

HARDMAN
BLACKSMITH & GARAGE COMPANY

An Up-to-date General Repair Shop.

Any and All Kinds of Work Promptly Done. Garage Work A Specialty.

OIL and GASOLINE

ROSSEN BROTHERS,
Hardman, Oregon

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. Lee Padburg of Ione was in Heppner Saturday.

Mr. P. M. Butler of Ione was in Heppner on business Tuesday.

Mr. J. J. Sumas, the hotel man from Monument was in Heppner Sunday.

Born—To the wife of H. A. Emerson, Monday, June 29, an eight pound girl.

Mrs. William Wilson and daughter left Sunday morning for Rhea Siding to visit.

Mr. M. S. Corrigal president of the local bank, was in from Butter Creek Sunday.

Mrs. Ralph Johnson and two children returned to Walla Walla Monday morning.

James Wyland was transacting business in Heppner the first part of the week.

H. H. Hoffman returned from his cherry ranch near Eugene on Sunday's train.

Harry Cummings was in the Herald office Tuesday with some fine apples and cherries.

Mrs. Nellie Biasset went to Ione Wednesday and will remain until after the 4th.

Mr. Lee Copenhaver left for Walla Walla Sunday morning to remain permanently.

Mrs. Wes Stephens and children, from the Hardman section, were in Heppner Monday.

Mrs. Mike Marshall left Heppner Wednesday with her son for her home near Castle Rock.

W. E. Leach and Ed. Pointer were Heppner visitors from the Lexington country on Friday.

Elmer Beaman sold his red R. C. H. car to W. W. Abott and partner, the insurance men.

Mr. R. McElligott, a prominent farmer of the Eightmile district, was in Heppner Saturday.

Mr. J. W. Forest who is one of the prominent ranchers near Spray was in town Sunday morning.

Miss Augusta Leroyce of Portland returned Saturday. She has been visiting relatives here.

Mr. R. M. Brown of Ione who has been spending a few days here left for home Tuesday morning.

Donavan Bros., who live near Spray, shipped two car load of cattle last Sunday to Portland.

Mr. A. E. Featon of Seattle who has been visiting friends in Heppner left for Ione Sunday morning.

Mrs. Jenks and Miss Keeny of Monument went to Ione Monday to visit Mrs. Knappenburg.

Pete Collins and Frank Hale left Heppner for Lexington Tuesday looking for a job during harvest.

Father O'Rourke and niece, Margaret O'Rourke went to Portland Monday for a two-week stay.

Mack Smith left for Ione Wednesday where he will work during the celebration for Walt Puyear.

Mrs. J. S. Baldwin and two sons went to Lexington Wednesday to spend the day with her parents.

Mr. S. W. Meadows returned to Portland Sunday. He has been visiting friends and relatives here.

Mrs. W. O. Hill and son returned Sunday from Portland where they have been visiting for three weeks.

Richard Howard left for Ione Tuesday morning. He wants to be sure not to miss any of the celebration.

Mr. John Mainis and Jake Malloy dropped in from Portland last Sunday and will work in the harvest fields.

Mr. Grover Cox and wife left for Portland last Sunday. He expects to stay for a week or ten days and his wife will remain for a month. Mr. Cox lives fifteen miles north of town and reports everything in first class shape.

Al. Slocum left for his home in Portland this morning. Al. went up to the Court House before he left and had the papers made out which turned over his office in the Moral Squad to Prof. Hoffman. Al. was undecided for a long time as to whether to give the position to Prof. Hoffman of Jim Huddleston. Jim is in line for a position and we would not be surprised to hear of him going up at any time.

Frank Engleman and daughter, Miss Zelma, were in Heppner Tuesday. Miss Zelma has entered the Oregonian's subscription contest for the Willow Creek valley territory and will solicit in Heppner, in an effort to win one of the valuable prizes offered.

Mrs. Arriet, the daughter of Mrs. D. Cox of Butter Creek, was brought to town and operated on last Friday by Dr. McMurdo for a bad case of appendicitis. She is better now and will be in her natural condition in a few days.

Mr. Jake Young of Eightmile was in Heppner Tuesday and stopped in at Noble's where he got some new millinery for his mules. He took a new header out and we didn't see all that he had in his wagon box.

Mrs. and Mrs. C. E. Shaver were up from Ione in their auto on Monday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Ward, who was formerly editor of the Ione Proclaimer, and who is now visiting in that city.

Mr. George McDuffy left for Canyon City on Sunday morning. He is the deputy sheriff of Morrow County and will attend the trial of the alleged horse thief.

Harry, Charley and Tom Johnson and Frank Smith left Heppner Sunday to build a two-story house for Herl Olden on his ranch at Eightmile.

Ike Howard, one of the most prosperous Willow Creek ranchers, who lives just at the edge of Ione, was in Heppner Saturday and while here placed an ad in The Herald, which will be found in the last column on page six. Mr. Howard desires to sell several 10 and 20-acre tracts of his bottom land. These tracts are just outside the city limits of Ione and are within a quarter of a mile of the Ione School. They are all under ditch and are ideally located for families who prefer living on a farm and still be within easy walking distance of town. Mr. Howard says he will soon be harvesting his second crop of alfalfa.

Mr. James B. Coxon of Lexington and Miss Edna O. Ayers of Galloway were married in Lexington last Sunday. Rev. Goulder, pastor of the Methodist Church South, conducted the ceremony at his home. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ayers, prominent farmers of Butter Creek. Mr. Coxon is an enterprising barber of Lexington and will bring his wife to Lexington where they will live. James promised his wife before they married that he would take the Herald, the next thing that's necessary after the kitchen stove.

Mr. E. N. Gonty, the shoe man, informs us that his brother, Edwin Gonty, who recently went to Portland to engage in the taxidermy business is now the only party in Portland doing business in that line. He bought out two firms and has the field to himself. He employs six men and is doing a fine business. Any Heppner parties having work of that kind to be done can leave orders with Mr. Gonty at the shoe store and he will forward same to his brother, assuring you of prompt service.

Mr. E. D. Brown went to Echo last Tuesday night. He left town without telling anyone and there was considerable excitement until he was located. Ed. says that the next time he thinks about leaving he is going to publish his intentions in the Herald.

Jean Lovegren, a prominent farmer near Gooseberry, was in town Wednesday. He says that he has a fine 300 acre crop of wheat that will go 25 bushels to the acre. His brother, Martin, has a fine crop and a larger acreage.

Walter Gay from Rhea Creek was in Heppner Wednesday. He dropped in the Herald office to see the linotype work and was much interested as it was the first one he ever saw. This is his first venture out since he ate that picnic dinner.

Elmer Beaman took Wm. Haylor on an auto trip out to Hardman and down below Ione on Tuesday and Mr. Haylor tacked up some of his advertising signs. They were accompanied by Jos. Nys.

Our readers will note an ad of Mr. E. N. Gonty. Mr. Gonty has shoes that resist wear. If you want to surprise your feet see Gonty's. Shoe satisfaction is his byword.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Akers were up from Ione on Saturday. They are farming the Willow Creek ranch which they recently purchased from Frank Nash, and Mr. Akers is getting "fat and sassy."

Mr. James Hama and Miss LaVell Kirk of Hardman were united in marriage by Judge Patterson in the parlors of the Palace Hotel at 10:00 o'clock Sunday morning.

Mr. Emery Hiatt was in the Herald office Wednesday. This is the first time that he has been uptown since he was taken sick two months ago.

Al. Miller deposited a few dollars with the city treasurer this week. He was arguing with Justice Williams until the Marshal came along.

Marshall McCraw has been cutting the weeds this week for property owners who have neglected doing so.

We call your attention to the ad of Mr. E. N. Gonty on page six. It might pay you to read it.

The County Commissioners are in session and were passing on bills and different accounts.

Dr. Culbertson has moved into Mrs. Gentry's house in the north part of town.

They are Johnie on the spot—The South Bend Watch. See Haylor.

Henry Coats from near Hardman was in Heppner Wednesday.

Al. Slocum's wife left Tuesday for Wasco, Oregon to see her daughter. Al. will entertain the Moral Squad at his home this week in her absence.

Frank T. Hurlburt, cashier and R. M. Rogers, assistant cashier of the Condon National Bank, were in Heppner Sunday on business.

Mr. Cid Bennett came in from Cid with Mrs. Ben Bennett who will go to Ontario. She has been visiting at his home for some time.

Tom Ross of Echo, the man who have bought probably two-thirds of the wool of this section, stopped off in Heppner Monday.

George Groshen left Wednesday morning for Colton, Washington, where he will work for two or three months.

Jake Wattenburger returned Friday evening from the Palouse Country where he has been shearing sheep.

The editor's family is grateful to some party for the sack of fresh peas left inside their door a few nights ago.

J. Lin Wyland of the Hardman district has been hauling wool to Heppner. He has about 60,000 pounds this year.

City Health Officer, Dr. McMurdo says that Sherman Shaw who has been sick with varioloid is doing fine and will be out soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Pettijohn left yesterday for Reid's Mill where they have secured work.

Hebert W. Copeland EYESIGHT SPECIALIST

Morrow County Dates For August
Aug. 20, 21, 22 at Palace Hotel Heppner... Aug. 23, 24 at Beymer's, Lexington... Aug. 25, 26 at Carle's, Ione.

"The window of the soul"—THE EYE.
Most precious gift to man!
As the busy years of life go by,
Preserve it while you can.

School children needing glasses should be fitted at this time. Do not start the boy or girl into school work this year with defective eyesight uncorrected. It means misery and bad lessons for the child.

Andy Cook, the County Road Boss, is in town from working the county roads.

Charles Heckman was in Heppner from Rhea Creek yesterday with a load of girls.

Dave McAtee and son Arthur left on the 20th, of this month for John Day City where they will remain until after the 4th. They went to see the ten-day race carnival.

Tom Milliatt is very sick. At the time we go to press he is unconscious and it is feared that his old age will make recovery difficult.

Miss Floy Green, who has been visiting at the home of Andrew Neill in Lone Rock, returned to Heppner on Wednesday.

Raymond Thornton is back from George Perry's ranch.

George Perry has returned from McDuffy Springs where he has been taking treatment for lumbago. He was met here by his son.

Paul Heisler is still looking for a wife and says that he might go to Portland later on and look over the stock there.

The Fair Board wishes to say that now is the time to save up grain samples. It will only take a couple of hours of time and a large exhibit of grain is the best advertisement for a county that can be made.

Farmers, the Morrow County Fair is your fair and the success of the fair depends on exhibits. It is up to you to see that the exhibits are forthcoming. The Fair Board has secured the services of Mr. O. M. Freytag to arrange the agricultural exhibits and he is the best man in the state for that purpose. We are prepared to receive grain samples at the Scrivner Building, next door to the Scrivner shop on Main St. Don't fail to collect samples of your wheat, oats, barley and rye.

There has been a great deal of complaint in this locality recently about our relation with Mexico. Monday morning as we were passing the District Attorney's office we heard some very earnest talking and upon entering heard the following temporary arrangements read.

General Disorder was appointed to head a brigade of Oregon cavalry. General Disorder will be advised by a very competent staff consisting of General Denial, General Demurrer, General Traverse, General Issue, and General Consumption. Major Indemnity and General Assumption will act as aide to General Disorder.

Excitement reigned when the rumor or arrest of Judgement passed through the gathering. Judgement was placed in custody by Corporal Punishment, with the assistance of Private Nuisance and Private Rights. He was taken before Admiral T. Court who later released him on lack of evidence.

The brigade will be accompanied by two nurses, Miss Fit and Miss Nomer, providing the Moral Squad approves.

Mr. C. R. McAlister and family left for Grass Valley, Oregon. Mr. McAlister is connected with the Government Forestry Service and will spend the summer there at least and he might stay permanently. They will leave a host of warm friends.

Kent Rakes, who lives 4 1/2 miles northwest of town near Chas. Valentine's place, wants to employ a woman for several weeks. The work will be easy and commence immediately. It's a good place for some girl or woman.

There is an old saying that your troubles comes not singly but in battalions. A few nights ago someone tried to carry away a part of the Phelps grocery store. Wednesday noon they tried to burn his house. As the Herald editors had finished fishing out a few pages of hot stuff from the ink bottle and were going home, they noted the field west of the Phelps residence afire. Such a disturbance is no comparison to the irate temper of an angry subscriber and the fire was soon extinguished.

The mail going south of Parker's Mill from Heppner has been discontinued, according to the local postmaster, Walt Richardson.

IONE ITEMS.
The Bert Johnson home was the scene of a pretty surprise Friday evening, June 26th. A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Knappenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Del Ward, Mrs. Jessie Smith, Mrs. Campbell, Walt Smith, Opal Cochran, Mrs. W. C. Cason, Audrey and Josephine Woolery and Marie Cason took possession of the place and spent a very pleasant evening.

Walt Smith motored to Pendleton Saturday morning. He was accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Campbell and mother and Marie Cason. Miss Cason will go on to Walla Walla to visit her sister.

Mrs. Guy Nordyke and Miss Swanson, both of Lexington, were Ione visitors last week.

Med Akers returned to Ione on last Friday evening after an absence of several weeks.

Will Reeves and Ed. Weiner, who have been visiting at the Pennington home for the past two weeks, left for Portland last Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ries arrived in Ione Tuesday to spend the 4th, with Mrs. Ries' parents.

John Ritchie, who was taken ill suddenly last week while at work down near Cecil, is fast on the road to recovery.

Miss Della Perkins of Portland arrived last Tuesday evening to be here for the celebration and also to visit her father, M. E. T. Perkins.

Arch Cochran, who has been employed on the White Swan Land Co.'s ranch for the past several months, returned to Ione last week. He expects to remain here all summer.

Albert King and family returned to Heppner last Friday evening after spending a week or so here. Mr. King has been assisting in the barber shop until Mr. Turpin could get another barber.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Forbes returned from their trip to Shepards Hot Springs last Thursday.

A "Baby Holt" combine was unloaded here last week for Mr. Finley of Sand Hollow.

Jessie and Chester Warfield returned to Ione this week after an absence of several months. They expect to work through the harvest here.

Quite a large number of idle men are seen on the streets here these days waiting for the harvest to begin.

Prof. Nash, who was the Principal of the More schools last year, was an Ione visitor this week. He is spending the summer with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Peter Nash of Cecil.

Roy Ray, formerly an old timer of this vicinity, returned to Ione last week. He expects to move his family here and remain permanently.

Mrs. Fell, who came all the way from Redmond, Oregon, to be operated on in the Heppner Sanatorium last week, is doing well.

Insure in a Strong Old Line

Western Company of Known Worth

Such a Company is

Continental Life

of SALT LAKE CITY.

Modern, Up-to-Date Policies with Guaranteed Values, at a Rate So Low it will Surprise You.

We write not Only Life Insurance, but Accident and Health Insurance, paying a Stipulated Amount Each Week You Are Sick or Hurt.

ESPECIALLY INVESTIGATE OUR FAMOUS 20-YEAR INVESTMENT POLICIES

W. W. ABBOTT,
Agency Director

C. C. PATTERSON,
LOCAL AGENT