HEPPNER HIGH WINS

FROM EGG CITY

LADS, 12-3

The Football game between Ione and Heppner High School teams, which took place at the Egg City last Saturday, was a hard fought contest, the local team taking the long end of the 12 to 3 score. The first and second quarters saw honors in favor of the quarters saw honors in favor of the visitors. A fumble recovered by a Heppner player near the Ione goal line in the first quarter was rushed across the line and gave the visitors six points. They failed to kick goal. Heppner made her other six points on straight downs. The boys won the ball on Iene's 25-yard line and carried it across on successive downs. In the

the field on successive downs, playing straight line bucks, with the backfield carrying the ball for good gains. Halfback Wright carried the ball around the right end for a touchdown but it was decided that he had run out of bounds and the property of the carried that he had run out of bounds and the carried that he had run out of bounds and the carried that he had run out of bounds and the carried that he had run out of bounds and the carried that he had run out of bounds and the carried that he had run out of bounds and the carried that he had run out of bounds and the carried that he had run out of bounds and the carried that he had run out of bounds and the carried that he had run out of bounds and the carried that he had run out of bounds and the carried that he had run out of bounds are the carried that he had run out of bounds are the carried that he had run out of the ca of bounds and the score did not count. The time-keeper's whistle ended the defensive work. His work is no re-flection on the balance of the Ione

These two teams will meet again on

Position HEPPNER

Slocum

Hughes

Morgan

Parker

Hayes

ih Adkins fb Wright

Wattenberger

the Heppner grounds on the afternoon of Election Day, next Tuesday. The line-up of Saturday's game was

IONE

Howell

R. Blake

E. Blake

ochran

R. Sperry

Blake

V. Reitman

Reitman

HEPPNER, OREGON, OCT. 27, 1914

ALMOST LOST

Eleven-year-old Howard McDuffee Eleven-year-old Howard McDuffec caused more excitement and worry last Friday night than has been experienced in Heppner for some time. The young lad c:ssappeared from sight about supper time that day and it took a searching party until 3:30 the next morning to discover his whereabouts. Along about five o'clock on Friday afternoon the young led do on Friday afternoon the young lad de-cided to reconnoiter the pile of trash which was to be used for the bonfire for the big High School Rally that night. That was the last seen of the lad for some hours. His non-appearand for some hours. His non-appear ance at supper time became a source of worry on the part of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McDuffee, who spread the news to their neighbors. In a short time a searching result of his parents, and to have been received to have bee spread the news to their neighbors. In a short time a searching party was formed, headed by Sheriff Evans, Marshall McCraw and Mr. McDuffee. About 3:00 a. m. they reached the A. E. Binns residence where they routed young Kenneth out of bed and asked the youth if he had seen the lost boy. Kenneth had seen the boy in company with his playmate, son of Tom Boyd, and thought that possibly he had gone to stay all night at the Boyd home. The party gumshoed towards the Boyd residence where they found the youth snugly resting with his playmate. This solved the mystery. it across on successive downs. In the third quarter the lon, piayers, in open field work, rushed the visitors off their feet and from the 25-yard line "Fat" Blake dropped a pretty place kick between the Heppner goal posts. The last quarter was all in favor of the Heppner team. They went down game at this point.

NEITHER ABSENT NOR TARDY

For all-around playing the laruel wreath must be given to "Fat" Blake, lone fullback and captain of his team. The Herald has received the follow-It was plainly one man against the opposition. "Fat" was "there" from every standpoint. He not only carried the ball for his own team most of the time but also did most of the defension work.

The Herald has received the following list of pupils who were neither absent nor tardy during the first month of school, ending October 2. We expect to have these lists at hand more promptely in the future.

School, District No. 19—Ralph Bedsaul, Kenneth, Laura and Robert Burnside, Oscar and Gladys Rippee.

District No. 51—Harriet M. Stephens, teacher—Chester, Elmer, Earl and Dollie Musgrave, Virgil Stephens.

District No. 59—Florence Pifer, teacher—Elma, Ethel and Ralph Moore.

District No. 18—Letitia Shewey, flection on the balance of the Ione team, however, as they were outweighed on an average of about 15 pounds to the man, and in a game where scientific playing is forgotten and open field work is relegated to the junk heap, the heavier players have an immense advantage. Earl Blake, Ione's left end, also deserves a few words of praise for his sterling work.

For the Heppner contingent, the work of the entire backfield, was about on a par with each other and they displayed good team work in plunging on a par with each other and they displayed good team work in plunging the line. Harry Morgan did good work at tackle and the balance of the team showed up much better than was expected from their meager practice. "Mug" Hayes and "Fat" Blake did the punting for their respective teams and here again, the Ione players outdid his opponent. Grabill.

District No. 18 - Letitia Shewey, teacher—Vera Towne, Paul Morey and Curtis French.

District No. 14—Zena Houser, teacher—William and Agatha Brashers, Keltsie and Irene Devin, and Anna Grabill.

Hodsdon School, Louise Ritchie, teacher—Nina, Samuel and Davie Campbell, Ethel and Boyd Copenhaver, Ada Ashinhurst, Fay, Bertha and Olin Ritchie.

Mrs. Nichols, who teaches in District No. 36, also sends the list of pupils in her school who were neither absent nor tardy for the month and.

absent nor tardy for the month end-ing Oct. 23. She says, "I have the best pupils in the State and gladly give them all the honor I can." They are—Edwin and Frances Fraser, Gladys and Frank Lundell, Cecil and Earl Hogue, Sidney, Grace, Vivian and Cecil Nichols.

PORCUPINE QUILL TRAVELS

Frank Cox, who lives up Hinton Creek, was in The Herald office yes-terday to show us a porcupine quill that had given him some little trouble. Sunday morning, while Mr. Cox was out setting some traps for coyotes, he threw a sack over his shoulder and the Referee, "Brick" Coshow; Umpire, Walter Cochran; Head Linesman, Ray threw a sack over his shoulder and the sack evidently carried the quill. It entered his back between the sholder blades, at a point where Mr. Cox could not reach with his hands. Before he could get assistance it was inside his body. He came to Heppner immediately and had Dr. McMurdo examine his back but the quill could not be found. Yesterday morning he experienced a slight main in his throat Nice place at Olex, Gilliam County, 668 acres bottom land, nice orchard. 80 acres hill and bench land has been farmed, about 200 acres in all. Will perienced a slight pain in his throat and a short time later the quill came rest or sell cheap on time payments. out through one of his tonsils. Cox was worried considerably lest it might work straight forward from his back into a lung.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

The Annual County Sunday School Convention held its first session at Ione Friday afternoon. Rev. Phipps was the principal speaker. A session was also held in the evening. The second day's work was taken up in the Methodist Church at Lexington on Saturday. On Sunday afternoon and evening a raily was held at the Christian Shurch in Heppner. A large crowd was in attendance at each and all of the in attendance at each and all of the in attendance at each and all of the services throughout the convention and much interest was manifested by the delegates from start to finish. Rev. Phipps, who is general Secretary of the Oregon Sunday School Association was the principal speaker at all of the sessions. Officers were elected for the coming year. coming year.

W. L. Vincent, who sold his alfalfa ranch on Butter Creek to Dr. Culbertson, was in the Herald office yesterday to square himself with our financial department. Mr. Vincent has purchased a stock ranch near the head of Hinton Creek from W. E. Straight. His new ranch is a combination wheat and stock ranch and he is well satisfied. and stock ranch and he is well satis-fied with the place. The aifalfa ranch owned by Dr. Culbertson is being farmed by his nephew, Mr. Allison a brother of Dr. Allison.

A movement is on foot to cut Crook

CENTS BARRELL

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 23—On account of the enormous demand for lour by the warring European na-

IN HEPPNER

Sufficient orders for flour were said to have been received to keep the mills of the pacific northwest in operation day and night.

At least four cargoes of flour, two for British and two for German account have been confirmed. Milers are scouring the entire northwest for wheat. England and Germany also are buying oats, Japan began buying wheat and flour but not extensively.

Simuntaneously with the above announcement, local dealers and manufacturers raised the price of flour 20c per barrell. This includes all different kinds of flour but not the lower grade of mill products.

of mill products. HUGH PENNELL Anyone knowing the whereabouts of this young man will do him a favor by sending his present address to A. P. SPRAGUE, Carlisle, Wash.

Nearly ten thousand voters regis-tered in Umatilla County.

FLOUR ADVANCES 20 WOOLGROWERS MEET AT PENDLETON NOV. 6, 7

East Oregonian—Pendleton will be the scene of the annual convention of the Oregon Wool Growers' Association on November 6 and 7, President R. N. Stanfield having issued a call a few lays ago. Secretary John G. Hoke of Medical Springs has written to President Tallman of the Commercial association and to Mayor Dyer asking them to bear the convention in mind and to make arrangements for mind and to make arrangements for he entertainment of the guests if onvenient.

One of the principal matters ome of the principal matters to come before the convention will be he proposed wool warehouse in Portland, all wool to be sold under the scaled bid plan. The subject of a wool warehouse has been under consideration for some time and the forthcoming convention will no doubt settle Another movement to be acted on vill be a federal bounty on wild an-mals. As it is now the forest re-erves are the breeding place of prelatory animals and they are fast in reasing in numbers and are a men-ice to the flocks.

Have you read Roy Whiteis' ad in he Herald? Roy wants all the turk-ys and poultry of all kinds he can get before Thanksgiving.

VISIT HARDMAN

District Attorney Wells and L. K. Harlan of the Herald took a run out to Hardman last Friday to see how things were progressing in that vicinity. We found the town rather guiet that day but were told that the fall senson, as a whole, had been very good with the merchants. Dr. Guant has sold his drug store and expects to leave for Salem some time next month to make his home. The Guants will be sadly missed by their Hardman friends. Mr. Gaunt's successor has not yet arrived but is expected in the near future. Jay Rossen, the black smith, and Henry Chapel, were in the mountains on a hunting expedition. Mrs. E. E. Bleakman, the postmistress, and not been feeling very well for some time but is fairly well at present in the hunting short visit at the Williams and E. E. Bleakman, the population of hardman is the the population of hardman is the the population of hardman is the the present time and Mr. Bleakman nformed us that about 400 people are making their home there now, the school has a large attendance and very house in town is filled. Cropt were good in that vicinity this year and that section of the county is in a prosperous condition. This was the rativisid Mr. Wells has ever made to the landings. Although he were succession beyond the measure of words. Those who were present were: Mr. and Mrs. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Farker, Mr. and Mrs. Parker of Centralia, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. C. Wells of Heppner and Mrs. D. C. Wells of Heppner and very house in town is filled. Crop-vere good in that vicinity this year and that section of the county is in a prosperous condition. This was the trst visit Mr. Wells has ever made to lardman. Although he was born and reared in this county Mr. Wells and never been in the town before and expressed surprise at finding such arge and prosperous settlement.

HOLD ANNUAL RALLY

The Annual High School Rally took place last Friday evening and the tudents of the Heppner High School and their instructors gathered around he immense bonfire just beyond the lepot where they spent the evening istening to speeches. Each member of the football team was called upon and it is said that the efforts of some and it is said that the efforts of some of these young men were surprisingly good. The teachers responded in excellent fashion. Mrs. A. E. Binns was alled upon and talked on "The Freshmen." Quite a large number of ownspeople were lined up around the fireside and heard the speeches. Some practical jokers gave the students a little extra work. The boys had been spending their spare time for a week or more gathering rubbish for the bonfire and on Thursday night someody set fire to the pile. This necessitated their gathering more rubbish. The students are still on the warpath over this action and have promises wer this action and have promised hemselves to handle their enemies in to easy manner if they can find out who committed the deed.

WARM RECEPTION

The marriage of Mr. Poyal M. Sawelle, a popular young jewelryman of endleton, to a Portland lady last cek, was the occassion of consider which, was the occasion of considerable hilarity on the part of the form r's friends who saw to it abat the newly-married couple were given a roper reception upon their arrival a Pendleton. We reprint below the fact the company of the constant of the company of the constant of the cons east Oregonian's story of the recep-

"Under the leadership of Jack Robnson and Clarence Bishop, the new-yweds were escorted to their carriage which, in this instance, was a Round-up stage coach, drawn by one of Ber Burroughs mule teams. The bride was placed within with a number of other ladies but her hard-swallowing husband was made to mount to the sop and stand creet as statues do. lack Robinson served the double pursons of support and announcer.

With Hans Collins hardling the sidness and a purch of support water.

With Hans Collins hardling the ribbons and a bunch of yelling young nucles hanging on to the sides and sear of the coach, the possession started through Main Street. Across he side of the coach woos a streamer inconceing that "We are just mar-ried." Behind the coach came the the spirit of the affair at once and seemed to enjoy it hugely."

While at lone on Saturday the Herald man called on Mr. W. H. Croek, manager of the Turnea-Lom Lumber Co's, yards at that place, Mr. rock informed as that business was satra fine with him this month and for many farmers have started or are about to start making improve-ments to their residences and barns. Mr. Crook told us that his company had received a carboad of lumber or posts nearly every day during the present month. C. E. Carlson of Gooseberry is one of those who are There are many other places being improved but Mr. Cronk was too rushed to give us a list of them.

There are many other places being improved but Mr. Cronk was too rushed to give us a list of them.

Tours respectfully, GEO. J. CURRIN, Republican Nominee.

SIXTIETH BIRTHDAY IS

NUMBER 39

Arthur Parker of Lexington, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Wells of Heppner and Loyal, Lester and Oral Parker. The absent daughter is Mrs. Kellog who lives in Southern Oregon.

SIX HUNDRED ACRE FARM TO RENT

Six miles from Olex, Gilliam County. lood wheat land-good water-good ences-no buildings-will let first wo crops go for improvements on place.

L. O. RALSTON, Owner, 608 Market St., Portland.

Miss Josephine Haef, who has been lead waitress at the Palace Hotel Grill for the past year, departed Monday morning for her home at Jacksonville, Oregon. Miss Haef informed the Herald man that she wished it said that she had many misgivings at leaving Heppner, where she had been treated so royally by the patrons of the hotel and the manager, Mr. Wilkins, but that it was imperative that she return to keep house for her father. Miss Haef was universally well liked by the patrons who will miss her. Mrs. Bookman succeeds Miss Haef as head waitress at the Palace.

AUCTION SALE
On Octiber 30, 1914, at my place? miles southeast of Lexington, I will sell at public auction my entire herd of dairy cows, also one No. 11 Simplex Separator. Sale begins at 1 O'clock. R. W. Snider.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

To The Voters of Morrow County. I hereby respectfully solicit the suport of all voters at the general elec-ion, Nov. 3. If elected I promise to rive my personal attention to the uties of the effice and assure the peode of Morrow County that fair, im-artial and courteous treatment will be accorded to all patrons of the

HANSON HUGHES Democratic Candidate for County

To Morrow County Voters. I hereby solicit the support of all voters at the general election for the office of County Treasurer. If reslected I will continue to give the affairs of the office the same careful attention I have given them in the past, and conduct the office in a business-like manner.

Yours respectfully, FRANK GILLIAM Republican Nominee.

To the Voters of Morrow County. rest of the procession consisting of the general election, to be held on two small babies in baby carriages wheeled by T. F. O'Brien and Harry Commissioner. In the event I am siray. Down Main street and back elected I promise to faithfully personal the bridal parade made its way form the duties of said office with the and then mercifully the newlyweds arms care and attention. I would give gray. Down Main street and the significant of said once again the bridal parade made its way form the duties of said once and attention I would give and then mercifully the newlyweds to my private affairs. I will give as to their home. were taken to their home.

The ordical was a trying one for the young couple and the bride, who is a stranger here, had the sympathy of all. However, she seemed to need it less than her husband as she caught and sensible manner.

Yours respectfully, JEFF JONES, Democratic Nominee.

To the Voters of Morrow County. I hereby solicit the support of the voters of Morrow County for the office of County Commissioner at the general election, November 3. If elecand I promise to give this important office the attention it merits and devote my energies to an economical administration of County affairs from the standpoint of the taxpayer. I shall consistently endeaver to bring about some arrangement wherebuilding additions to their residences, conods shall be of lasting and perand the huildings on the farm rented manent value, and eliminate so far as by Ben Morgan are being rebuilt possible needless extravagance in all past, present and future, will not prove a drop in the bucket compared with the ravages which are being made throughout the land by booze We boast we are the greatest nation upon earth, and in our efforts to preserve this position we boast we must strive constantly to raise, or at least maintain, the standard of our citizenship, and to accomplish this end we must unceasingly fight organized greed and graft, stamp ecupies the throne.

OSWALD WEST

out poverty, vice and crime protect the home and make life more pleasant for those who have been less fortunate than others. It is idle, however, to talk of progress along those lines so long as King Alcohol strikes us with horror; yet this great war, with all its carnage.

Who grabs the pay check from the honest workman on Saturday night and makes his wife and little ones go hungry? Mr. Booze.

Who sows the seeds of poverty and distress everywhere? Mr. Booze

Who loads upon us most of our tax burdens? Mr. Booze.

The Wets protest against our voting the state dry because it will close Paul Wessinger's brewery and be equivalent to the confiscation of his property, but they do not tell you how the browery was built through the ruination of homes and the confiscation of pay checks. They do not tell you that every brick in the building represents a broken heart and the color of the building is emblematical of the blood which has dripped there-

Whenever I think of the devil I think of boogs, and whenever I think of booze I think of the devil, for the devil is booze and booze is hell.

Old Booze is an outlaw who has been long pur-sued but never subdued. At no time and under no circumstances should be be given quarter, and it is the duty of every good citizen to stand ready to sand-bag him whenever he sticks his head in sight. All Oregon will have a chance to sand hag him on November 3, and for the Lord's sake let us make a good job of it.

IF YOU BELIEVE WITH GOVERNOR WEST, VOTE-

OREGON DRY, 332 X YES

Paid advertisement by the Committee of One Rundred, 748 Morgan Building, Portland, Oregon.

608 Market St., Portland. Astonishing Accuracy! 316 34

FOR RENT

L. O. RALSTON, Owner,

It is a distinct pleasure to sell a watch that will literally astonish its owner by its wonderful accuracy-a watch that will stay accurate year after year through all kinds of service. That's why we offer you

Hamilton Hatch

This watch is a marvel of accuracy, thinness and beauty. Made in all sizes, for men and women. Also Hamilton movements sold separately to fit almost any case.

OSCAR BORG

JEWELER AND OPTOMETRIST county up into two counties.