to all corners of the lot, one hit going clear over the stock yards. At the last of the seventh Reitman was replaced in the box by Thornton who stopped the scoring but Ione had a safe margin already. For seven innings only two Heppner players reached first base, one being hit and the other walked. Both men scored on slow work by the Ione players after they had the runners caught between third and home. In the eighth inning the Heppner people showed very poor sportsmanship by rushing on to the diamond on a questionable decision by the umpire who waved a ball foul and later reversed his decision after two men had crossed the plate. Heppner batters made three scratch hits and fourteen were retired by the route that dyes the face with shame.

None of the pitchers were very wild only about five men reaching first base on free tickets. The (Continued on page 2.)

LANDOWNER DIES

J. E. Cronan returned last Friday from a Portland visit. While in the Rose City Mr. Cronan acted as a pallbearer at the funeral of his friend, Richard Wilson, who died of heart trouble while on a streetcar going home. Mr. Wilson made a business trip to Ione about two weeks before his death and is known by many people here. He bought the Gorton ranch of 856 acres west of Morgan some time ago. He was one of Portland's leading financiers and will be greatly missed by his associates. He was but a little over fifty years of age at death.

SICK MAN DOING WELL

Frank Woods, who was quite sick at Monument, was still able to be moved and was brought to Ione. He is at John Bryson's residence and is getting along first rate but no visitors are allowed to see him. It is expected he will be entirely recovered in a few weeks.
