|  |  |
| :---: | :---: |
|  |  |
| ingi on american relief \|have |  |
| which has ifeon looking after stranded Americans at public expense, has been compelled to |  |
|  |  |
| issue a warning to the American press and peo- |  |
| ple not to be "taken in" by stories of mistreatment which tourists may tell when they arrive ot their American dustimations The warming |  |
|  |  |
| at their American destinations. The warning is timely, as many fuch inferviews and state- |  |
| ments are alrendy appearing in American papers, some critivising the committees and the |  |
|  |  |
| consuls at foreign ports.  The truth of the matter seems to be that the |  |
|  |  |
| relief coummittecs have been greatly imposed upon by the unicrupulous and by some who |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| were not unscrupulous, it is related that twowomen who presented themselves as penniless, |  |
|  |  |
| having been made so by the wars, were granted relief and instem of using it to put up at |  |
|  |  |
| land and preserited bills for $$ 50$ a day for the two, which the committee had to pay, but thereafter it put the women on an expense account of |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| $$ 1.75$ a day, which they seemed to think an outrage |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| aniter ${ }^{\text {but they often find fault becuuse more }}$, |  |
|  |  |
| that the howlings of our tourists were uncalled for and that mat of the sufferings they |  |
|  |  |
| for and that most of the sufferings they endured were self-inflicted, largely through paincky feellings with which they were seized. |  |
|  |  |
| When the war broke out they seem suddenly to have been crizel with the fears that every one |  |
|  |  |
| in Europe would be massacred. The conduct of many American caught abroad was not compatible with the courage and fortitude that we would like to assocriate with the name Amcrican. |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| PEACE TALK AND CATS PAWISM President Wilson is right in refusing to have | An American who had occasion to motor through Belgium, carrying Arierican mapers |
|  |  |
| his office made a cat's paw in the European |  |
| negotiations. He will not "sound" foreign nations on peace and he will not be made a go- |  |
|  |  |
| between in "conversations" where cach is seeking some infommation or other, rather than |  |
|  |  |
| ing some information or other, rather than seeking peace. First one side and then another |  |
| may say that it is for peace, and gain a public advantage by such professed readiness, when, |  |
|  |  |
| as a matter of fact, it is peace along its own original contentions.$\qquad$ |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| them onesond all that he is ready to use his office for the promotion of peace, but before |  |
|  |  |
| be acts the nation or mations nust come with sincere henthe, nat dickering for information |  |
|  |  |
| or adeamames, bil sincerely deairous of peace. |  |
| Mere iocheying is not to be tolerated by a nation which huesulth a nentrality and a dignity of |  |
|  | of |
| its osen to sumport.  The truth is that neither side of the war is |  |
|  |  |
| yet rendly for peace-stome one will have to be decisively nhippod first, or the people at home will have in atart an uprising. England is so |  |
|  |  |
|  | adyantareou ly aconted that it can have no dein the miserable business of fighting, and their sole animus was a desire to keep inviolate their |  |
|  |  |  |
| Russin in me big and so regardess that it is in the seme |  |
|  |  |
| would of course feel ahased to ask for peace |  |
|  | up in the esteem of the nations and they have demonstrated that a nation that is a mere handful can contend successfully with a nation that is a giant, provided the handful has right |
| invader's heel on their neeks and Germany is not proparval to sue for peace while she is farther away from her geal than she was a montias ugoz |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  | Peace will come some time and then every one will claim it was through h's particular in tluence. Bryan will claim it, the pope in Rome will claim it and all those who are now praying for peace will chaim it. Well, let us hope therc will be peace enough for all. |
| If the firmums luad saved the three months they hare hoom peomuling away in Belgiom, by going right itraight auross the r own boundry, instomit thromith a nactithor's back door, the chatron aro that thing would now be nearer Paris thim thes ams But they thought the other say would proye the casier. They did out aterestimife thir Kгupp guns, it appears. but they did indereatinute the human courage in the Bilanime.$\qquad$ |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  | And who has thought of the poor horses that have been slaughtered in the wars? They are dumb brutes, but they have been shaughtered with the men who ride them. And surely the horses were no parties to this human madness which we call war. |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| A LHTTLE APPRECLATION FOR FRANCE. Fwench pouplic home aften feet that there is in thite combtry tark of seriones consideration for |  |
|  |  |
| thew. Tha Anerican people are apt to regard | And winter is coming on which will increase the hardships of the men at war. Think of a heavy snow storm and a blizzard swooping down on two or three million men in camps. Can you think of anything wosse than that, in the way of human suffering? |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| Thes amoctur |  |
| The Cermuns are as proverbially gi |  |
| for all the ovpmite qualities. Of of |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
| have not iruma thimedves to be light or frim |  |
|  |  |

d

 L. O. RALSTON, Owner,
608 Market St., Portland.
$\qquad$
$\qquad$
$\qquad$ ner for sale. Locatad on Main Street and doing a first class business. It and doing a first class business. It is well cquipped with everything necessary to do the business...Clean necessary to do the business... Clean and neat in every partitular...There are some household effects which will

$\qquad$
$\qquad$
it is to buy a business paying well,
Just drop a line to the owner or bet
Just drop a line to the owner or better yet, stop in and talk it over with him...He is desirous of making change.
$\qquad$
professional column

F. DYE,

dentist
Pemanently located in Odd Fellows building, Rooms 4 and 5 .

C. E. WOODSON

Office in Palace Hotel. Heppner, Ore,
SAM E. VAN VACTOR attorney-at-law Heppner, Oregon

S. E. NOTSON  ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

Office in Court House, Heppner, Ore.

WELLS & NYS

Heppner.

KNAPPENBERG & JOHN:
Attorneys
and COUNCELORS AT Law
Ione. . . . . Orego

W. L. SMITH,

Only abstracter

in Morrow County.

Heprier,
FOR FINE UP-FO-DATE HOMES

> T. C. Dennisee,

ARCHITET AND CONTRACTOR
LOUIS PEARSON tamor

deppner.

DR. BRAZEALE, D, V. M. DEPUTY sTOCK INsPECTOR

Thats SEAL

Phelps Grocery Co.

| J. H. COX  CONTRACTOR and BUILDER  Plans and Estimates Furnished for All Kinds of Buildings.  I Make a Specialty of and Have Complete  House Moving |
| :---: |

Heppner Garage

All Kinds of Repair Work Done Quickly
We are agents for Ford, Overland and Mitchell Automobiles.

STOVES
 offer you stoves of every description
THE GREAT MAJESTIC MALLEABLE RANGE down to a $$ 9.00$ Cook Stove
Heaters from $$ 2.00$ to $$ 40$
Note the parts of the New Mission Heater for wood and coal, has duplex grates the same as a Steel Range.
If you want something to make a fire in Come In And See Us
We will be glad to show.you what we have Gilliam & Bisbee

The First National Bank OF HEPPNER

Oldest Bank in Morrow County
Capital, Surplus and Profits $$ 140,000.00$

Your Banking Business Will be Appreciated

