WITYCOMBE AND CHAMBERLAIN WINNERS; PROHIBITION AMENDMENT HAS 10,000 LEAD SO FAR

Election passed off in Oregon on Tuesday without any particularly startling events. The results were what had been predicted, as a whole, by the majority of the voters. About 80 per cent of the registered voters appeared at the polls.

Among the more important candidates, Booth seems to have lost to Chamberlain for United States Senator, but the margin will be narrow when the final vote is counted. Hawley, McArthur and Sinnott were easy winners for Congress. All are Republicans. In this district, Cleaver, Prohibitionist ran second.

The surprise of the election was the immense majority by which Hon. Jas. Witycombe was elected Governor over his democratic opponent, C. J. Smith, the Portland physician. Witycombe was given probably the largest majority any candidate for Governor of Oregon ever received.

Thos. Kay was an easy winner for State Treasurer. Geo. M. Brown of Douglas County appeared to have been elected Attorney General. J. A. Churchill of Baker County had an immense majority for Superintendent of Public Instruction. O. P. Hoff will continue to be State Factory Inspector.

Frank J. Miller is again elected Railroad Commissioner. All of these candidates are Republicans.

For Justices of the Supreme Court, it appears that all four nominees of the Republican party, Henry J. Bean, Henry L. Benson, Thomas A. McBride, and Lawrence T. Harris were winners.

Some of the figures given the above candidates in 11 precincts in Morrow County are: Cleaver 517, Evans 296, Sinnott 736, Booth 728, Chamberlain 550, Hanley 161, C. J. Smith 518, Witycombe 912, Kay 869.

From the reports we have been able to receive up to the time we go to press it appears that all but two of the initiative measures have been snowed under by an avalanche of "Nos." The two that appear to have been carried are the amendment requiring voters to be citizens of the United States and the Prohibition Amendment. The latter appears to have been carried by at least 10,000 and further returns from up state may raise these figures. The vote in Morrow County on these two bills are: for the first named; yes 955, no 331; for prohibition, yes 1018, no 579.

WOOLGROWERS TO MEET AT PENDLETON

Quite a number of Morrow County sheepmen will attend the Annual Convention of the Oregon Woolgrowers' Association which will be held at Pendleton today and tomorrow Friday and Saturday. Matters of the utmost importance will come before the convention and it is to the interests of the woolgrowers to have these matters thoroughly discussed. Most of the local woolmen will go by automobile. Among those who have informed the Herald of their intentions to be present at the convention are: Wm. Barratt, Geo. Currin, John Killeney, Hynd Brothers, Mike Kenny, Pete Farley, Paul Webb and Joe Hayes. Many others are also known to be contemplating the trip, leaving here this morning. The first session opens at 10:00 a. m.

LEXINGTON ITEMS

The Ladies of the Home Mission Society held their annual bazaar in the Artisan Hall on Saturday night. Ice cream and cake were served and all enjoyed themselves.

Mr. Snyder residing two miles southeast of Lexington held a public sale on Friday afternoon of all of his dairy cows and one separator. Only a few attended, however, and bidding was slow, so only one cow was sold and the sale called off.

Mr. Moore has been busy hauling up a car load of lumber which was purchased by Jos. Burgoyne and will be used for the erection of a fine new building. Burgoyne has, in connection with their general store gone into the implement business and the new building will be used for the display of their John Deere implements, which they handle exclusively. Davis has the contract and when complete the building will certainly add to the improvements of the town.

Another fact that we noted was that Mr. Summers had moved his resident, formerly the Tom Beymer house, on to another part of his ground and fronting a different direction. Dan said he was getting too much dust the way it was situated, hence the change.

Miss Merle Carmichael is home again after a few days' outing at Sprague. Miss Bauman visited at Mrs. Carmichael's during Miss Merle's absence.

Banker Scott made a trip to The Dalles by auto on Monday afternoon returning next day.

W. P. McMillan was a Pendleton visitor on Saturday, returning on Sunday night.

Willis Ward has rented the Shutt ranch, formerly occupied by Mr. Fidler, and is moving his family there this week.

Col. Boone says he is tired of city life and to better himself has purchased 10 acres of ground on the creek about four miles from Lexington. Consideration $1000.00.

F. M. Parker concluded a deal whereby he disposed of his ranch near Lexington.

A party of workmen are now engaged, under Mr. Davis, putting down cement walks. They finished up quit a strip for Mr. Leach and commenced on Saturday afternoon a job for Mr. Scott. Cement walks are sure the walks that last and who is next to follow the example?

Mrs. Pickett is staying in Heppner a few days and Miss Blanche is boarding with Mrs. Ward during her mother's absence.

Mrs. Hall of Portland came Thursday evening and will keep house for Mr. McCormick. We hope Mrs. Hall will be well pleased with Lexington.

Dr. and Mrs. Chick were up from the Egg City Wednesday.

Mr. A. Matteson, one of the well known ranchers of the south end wheat belt, was in the county seat on election day and dropped into the Herald office to buy a dollar and one-half's worth of stock in the syndicate. He is thus assured of the presence of the semi-weekly on his family table for the next 52 weeks.

Adam Knoblock showed good judgment when he purchased a small block of stock in the syndicate on election day. He bought two shares, $1.50 worth for himself and $1.50 worth for his friend, Mr. Mark Johnson of Marcolla, Oregon, and as the result of this important transaction both gentlemen will be furnished the semi-weekly for the period of one year.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Swaggart, who recently disposed of their Jordan Siding property to Gus Wilcox, will now spend a couple of months at McDuffee's Springs in the interior. Mrs. Swaggart made a visit to the Herald office Wednesday and bought a small block of stock in the syndicate in order that she might be assured of receiving the semi-weekly during the next 52 weeks. Mrs. Swaggart has been suffering from rheumatism for some time and expects the stay at the hot springs to do her much good.

Paul Hisler's teams have been busy for some time hauling lumber for the new two-story house which Mr. Hisler will erect on his Butter Creek ranch. Mike Kenny gently whispered it into our ear that he believed Paul had designs on a certain member of the fair sex and that he was getting this new residence prepared in order to pave the way for a proposal which she would be the more apt to hear favorably. Of course Mike said that he wasn't exactly sure that these were Paul's intentions but Pete Farley informs us that he is reasonably certain of the facts as above stated.

East St. Louis Sets Pace For Go to Church Movement—Great Enthusiasm Shown

EAST ST. LOUIS had a banner GO TO CHURCH Sunday. Eighty-two per cent of the population went to divine service. "How did you do it?" was the question asked by hundreds of other cities throughout the country. The answer came:

ALL CITY OFFICIALS ASKED THEIR EMPLOYEES TO GO TO CHURCH. THE CHIEF OF POLICE ASSEMBLED ALL THE POLICEMEN AT ROLL CALL AND ASKED THEM TO GO TO SOME CHURCH. JUST BEFORE GOING HOME SATURDAY NIGHT HE REVISED THE PATROL SCHEDULE OF ALL THE PATROLMEN AND DETECTIVES SO THAT THEY COULD GET AWAY TO SOME CHURCH SERVICE SUNDAY. IN THE PRESENCE OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF POLICE COMMISSIONERS HE HANDED THE SCHEDULE TO THE SERGEANT IN CHARGE.

The chief of the fire department just after returning from a fire run Saturday afternoon assembled the entire fire department and told the men the schedule would be arranged so they could GO TO CHURCH. The superintendent of public instruction assembled all the teachers and asked them to GO TO SOME CHURCH. He also instructed them to tell their pupils to GO TO CHURCH.

THE RETAIL MERCHANTS ENTERED THE SPIRIT OF THE THING. THEY INVITED THEIR PATRONS TO ATTEND SERVICES. WHEN A WOMAN WENT TO A STORE TO MAKE A PURCHASE THE GROCER WOULD ASK HER IF SHE WOULD BE IN CHURCH NEXT DAY, OR HE WOULD SAY PLEASANTLY, "WILL I SEE YOU IN CHURCH TOMORROW?" THE DELIVERY BOYS ALSO EXTENDED CHURCH INVITATIONS. "SEE YOU IN CHURCH TOMORROW!" WAS HEARD IN MORE HOMES IN EAST ST. LOUIS THAN EVER BEFORE. THE STREET CAR COMPANIES CARRIED SIGNS GRATIS ADVERTISING THE MOVEMENT.

That's how East St. Louis did it. Other cities and towns are planning the same kind of a campaign. GO TO CHURCH!

IONE WINS FOOTBALL GAME BY NARROW MARGIN FROM HEPPNER

The Ione football warriors were victorious over the home guard High School pigskin booters and won the election day struggle by the narrow margin of three points. These three points were also the only ones of the game.

The score of three to nothing tells a clear story of how evenly matched the two teams were. On offensive work they were about a standoff. On defensive work the Heppner boys with their heavier line were stronger than their opponents in breaking up straight line bucks but in open field defense the visitors showed themselves much faster of the two.

"Fat" Blake, the Ione captain, again proved himself a star. As quarterback on the offensive his generalship proved a most valuable asset to his team. He carried the ball often himself and generally made heavy yardage. The balance of the Ione backfield seemed unable to pierce the Heppner defense for any substantial gains. On the defense, Blake stationed himself at left tackle and here again his great work was much in evidence.

Harry Morgan, left tackle, and Deb Wright at left halfback, were undoubtedly the stars for Heppner High. Morgan showed up strong on the defensive work and was the cause of Ione's backfield being downed for losses at several different times. He broke through the lighter Ione line almost at will. Wright showed an abundance of nerve in carrying the ball and hit the line low and hard for substantial yardage.

The three points to the credit of the visitors came as the result of a rather fluky play. Ray Blake, Ione fullback, punted the ball from Heppner's 35-yard line. Quarterback Hayes, of Heppner, caught the ball just inside the field. He was tackled by Kenneth Blake, Ione's left tackle and the force of the collision threw Hayes over the line with the ball. This gave Ione three points on a safety.

Very seldom did the ball ever reach a point of danger for either team. Once the pigskin was on Ione's 25-

WATERS, M'DUFFEE, GILLIAM, CURRIN, WIN COUNTY OFFICES; BARRETT, STANFIELD GIVEN LARGE LEAD IN COUNTY

Heppner presented a lively appearance on election day. Voters from the far corners of the four precincts which had their polling places in this city were on hand in large numbers and about 80 per cent of those registered cast their ballots.

For State Senator from this district C. A. Barratt of Athena had a substantial lead over his opponent, Jas. N. Scott. For Representative R. L. Stanfield ran well ahead of Bishop. In the county offices the votes received by each of the leading candidates were:

For Sheriff—W. A. Hayes, (dem.) 504, George McDuffee (rep.) 1297; for clerk—E. R. Huston (dem.) 571, J. A. Waters (rep.) 1046; for Treasurer—Frank Gilliam (rep.) 898; Hanson Hughes (dem.) 704; for Commissioner—C. J. Anderson (soc.) 247, Geo. Currin (rep.) 858, Jeff Joans (dem.) 645. The above figures are for 12 precincts, the Hardman ballots not having been brought in at the time we prepared these figures. The Hardman vote, however, will give nearly all of the winning candidates a slight increase in their lead. For Assessor and Surveyor, J. J. Wells and L. M. Turner, who were opposed only by socialist candidates, were easy winners.

In the 6th Justice of the Peace district, comprising the four precincts, including the city of Heppner, A. L. Cornett was winner over J. P. Williams by 281 to 324. For Constable of the same district M. C. Smith won over J. R. McCraw by a vote of 312 to 267.

In our next issue we will give complete detail reports and figures on each and every measure and candidate voted for in this county, and as near as possible the vote on the leading measures and candidates throughout the state.

Pete Farley is one of the latest to invest in the syndicate. Pete is a well known wool grower and keeps abreast of the local happenings thru the columns of the Herald.

Ed Patterson started from Heppner yesterday on the Inland Limited with his racing horse, "Canapa," for Juarez, Mexico, where he expects to spend the winter. Juarez is the scene of racing most of the winter. Mrs. Patterson will remain in Heppner for about two weeks before leaving to join her husband. Ed informed us that as soon as he was permanently settled for the winter he would send us $1.50 by freight for a block of stock in the syndicate, in order to keep posted on Morrow County news.

Wednesday morning saw the depot force busy checking trunks and selling long strips of green paper to several parties who are leaving God's country for a visit on the Atlantic Coast. Smith Elliott, W. J. McCraw, Lester and Norman Stockman and Doc Leftrick were the members of the party. Their tickets read, Galax, Va. Mr. McCraw expects to make only a short visit of a couple of months but the remainder of the party were not sure whether or not they would return to Morrow County. Virginia is their native state.

HAVE YOU SEEN THIS ENGLISHMAN?

Mr. George Barrs, proprietor of the Echo Auto Co., dropped into the Herald office on Wednesday to greet the editor. He informed us that he was here to demonstrate an automobile to a gentleman who had informed him that was the proprietor and manager of a creamery, cold storage and ice plant located in this city, and asked us to direct him to any such person's office. We directed him to the only ice and cold storage plant in the city, that owned by Mr. Cowins. Mr. Barrs returned in a short time and said that he had not found his party. He gave us a little insight into the possible identity of the party who had told him he was in the market for a car when he informed us that the gentleman wore glasses. Mr. Barrs informed us that he believed the party he sought was an English Lord who had been at one time the lessee of some million or two acres of alfalfa land in Australia and who had had to come to Morrow County in search of a larger tract. Mr. Barrs returned home Wednesday afternoon, without having found the gentleman he was looking for.

Roy V. Whiteis, former clerk in Thompson Brothers' store in Heppner and who is now a leading merchant of the Egg City, transacted business here on Wednesday.

Stock in the syndicate seemed to be eagerly sought after on election day. J. H. Padberg, the prosperous wheat grower, who was in town with Mrs. Padberg to cast his ballot, bought a small block of stock in the Harlan Herald and continues on our long list of satisfied stockholders.

Mr. and Mrs. Herald and the two little Herald's, accompanied by Mrs. Glenn Y. Wells, autos out to the Mason ranch on Rhea Creek Sunday where they enjoyed country life for several hours. This is the ranch where the ladies do the houseing. Miss Nettie is the boss-in-chief and she runs the ranch in a manner that shows a healthy surplus to their credit at the bank and the various stores where they do their trading. We expect to say more about this feature of the Mason ranch in our Annual Edition but right now we want to tell you about the fine chicken dinner which the hostesses prepared for our hungry party. Knowing that we were coming they had evidently hunted the ranch over for a pair of the largest fry's they could find but the editor had no trouble eating all four of the drumsticks. We topped the meal off with some delicious home canned fruit covered with real thick cream, the kind of cream which we mentioned in a recent article in this paper as being seldom seen on an editor's table. We returned home that evening with hearts full of praise for our genial hostesses and accepted an invitation to return again. Will we? Most certainly.
