Religious Side of Socialism

BY HEPPNER BRANCH NO. 1

Please print the religious side of Socialism. As the platform of the Socialist party puts it, Socialism is purely an economic and political movement and has nothing directly to do with religion. Indirectly it may have something to do with religion, just as it will have to do indirectly with education, just as it will have to do with sports and a great many other things. Those who are religiously inclined will, when Socialism prevails, have the means to develop their peculiar phase of religion as they cannot possibly do now. The workers will have the means to support the church, and the church under their support will represent their interests and will no doubt express religion in a way that will vary considerably from that now expressed. If Socialism was going to prohibit religion, or atheism, or do anything but give the utmost liberty of belief, it would be too narrow not only for you but also for the Socialists. Whatever you many want to be, Socialism will afford you an opportunity to develop that.

What a disheartening record must the Christian face after 1900 years of Christian effort not more than one person in sixty of the present generation has been truly converted to Christ by the method of individual salvation. At this rate how long will it take to save the world?

It will be in order now to consider why Christianity has made such slow progress. Without going into detail it must be evident that so long as man must struggle for a mere animal existence, he never has and never will develop his better nature or have a desire to investigate spiritual realms. To a man in extreme sickness, health is the only thought but with health returned, he thinks of other things. To attain the higher ideal we must eliminate the mere struggle for existence. Socialism alone points out the remedy.

The Socialist does not underestimate the purified individual soul. These are swept and garnished habitations in which the angels dwell and look with unpolluted eyes upon the world. But this is not all that is needed. While the church labors to save one soul, Poverty chases a million into sin. The religion of the world must be built on the rock of universal prosperity, and Justice is that rock. Justice is now lacking, men permanently love those things that are beneficial to them.

The Church is beginning to see the logic of industrial and social liberty and when she acts as though she meant to help instead of hindering Socialism, the Kingdom will be close at hand. Countless thousands of Christians have espoused Socialism and hundreds of Ministers of all denominations have joined the Socialist party and are preaching true Socialism from the pulpits regularly. Christian Socialism Fellowships are being organized among church people everywhere. Christians and especially every minister should subscribe for the Christian Socialist, of No. 5623, Drexel Ave., Chicago, Illinois, and come in contact with those already in the Socialist Movement.

LATEST WAR NEWS

HEPPNER, Sept. 11—Heavy firing was heard here this afternoon and it was thought that a body of Germans were close upon the city. It was afterwards found to be B. K. Searcy and Sherm Shaw practicing for the shoot.

IRRIGON, via H. Jct., Sept. 10—The "Watch on the Rind" is becoming more strict and it has been hard to penetrate the lines. The opening of school has caused much of this.

HEPPNER, Sept. 11—It was reported at this place by Private Jim Huddleston that the city was relieved from attack by water since Willow Creek was dry.

IONE, Sept. 11—Several large German schooners were sunk here lately according to reports.

HEPPNER, Sept. 11—Telephone communication has been on the bum here for some time but men are now working on the lines.

CECIL, Sept. 11—Reports were current here that a strange character was seen driving through the country and stopping at nearly every house. It afterwards proved to be W. E. Wallbridge collecting fair exhibits.

HEPPNER, Sept. 11—The defenders of the city were reinforced by the addition of Corporal Cornett who bears a splendid record for service in past engagements, especially with the rifle.

HEPPNER, Sept. 11—Several bombs exploded in this city recently, one in the moving picture theatre last Saturday night.

LEXINGTON, Sept. 11—Large numbers of the population are on the move here. Many have food collected to last several days and other valuable articles which they will carry with them to Heppner to stay during the Fair.

HEPPNER, Sept. 11—In an interview with the Herald correspondent today, Al Binns stated that there was a large supply of vegetables in the city and it could stand a long siege.

IRRIGON ITEMS

George Caldwell has returned from harvesting and is now working on the government ditch.

Warren Corey came back from near Dayton where he has been working the latter part of the summer.

A Mr. Bacon, a relative of Mr. James Bowers, is living in the Wilson house.

Harvet Cox and family are in town and Mr. Cox is working on "Uncle Sam's big ditch."

At the recent school election Mrs. L. M. Davis was elected Clerk, Mr. Kicker having resigned to teach in Milton.

Mr. McCann, Principal, and Miss Vance, the primary teacher, are taking charge of the Irrigon schools in a very commendable way.

Mr. Graybeal and family, of Kamela, are going to spend the winter again in Irrigon. All the people of the town welcome them. They will move in the Doering house.

The Irrigon people are planning to send a good general display of "blue ribbon" fruits to the Heppner Fair. C. L. Roadruck is manager of the Irrigon exhibition.

The old post office will be used as the Government office here after the surveying crew returns from Coyote Springs, where they will work for six or seven weeks. They are preparing to move now.

CHURCH NOTES

There will be regular services at all Heppner Churches next Sunday. The Christian Church will hold special services for the older folks.

Rev. Goulder has returned from the Methodist Church South Conference and informs us that he will leave Heppner after the Fair. He will receive his appointment next week when the conference meets which decides this. He was transferred to his old home conference, the Columbia Conference. He said that the Conference was largely attended and everyone was enthusiastic.

Rev. J. D. Crooks, the new pastor of the M. E. Church South in Heppner will be here next Sunday and hold services both morning and evening. He comes here from Troy, Idaho.

Rev. Tabor, of Lexington, will leave that town soon for Wingville, over near Baker City. Just who will succeed him we do not know yet.

Rev. W. A. Orr, former pastor of the M. E. Church South here was appointed to this district again. This is his third year in this district.

FOR SALE—16 Poland China shoats, eligible to registry. Also one good Durham cow, a heavy milker. James Bellamy, Castle Rock, Ore.

YOU WILL inevitably judge any Studebaker car by exceptionally high standards.

You will expect — because it is a Studebaker — a car possessing extraordinary efficiency.

The Studebaker SIX — although the lowest priced of all "Sixes" — welcomes precisely that high expectation on your part.

It invites the most searching scrutiny; it insists upon comparison with any other "Six" at any price.

And this is because it is not only a Studebaker SIX, but a manufactured "Six," the product of more than six thousand Studebaker manufacturing operations.
