THANKS FOR A FAVOR.

The Lady and the Baker and a Little Bit of a Surprise.
It was after dark, and the French baker was about to close his shop when the telephone bell rang.
"Mr. Owens?"
"Yes, ma'am."
"This is Mrs. Jimley of Hickorynut street."
"Yes, Mrs. Jimley."
"I am giving a supper tonight, and I discover that I need half a dozen more rolls. Could I trouble you to send them over?"
"I'm sorry, ma'am, but I haven't a roll left in the store nor even a loaf of bread. We are sold clear out tonight."
"This is very provoking," said Mrs. Jimley. "Are you sure you haven't anything that would do?"
"There isn't a thing in the place that I would care to sell you, ma'am. Hold on, though. There's a half dozen fresh rolls on my own supper table right now. I could let you have those if you think they would do. My kids can eat crackers instead. They'd rather, anyway."
"Those will do very nicely, Mr. Owens. Will you send them over soon, please?"
"Right away, ma'am. The boy has gone for the night, but I'll take them to you myself."
In a minute or two he stood on her front steps ringing the bell and feeling well pleased with himself that he could do some one a kindness.
Mrs. Jimley opened the door and took the packages from his hands. Then she said in icy tones:
"The next time you bring any goods here, Mr. Owens, I wish you would remember to ring the basement bell. I can't have tradesmen coming to the front door."—Newark News.

He Knew.

"If I were you," his wife said, "I'd go to that man and tell him exactly what I thought of him. He lied to you, and you ought to tell him that you know it. If I were you I'd let him know just how I despised him. I'd have the satisfaction of making him feel ashamed of himself."
"No, my dear," he replied, "you wouldn't do anything of the kind. If you were me you'd do just as I'm doing. This fellow weighs fifty pounds more than I do, and they tell me he's one of the best boxers in this town."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Her Library.

It is clear that the young women who figure in this little conversation from the New York Telegraph were no blue stockings:
Amy—I don't know what to give Gladys for a birthday. She has a gold mesh bag, she has a wrist watch, she has a silver toilet set—oh, she has everything!
Pearl—Well, give her a book.
Amy—No; she has a book too.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

I. C. Cox and wife are registered at The Palace from Butter Creek.

The ladies of the Federated Church will give a Harvest Home Supper, October 30th.

IONE ITEMS

Mr. Hughes of Heppner was in Ione on Wednesday.

Paul Troedson was in town Monday morning.

Carl Troedson and Ed left Ione last Saturday for the mountains where they will hunt and fish a few weeks.

S. E. Thompson left Wednesday morning for Portland on business. From there he will go to Vancouver. He expects to be gone a couple of weeks.

Mr. Jack Abbott came up from Portland Sunday. Mr. Abbott has been in Canada the past summer for his health. He tells us that his son, Cecil, who was with us last year is now married and living in Portland.

A practice foot-ball game was played Sunday between the High School aggregation and some of the old regulars. The High School is expecting to play Heppner High School some time in the near future. The services of "Brick" Coshaw as coach has been secured and he will take up his duties at once. "Brick" is an Ex-Brownsville quarter and should straighten the kinks out of the boys in great style.

IRRIGON ITEMS

H. T. Walpole went to Pendleton, Tuesday.

Earl Baucom came back to Irrigon, Monday morning, after a short visit in the East.

The Sunday School was started October 4, with a fair attendance. Mr. McCann took charge of it in a way that indicates success.

Earl Chaney of Kelso, Wash., arrived in Irrigon, Sunday afternoon. Mr. Chaney is looking for a good farm and is very satisfied with the land and climate here. He will work on the ditch until the work shuts down in November.

And Defeat the Proposed "UNIVERSAL
EIGHT HOUR LAW

Such a law would paralyze the farming industry and must not be allowed to pass

Such a law would put sheepmen clear out of business in Oregon.

It is to your own interests to see that such a law as this is substantially defeated.

VOTE TO KILL THE UNIVERSAL EIGHT HOUR LAW AND THEREBY SAVE YOURSELVES FROM BANKRUPTCY
