HEPPNER PEOPLE MARRY

Mr. Herb Driscoll left the city last Wednesday for The Dalles. The reporter of the Semi-weekly first suspected something was wrong with the young man when he purchased two tickets. A short time afterwards he saw him pacing the platform and anxiously looking at his watch. It was four minutes until the hour for the train to depart. Suddenly up the road came D. E. Gilman in his Ford and a minute later Miss Laura Crewdson alighted.

JACK BURKE DIES

Jack Burke died in Heppner last Wednesday night about eleven o'clock. He had been troubled with dysentery for the past month which gradually grew worse. He had been in the employ of Joe Hayes and was a willing and faithful worker. It is not known as yet whether he had any relatives near Heppner. He had worked around here for several years for different parties.

Let O. M. Yeager draw your house, barn and cellar plans.

J. B. Sparks and the Studebaker representative Mr. Thornton, of Portland, have gone to Condon for the fair. They will demonstrate the Studebaker "Four" and the "Six."

Dr. McMurdo tells us that in a letter received in Heppner from England the news comes that three of the Englishmen who won the polo championship from the United States a few months ago have been killed in the war. The Captain of the team alone remains. This is one of the strange things which happen in times of war. The English team expected to repeat the trick next year with the same men.

NOTES FROM THE HERALD'S "LIVE WIRE" CORRESPONDENT AT IONE

Dr. Almoth, a well known English physician, has joined the number who are demanding that the English Army make vaccination for typhoid compulsory. In the Boer war the English lost more from typhoid than they did by bullets, likewise did the American army in the Spanish-American war.

IONE ITEMS

- Phil Dougherty was in Ione, Monday.
- Mathew Ball was seen on the streets of Ione Monday.
- Mrs. John Ritchie has been ill for the last few days.
- Mr. Davis, the dentist, came over from Echo last Tuesday.
- Carl Troedson, a well known rancher, was in Ione last Tuesday.
- Sven Troedson was trading in the Egg City last Wednesday.
- John Brenner and family were in town last Wednesday.
- Ernest Lundell was an Egg City visitor last Wednesday.
- Drs. Lowe and Turner were in town doing optical work, Wednesday.
- Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Davidson left by team to attend the Gordon fair and races.
- Mr. Otto Miller and Emile Schatz, of Oregon City, left for home, Monday.
- Bert Mason returned from Portland last Friday where he went for business reasons.
- Walter Cochran spent the week-end at Ione. He is working at the Herald office in Heppner.
- Mr. H. Stender has purchased a new auto in the shape of a Carter Car from the local agent.
- Mr. Bert Mason has just received a car of showcases which he will use in the store.
- Walter Dohyans, a sagebrush avenger from the Eightmile district, spent the week-end in the Egg City.
- Mr. F. E. Dodels, of Albany, who has been visiting Chas. Reed, left for his home last Tuesday.
- E. V. Whiteis returned from Portland last Saturday, where he had been on business for a few days.
- Mr. Lute Jordan came up from Portland last Sunday to visit his mother and his many friends here.
- The Herald knows of a family which has four or five rooms which they want to rent. Partially furnished. If you are looking for rooms, see us about them.

REVIVAL WELL ATTENDED

Interest in the Revival at the Christian Church is growing nightly. There will be service every night this week and every night next week, except Monday. Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock Rev. Handsaker will give a special lecture on good citizenship entitled, "Uncle Sam's Golden Call." The citizens of Heppner and vicinity are cordially invited to attend these meetings.

Elmer Lewis and son left Heppner for Cozad, Nebraska, last Wednesday. Mrs. Lewis is in Pennsylvania at the present time but will join the family soon in Nebraska. They have relatives at Cozad and Mr. Lewis will engage in farming. Mr. Lewis said that he might return to Morrow County some time in the future and had the semi-weekly sent to his new home so that he could keep in touch with his friends here.

IRRIGATOR ITEMS

W. G. Corey started working on the ditch, Monday. He is using his team on a scraper.

L. M. Davis is preparing to move in the Henkle house and rent the house he is living in.

Clamer Roberts with his wife and her parents drove down from near Hermiston last Tuesday. Mr. Roberts bought a good winter supply of apples from L. A. Doble.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Henkle, of Philomat, Oregon, returned to their home Monday, accompanied by their son Rodell Henkle. They are well known in Irrigon.

Mrs. Baucom and Byrdee George came from Pendleton, Tuesday, where Mrs. Baucom has been visiting her mother, Mrs. George. Byrdee George will attend the Irrigon High School the rest of the term.

Don't forget the Mutual Girl series at the Star. These pictures appear once each week on Sunday night. This is the finest reel of pictures that the Mutual Corporation puts out and it is a general course in culture to see them. At the usual prices.

- Having purchased a 1915 Model Maxwell "25," I am offering my 1914 model at a great bargain.
- Will take a team of work horses in part payment.
- Dr. Winnard, Heppner, Ore.

MORROW COUNTY AWARDED FIRST HONORS AT THE STATE FAIR, WEDNESDAY

Scores 86 Points in Eastern Oregon Division, Wallowa 80, Baker 76, and Malheur Fourth With 70.

The following telegram was received by Frank Gilliam from Mr. M. E. Smead, Secretary of the Morrow County Fair Board who accompanied the exhibit from Morrow County to the State Fair at Salem.

Wednesday the Thirtieth. Frank Gilliam, Heppner, Oregon. Kindly inform the local papers business men and others interested that Morrow County is awarded first honors in the Eastern Oregon division at the State Fair, score 86 points. Wallowa second with 80 points, Baker third with 76 and Malheur fourth with 70. Tillamook wins in the first division, score 91.

M. E. Smead. We have been telling our readers that men who claim to know something about fair exhibits said that Morrow County produces as good products as you will find anywhere. Winning first honors at the State Fair seems to demonstrate this. To get first honors at an exhibition of this nature is no small achievement.

NORTH HEPPNER GETS BETTER WATER SERVICE

The Heppner Light and Water Co. are making some improvements in their water system in North Heppner. The object is to furnish better fire protection to that end of town, especially the railroad and warehouses and also it will make a complete circulating system. Much of the wealth of the community at the present time is found along the tracks in the shape of wheat and wool and this has never been protected as it should have been.

STRANGERS EXCITE CURIOSITY

Two strangers passed through town last Monday night, one a lady and the other a gentleman. They were leading a donkey on which was riding a log. There are many strange stories as to their business and character. One man swears that they told him they were walking around the world and were to get ten thousand dollars or their trouble. Another said that they were walking across the United States with San Francisco as their destination, where they were to make a public speech and the Mayor would include the exercises by giving them a large purse—presumably with something in it. Others had it that they were going to give a lecture in the Star. Some thought that they were hostile Germans and were going to storm Parker's Mill. Sparring was out of town and we didn't get the truth of the matter.

O. M. Yeager, Architect and Builder.

W. E. Wigglesworth, a well known Butter Creek sheepman, was in the city last Wednesday on business.

Jack Hynd was up from Cecil for a short visit this week. With him was Mr. Earl Turney who had come here from Canada on a visit.

John Hughes left for Portland the last of the week to resume his studies. He is taking a medical course in the U. of O. John is one of our capable and industrious young men.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Harrison, of Monument, were in Heppner, Tuesday to meet Mrs. Harrison's brother-in-law from Nebraska, whom she has not seen for twenty-six years.

Miss Mabel Samuelli, who has been in the employ of Mrs. Luper, left on Wednesday morning for her home in Portland. She was called home by the serious illness of her sister.

Correspondence is the thing. The fact that every State University of any consequence has adopted this method of instruction is not without its good points. See us if you want to take a course by mail.

BOY FALLS FROM HORSE

In looking out our office windows last Tuesday afternoon we happened to see a horse running up the street evidently not under the control of the boy riding it. Just as it turned the corner by the Palace going north the horse fell and Paul Aiken, who was riding it was thrown off. People standing nearby picked him up and he was taken to the hospital in Patterson's car. He was found to be more scared than injured and is around as usual now. It was a lucky fall for Master Aiken.

and since Morrow County won with a margin of nine points it goes to show that we have something to be proud about.

The exhibit was arranged by Mr. Smead with the assistance of Mr. Freytag. When it was announced that Mr. Freytag would lend his help in the placing of the exhibit, everyone knew that whoever beat Morrow County would have to have a far superior exhibit, as Mr. Freytag knows the exhibit business from start to finish.

The business men of the town pay for the expense incurred in the undertaking and certainly come in for a large share for the honors. This makes a fitting culmination for the Second Annual Morrow County Fair and should be an incentive for the people to make the Third fair better than ever. The effect which this will have in bringing the advantages, possibilities and opportunities of Morrow County to the attention of the people of the Northwest and other sections of the country will be great and far-reaching.

SCHOOL NOTES

By Supt. S. E. Notson. On Tuesday I visited the school in district No. 34, which is under the direction of Miss Grace May. There are 16 pupils enrolled. The school building has been tastefully painted inside and outside during the vacation period. The outbuildings have also been painted. A new woodshed has been erected. A foot-bridge has been built across the little canon from the school grounds to the barn. The barn is conveniently arranged to accommodate the horses of those who ride or drive to school. Water has been piped from a spring to the corner of the porch, where a convenient hydrant has been placed. The pupils have individual cups. A new black-board map of the United States, a map of Oregon, and a new dictionary have been added to the equipment. The light is admitted from the left side, the windows occupying almost the entire side of the school room. This is the best arrangement. The window shades are the adjustable canvas shades. They cost a little more to begin with, but are the cheapest in the end. They are of tan color, which permits a soft light to enter when the shades are drawn to exclude the sunshine. The stove is surrounded by a jacket, and the ventilation is properly provided for.

The school already has six of the twenty stars required for registration as a standard school, and it lacks but very little of having four more. Plans have been already made to secure the full number. If the percentage of attendance and minimum of tardiness are achieved, this will be a standard school. The three features of play apparatus will soon be installed. A new flag pole has been erected so the flag can be displayed as required by the standardization card and the law.

The new course in agriculture will be distributed to the teachers within a few days. This course has been carefully worked out, but teachers are expected to adapt it to the local condition. Every teacher should study it carefully and follow it faithfully. The eighth grade examination in agriculture will be based upon this course.

District No. 54 has voted bonds for the erection of a school building. The plans selected call for a well arranged and up-to-date building. This is a new district on the eastern side of the county in the "banana belt."

LYCEUM COURSE SHOWS SIGNS OF LIFE

The Lyceum Course took on lifelike appearances a few days ago when the representative of the Ellison-White lyceum bureau of Boise dropped into town and began soliciting season tickets. The price is placed within reach of everyone, it especially being desired to have the school children present. Children will be provided tickets for one dollar and the grown-ups for two dollars.

There will be five numbers, one a home talent and the others will be given by the Ionian Serenaders, composed of four young ladies who come highly recommended; a lecture by L. Dagg, of the School of Oratory in Washington University; the third by Hahn's jubilee singers, fresh from the Southland and the last number is as yet not decided. The Portland Ad. Club Quartet was on the schedule but there is some talk of changing it.

The sale of tickets is meeting with a good reception and a Lyceum Course for Heppner and vicinity is practically assured.

NEW BLACKSMITH SHOP TO BE BUILT SOON

Henry Ashbaugh is on the move. This time he will build a large two-story blacksmith shop, modern in every particular on the vacant lot on the corner just north of his present location. "My present location is too small," Henry said. The new building will be a frame structure with the first floor devoted to the blacksmith business. The upper story will be devoted to his woodwork business and also a first-class paint shop. Here you can get your buggies and autos painted in factory-style. The plans call for a building 32x80 and the work will commence in about three weeks. This is just one of the many new buildings which we have heard are going to be built in the next few months.

A few more of those 8 day Marathons at Hayler's. 2t.

Al. Justus made a business trip to the city last Wednesday.

W. A. Johnson, a well known rancher on the Heppner Platz, was in for supplies last Wednesday.

J. Rossen, a well known Hardman man, was in the city the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Maddock left on Wednesday morning for Condon where they will attend the Fair.

Mrs. Mary C. Conner, of Olex, spent several days in Heppner, the past week attending to business matters.

John Rasmus, who has been seriously ill with liver trouble, is around again but is not entirely over his ailment yet.

Ernest Sitzer is now on the force of the Jack Rabbit Garage. He is an experienced mechanic and knows all about auto ailments.

FOR SALE—Some fine S. C. M. Leghorn roosters at $1 each as long as they last. J. F. Hardesty, Morgan, Oregon.

Mr. W. O. Bayless left the first of the week for The Dalles where he will spend a day at the fair and then go on to the State Fair at Salem.

Don't keep useless articles about the place, put an ad in the Herald and dispose of them to people who can use them.

Claud Cox left last Wednesday for the State Fair. Claud has been putting in some long nights lately in getting his fancy Wyandotte chickens ready for the Fair. He took sweepstakes here and those who know say that he should do well at the State Fair.

REMEMBER THESE MOTTOES

We print herewith a few mottoes taken from the Medical News. These have been used on Disease Prevention Days in various cities in the land.

"The only good fly is the dead fly; Well-kept alleys pay better dividends than well-kept cemeteries; Public health is public wealth; Bat the rat and swat the fly; Don't take patent medicines; Dust, dirt, dampness and darkness will always kill."
