

The First National Bank OF HEPPNER

Oldest Bank in Morrow County

Capital, Surplus and Profits
$140,000.00

Your Banking Business Will be Appreciated

LADIES

Bring in your old hats and have them re-trimmed and made up-to-date. We do expert tinting and dyeing. A full line of Sash and Girdle Ribbons.

Don't forget about those Fay-Ideal Stockings, which are especially good for the school children's use. We have a complete line, all sizes.

HERREN MILLINERY PARLORS
MRS. L. G. HERREN, Prop.

A 2000 Foot Well

Would be undertaken just as readily as a 100 foot well by W. D. Newlon, the man who has never drilled a dry hole, and who has been the most successful well driller in Morrow County.

If you want a well, just write to

W. D. NEWLON
Address, Heppner, Oregon

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

O. M. Yeager, Architect and Builder. Get a premium. Remember the Baby Show. We specialize on news. Barrels for sale. Herb Fant. See the Skookums at Haylor's. They are daisies. O. M. Yeager furnishes blue prints free when he does your building. Chas. Cox recently purchased Elmer Lewis' farming implements and lease. Jewel Hale returned from Marshfield last Monday. Mrs. John Kilkenny was a Heppner caller last Tuesday. Ed. Davis was in the city on matters of business, Tuesday. Dell Ward was in from the ranch, Tuesday. Eph. Eskelson and wife, from Lexington, were in the city, Tuesday. Sam Woods was in town last Tuesday. He came up from Portland. Dr. Gaunt, from Hardman, was in the city last Wednesday. Claud Keithley hauled in some of his dollar wheat last Monday. Charley Brown was in from Blackhorse the first of the week. Hiram Clark was a Heppner visitor Tuesday. The Hynd Brothers were in from Sand Hollow, Tuesday. Mr. Charley Hembrage was seen on HORSES FOR SALE—5 or 6 head old up. Inquire at Herald Office. M. D. Clark and family returned from an extended trip to Portland and other points the first of the week. Stephen Irwin is at home from Rockaway Beach and has gone to laboring for Minor and Co. The Brown sisters, of Blackhorse, were trading with our merchant, Tuesday. Walter Robinson, a well known Eightmile rancher, visited in our city, Tuesday. Hardman was represented by Chester Saling, Ernest Wyland and Clark Stephens last Tuesday. FOR SALE—2 jersey cows and one De Laval separator for $150 or will sell separate. Eugene Barton, 5 miles north of Lexington. Charley Jones was in the city from the Dulton ranch the first of the week to get posted on the war. Mrs. L. E. Gohn and daughter, Gladys, returned from Parker's Mill the first of the week. The People's Cash Market has just received a shipment of fresh Eastern Oysters, the large kind that you all like. Frank Moyer, a prominent Blackhorse rancher was in the city on Monday. OREGON First, C. P. Casebeer agent, Oregon Life Insurance Company. Best for Oregonians. O. J. Haugwood, a popular young man of the Egg City, was in Heppner last Tuesday night.

En Moyer, a well known wheat rancher in Blackhorse, was in the city on business last Wednesday. Frank McCullough came to town last Tuesday with a car of beef cattle for Stanfield Bros. Jack Devore, a well known sheep man from Ehen Creek, was in the city on business the first of the week. Read the Fair ad. Let O. M. Yeager do your carpenter work. Mrs. S. T. Robinson and son, were Hardman visitors the middle of the week. E. B. Driskell and family left on Thursday morning for Lewiston, Idaho where they will make their home. Mrs. Glenn Wells left yesterday for La Grande, where she will visit with relatives. J. B. Sparks left yesterday morning for Portland where he will invest in a new Studebaker car. Bob Clark returned from Lexington last Tuesday where he has been employed in the barber shop. Let O. M. Yeager draw your house, barn and cellar plans. D. Cox, one of our prominent Hinton Creek readers, was in the county seat, Tuesday. Ed. Adkins has joined the crowd which travels in style. He bought Sparks' Studebaker Four last Wednesday. Clyde Wells and Charley Jayne were seen with the other children riding on the merry-go-round. W. T. Brookhauser, a well known resident of Hardman, was in the city the first of the week. O. M. Yeager builds good houses, barns and cement cellars. Jack Woodard, a well known Butter Creek rancher, was in Heppner last Tuesday. Remember to send the semi-weekly to those boys and girls going away to school. Mr. Albert Colvin, better known as "Swede" was up from the Egg City last Tuesday. Mr. Glass and daughter, who live on the old Henry Gay place, were in the city last Tuesday for supplies. Fred Lucas came in from the Flats last Tuesday to keep in touch with the news. Ol. Justus, a prominent Hinton Creek rancher, visited the city, Tuesday. Roy Missidine, an up-to-date Blackhorse rancher, was in for a few supplies on Tuesday. For rag rugs and rag carpet weaving and also rugs from old intricate carpets, see the Heppner weaver just south of the Catholic Church. Mr. E. O. Freytag, the expert exhibit man, arrived in Heppner, Wednesday night and has gone to work arranging the exhibits for the Fair. Delbert Starrett, from Portland, returned to his home yesterday after a visit at the Tyndall Robinson ranch in the mountains. Dell Ward, the "morning glory" farmer, so it has been said, was in from the McKimney place, yesterday. Jim Kirk paid the city a call last Tuesday. He also paid the semi-weekly a little cash for which we are very grateful. Lewis Brown was in the city last Tuesday from Ed. Adkins. Lewis will travel in style from now on, as Ed. has a new car. Albert Hahn, a well known rancher in Clark's Canyon, was in the city the first of the week. J. T. Knappenberg, a prominent citizen of the Egg City, was in Heppner last Tuesday night, returning the following morning.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This is to certify that I took up the following horses on September 2, 1914, and am holding same at Irrigon, Oregon, for the payment of costs and damages.

- One sorrel mare, crab brand on right shoulder and "M" on right tittle.
- One brown horse, three white feet, white face and undistinguishable brand on right shoulder.
- One horse, mouse color, crab brand on right shoulder.
- One horse, spotted, with crab brand on right shoulder.

All of the above mentioned stock will be sold at public auction at Irrigon, Oregon, on the 21st day of September, 1914, at 5 o'clock p. m., to satisfy costs of taking up, care and keeping the same and further damages.

W. A. WALPOLE
Irrigon, Oregon.

SUMMONS.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR MORROW COUNTY.

S. B. Holder, Plaintiff.)
vs.
Frances M. Holder, Defendant.)

To Frances M. Holder, the above named defendant:

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON: You are hereby commanded to appear in the above entitled cause on or before Friday, the 21st day of August, A. D. 1914, to make answer to the Complaint of plaintiff filed herein against you, and in case you fail so to appear the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in the Complaint to-wit: For a decree of said Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant and for the custody of the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, Oma Ethel Holder, and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem equitable and just.

The time prescribed for the publication of this Summons is six weeks, and the date of the appearance of the defendant is August 21, 1914.

This summons is published by order of the Honorable C. C. Patterson, Judge of the County Court of Morrow County, Oregon, which order was made on the 9th day of July, A. D. 1914.

The date of the first publication of this Summons is the 9th day of July, 1914.

Sam E. Van Vactor
Attorney for Plaintiff.

at Minor & Co's FOR SEPTEMBER ONLY

1000 votes will be given for every dollar paid on book accounts between the 1st and 19th of September.

Be quick to accept the advantages of this offering and remember THERE ARE ONLY FOUR WEEKS remaining of the contest. Every minute spent now in acquiring votes means a big advancement of your excellent possibilities. The contest lasting through the "Bigger and Better" Morrow County Fair gives you opportunities otherwise lost. You will be associated with people from all parts of the county, thus enabling you to boost your standing.

List of Prizes to be given away September 19.

- 1st prize, $200 De Lux Grafnola
- 2nd prize, Colonial Queen Sewing Machine.
- 3rd prize, Gold Watch, 20 yr. case.
- 4th prize, Handsome Gold Watch.
- 5th prize, Beautiful Toilet Set.

FOR SALE

I have for sale several 10 and 20-acre tracts of Willow Creek bottom land, all under ditch, just outside the limits of the city of Ione, and 1/4 of a mile of the schoolhouse. Some of these tracts are already seeded to alfalfa. Prices are reasonable and terms can be arranged to suit. These tracts can be made into ideal orchard and truck garden farms.

Ike Howard
IONE, OREGON.

S-H-O-E-S

of every description

I specialize on
"AMERICAN GENTLEMEN"
dress shoes
and
"JOMO" brand and A. A. CUTTER work shoes

E. N. GONTY
The up-to-date repair man.

MEALS AT ALL HOURS

15c 20c, 25c, 30c, 35c, 50c

PALACE HOTEL

FREE GRANITEWARE FREE

Your Choice of Stewpan, Milk Pan, Pie Tin, Spoon; Wash Pan, Water Cups, or Soap Dish with each purchase amounting to $2.50, or for 10c each.

Large Dishpan free with $5 purchases, or 25c cash.

Fresh Fruits, Vegetables and Bread on hand every day.

R. V. WHITEIS
IONE, OREGON

GRAND Opening Sale

At the FAIR STORE
Saturday, September 12, '14

SATURDAY, SEPT. 12 THE FAIR STORE will open its doors for business. The stock will consist of a general line of

LADIES AND GENTS GOODS
also
DOMESTICS, SHOES and NOTIONS

We will buy and will sell for cash which will enable us to underbuy and to undersell all competitors. We invite the good people of Heppner and its vicinity to examine our prices. Each article will be plainly marked. We expect to save you from 35 to 50 cents on the dollar. The Fair Store is here to stay and expects to grow together with the prosperous town of Heppner. Circulars will also be distributed with our prices soon.

THE FAIR STORE
MAURICE KOPPLE, Prop.