

Newsy Briefs From All Over the County

LEXINGTON ITEMS.

Mrs. Mae Burchell has been on the sick list the past few days.

Mr. Al Zink, George Zink and Ivan Cox left Sunday for sheep shearing.

Miss Merl Carmichael and Miss Ramona Bissell were Heppner visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Burchell and daughter, Hulda were Heppner visitors Saturday.

The High School pupils are busy practicing for a play to be given the last week of school.

Reverend J. L. Jones of Portland will conduct services at the Congregational church next Sunday, May 10.

Several of our young people attended a party Saturday evening given at J. H. Campbell's. All report a pleasant time.

Mrs. W. D. Montague of Kelso, Washington, came Saturday to make a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Fidler.

Miss Cecil Rice returned to her home in Heppner Saturday after spending a few days with Mr. Burgoyne and Mrs. Ed Pointer.

Miss Nettie Davis closed a very successful term of school Friday in District No. 17. The programme given in the evening was well attended.

Miss Florence Olmstead, the primary teacher, in on the sick list again. Miss Lela Pomeroy has taken charge of the room until Miss Olmstead is able to teach again.

Stanfield Standard.—Prof. S. H. Doak is just about to close a year's work as Principal of the Stanfield Public Schools which has been very successful and satisfactory to the patrons and school officers. Mrs. Doak has assisted the pupils in making their pennants and is greatly esteemed by all the children. In church and other social activities of the community, she has always been a faithful co-worker with her husband. It is regretted that they are not to be here next year. Mr. Doak having contracted to teach at Lexington, Oregon.

CASTLE ROCK NOTES.

Mike Marshall shipped a car load of fine fat sheep to the Portland market last week.

Shearing is over and most of the sheep are gone, so things are rather quiet at Castle Rock at present.

H. H. Weston is doing some plowing for James Bellamy, the section foreman. Mr. Bellamy is going to try to raise a crop of potatoes.

Mr. J. A. Gibbon was on the sick list last week. However he is much improved and resumed his school work Monday.

Mr. A. R. Nall had a very fine cow delivered to him Monday. He purchased the cow from Mr. White on Willow Creek.

S. H. Boardman was down for his ranch last Sunday. Mr. Boardman is very optimistic about the prospects for irrigation and the future of this end of the county.

R. S. Crooks of Desolation Flat has recently purchased a fine team of black mares. We presume Rob is getting ready to go to farming as soon as Uncle Sam gets the water down that far.

When Neal Daughtery went to ship his wool last week, he found two sacks were missing. The wool had been left in the yards here at Castle Rock. No one seems to have any idea what could have become of them.

The work on the Echo-Coyote cut-off is progressing very rapidly. Twohy Bros., the contractors, are making every effort to complete the work as rapidly as possible. They are running a night and day shift, and at present they have the large cut and fill at Coyote Canyon more than half completed.

M. A. Bates of Hardman spent a couple of days in Castle Rock the latter part of last week. Mr. Bates has been working on the north end of the Heppner-Irrigon road, and was on his way back to Hardman. While here Mr. Bates looked over the Hillman ranch two miles east of here. He was much pleased with the ranch and if he can get the right terms thinks favorably of renting it.

IRRIGON ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Rand were in Umatilla Monday.

H. T. McKenzie of Portland was an Irrigon visitor Sunday.

Gertrude Johnson went to Pendleton Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brownell were down Sunday to visit relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelley of Umatilla visited at the Johnson home here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Kicker went to Umatilla in a buggy, Saturday, on business.

Oscar Corey was in Umatilla a short time last Friday. He rode down on horseback.

Dr. and Mrs. Oftedal, of Umatilla were visiting at the Roadruck home at this place Sunday.

Mrs. N. Seaman is expected back from the east any time now, as her father is rapidly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Roadruck spent Monday and Tuesday at Umatilla, the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Oftedal.

Ether Gralbeal went to Umatilla Friday to visit her aunt, Mrs. Carl Brownell. She returned Saturday morning.

Mrs. Earl Baucom went to Pendleton last Friday on a combined pleasure and business trip. She returned Monday morning.

The Graybeals have moved back to Kamels for the summer. They came up here last winter and may come back again next year, but it is not certain.

Fishing and swimming are now becoming popular sports since the warm weather has set in and both the river and main big ditch are haunted by ardent sportsmen and athletes.

Mrs. Harry Minnick will take a trip to Weston to visit her mother and old friends the middle of the month and to take in the Pioneer's picnic which is held annually at Weston. She may stay two or three weeks.

Warren Corey had a runaway experience the other day, when he lost control over his horse, having only a halter for guiding. No harm was done, however, but Warren decided to use bridle hereafter when riding.

Dr. Oftedal and Willis J. Pegg, the publishers of the Umatilla New Era visited in Irrigon last Friday. They expressed much surprise and pleasure at the appearance of our little city and said they would come again.

Guy Corey is becoming one of the most progressive farmers about here now. He has recently purchased a hog, though he is starting on a small scale, will doubtless soon realize a neat sum from the hog business annually.

Our school will close on the twenty-second of this month. There will be no closing exercises as the pupils will have all they can do to finish up their work creditably and as the majority of those who acted in the plays last winter have left school no play will be given as was formerly intended.

N. Seaman has an order in for some three hundred thousand post cards containing views from the island of Guam and other Pacific isles. The collection is a very interesting one as the view show the natives at all of their peculiar customs and habits, and is well worth looking at.

James Carty is in from the Sand country.

Herbert W. Copeland, eye specialist is in the city.

John Kilkenny is transacting business in the city.

Mrs. Claud Herrin was down from the Mill Tuesday.
