

This is a Personal Invitation

To the People of Morrow County

When in Portland Stop at The Imperial With Phil Melschan, Located on Washington Street at Broadway, formerly 7th St. Right in the Heart of the City.

The Imperial Hotel

Reasonable Rates

WELL DRILLING

Done on short notice. I have never failed to get a good well. Others have give me the opportunity and I will give you a satisfactory well. See me at Heppner or at the Drill.

W. D. Newlon

THE FLORSHEIM SHOE

IS GOOD ENOUGH FOR YOU---AND

The Holeproof Sox Just Hits the Spot

and the weather too, wherever he goes, will see people wearing the same kind of Hosiery.

THE PLACE TO BUY IS AT

Sam Hughes Co.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE

Robert N. Stanfield

REPUBLICAN NOMINEE FOR

Morrow and Umatilla Counties

(Paid Adv.)

C.A. BARRETT

Athens, Umatilla County, Oregon

No. 55 on the official ballot

Regular Republican nominee for Senator, 19th Senatorial District comprising the counties of UMATILLA, UNION and MORROW.

A Man of Experience in business and farming. Favors amendment to our tax laws, making tax payments May 1st and November 1st without interest or penalty. Favors less appropriations and retrenchment in public expenditures; the abolishment of all useless boards, and the consolidation of others where possible.

A man that knows the demands of Eastern Oregon and always ready to defend them.

Consult Your Best Interests and Mark Your Ballot

NO. 55 X

Paid Adv. authorized by J. D. Plummer, Athens, Oregon

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

O. M. Yeager, Architect and Builder.

Ed. Kellogg, one of Morrow County's old timers, is in the city.

Mrs. Lillie Cohn and daughter, Mrs. Gladys Slaughter, were passengers for Portland Sunday.

Car of Yakima potatoes just received—Phelps Grocery Co.

Harry E. Wright, departed from Heppner Friday on his way to Oakland, California, where he will take up the study of electrical engineering, with the view of fitting himself for that trade.

Frank Hall made a short business trip down to Jordan Siding Saturday.

500 posts for sale—Phelps Grocery Company.

R. F. Hynd made a business trip to Jordan Siding Sunday. Mr. Hynd will remain in Heppner all of this week before returning to Portland.

Mrs. John Nash and Mrs. Forkner returned to Cecil Friday morning after a short visit in Heppner.

Show Case, 8-foot, for sale cheap—Phelps Grocery Co.

Among our Friday visitors were Herb and John Olden of Rhea Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Yeager were passengers for Portland Sunday, where they expect to spend several weeks looking after property interests.

O. M. Yeager builds good houses, barns and cement cellars.

Mr. Johnson, who farms the Hughes ranch south of town, went down to Portland Sunday on a business trip.

Mr. I. W. Sperry, who had been visiting his brother, Geo. Sperry, Sr., in Heppner several days, returned to his home at Goldendale, Wash., Sunday.

Let O. M. Yeager draw your house, barn and cellar plans.

Chester Titus, the Ione jeweler, made a business trip to Heppner Saturday evening.

Dr. Dye, of Ione, visited his brother, Dr. F. B. Dye in Heppner, last Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Whittington were Saturday visitors in Heppner.

For rag rugs and rag carpet weaving and also rugs from old ingrain carpets, see the Heppner weaver just south of the Catholic Church.

O. J. Cox and Henry Gay, Rhea Creek dairymen, transacted business in Heppner Saturday. Mr. Gay has decided to give his ranch a name and have some up-to-date stationery printed at The Herald office.

Ora Adkins, a Rhea Creek farmer, made a business trip to the county seat Saturday.

O. M. Yeager, Contractor, will do your building, repairing, etc., and take your wool, hay or anything of value in exchange for the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Deos and two little children, were up from the Junction over Saturday to visit Mrs. Deos' parents, the Wilson's.

Frank McCullough made his usual Saturday trip to town last week.

O. M. Yeager furnishes blue prints free when he does your building.

Joe Hughes went down to Portland Friday to attend to some business matters.

Harry Quackenbush, who works on a Rhea Creek ranch, received a visit from an old friend, F. J. Browning, of Portland last week. These two young men had not seen each other since they were boys, some 22 years ago.

OREGON FIRST. C. G. Casebeer, agent, Oregon Life Insurance Company. Best for Oregonians.

Miss Edith Barton, a student at the Heppner High School, who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Harlan, spent Sunday at the Ed. Pointer home near Lexington.

Frank Glascock was a Heppner visitor Friday.

THREE LOVES.

There were three maidens who loved a king. They sat together beside the sea.

One cried, "I love him, and I would die if but for one day he might love me!"

The second whispered, "And I would die to gladden his life or make him great."

The third one spoke not, but gazed afar With dreamy eyes that were sad as fate.

The king he loved the first for a day.

The second his life with fond love blest;

And yet the woman who never spoke

Was the one of the three who loved him best.

—Lucy H. Hooper.

W. W. Smead arrived home Thursday evening from his trip to the State Fair and Portland.

Gus Molden of Hood River, who was formerly in the shoe business in Heppner, came in Thursday evening.

GEORGE SELFISH IS CHARGE

Old-Time Democrats Are Lukewarm Toward Chamberlain This Year.

It is an open secret in Democratic circles that in this campaign the party is lukewarm toward George E. Chamberlain's candidacy, whereas for the first time in years the Republican party is united on a candidate for United States Senator. Old-time Democrats, who have for years worked enthusiastically for Chamberlain each time he has been a candidate now regard him with apathy.

The Democrats who have been devoting time and money for years to the cause are letting it be known that they regard Chamberlain as selfish. They recall how he failed to reciprocate. When he was a candidate, all other nominees on the Democratic ticket had to be ignored for fear Chamberlain's chances might be injured. So far as the public was aware Chamberlain was the only man running on the Democratic ticket.

Finally when Chamberlain was in position to reward the old friends by giving them Federal appointments, which he was in position to do as the senior Senator, he turned a deaf ear to their applications and permitted his junior colleague, Senator Harry Lane, to fill the Federal pie counter with Lane's personal friends, who were not the Democrats who had devoted years to electing Chamberlain to office. In this manner Chamberlain lost supporters in every county in the state, and these supporters were mainly the men who have been responsible for his past victories.

Thus Chamberlain is entering the hardest campaign of his career with dissatisfaction in the Democratic ranks, brought on, declare the old-timers, by his own selfishness, and confronted by a united Republican party behind Booth, Republican candidate for United States Senator. And as if these things were not sufficiently serious, there is a feeling of dissatisfaction with business conditions, the depression of the times, little work and low wages, and a feeling that the way to bring prosperity back is to vote the Republican ticket straight, starting with Booth and ending with the last name.

Mulkey and Bourne For Booth.

Colonel Roosevelt's manager in Oregon in the last Presidential campaign, Frederick W. Mulkey, has announced his support of R. A. Booth, Republican candidate for United States Senator. Mulkey decided the Progressive party was dead in Oregon, and, anyway, the candidate on the Progressive ticket for Senator is an ex-Democrat, an ex-Republican and bitterly opposed Roosevelt in the Presidential campaign when the Colonel was the head of the Progressive party. Before turning Progressive, Mulkey was one of the leading Republicans of Oregon. Equally interesting is the fact that Jonathan Bourne, another ardent admirer of Roosevelt, and who has been at odds with Oregon Republican leaders for years, is backing the entire ticket, has contributed $500 to the Republican state campaign fund and is personally supporting Booth. Chamberlain's friends had confidently expected Bourne to help their candidate, but Bourne has written a letter laying the blame for dull times at the Turkeys for Thanksgiving?

If you have any for sale bring them to Roy Whiteis. I pay highest Cash price or allow you a larger amount in trade. I also want all other kinds of poultry.

JUST IN—1914 CROP ENGLISH WALNUTS.

See me before sending away your orders for groceries. I fill all orders with quality for quality and price for price in competition with any Mail Order House.

R. V. WHITEIS
IONE, OREGON

FOR SALE

The following articles having been replaced by new we are now offering them for sale. They can be had singly or in sets.

- All dining room table
 - All dining room chairs
 - Large assortment of plain white dining room dishes
 - One large coffee mill
 - One Oliver Typewriter
 - One double adding Cash Register
- Palace Hotel Co.

SEE HARLAN

Before you place the order for that piece of CLASSY JOB PRINTING

GEORGE H. BISHOP

FREEWATER-MILTON, OREGON.

Democratic Candidate for

Joint Representative

Twenty-second District, Umatilla and Morrow Counties.

Lower taxes, fewer laws, economy in transacting public business especially in weeding out useless commissions which are swallowing the taxpayers' money.

Paid Advertisement.