VOLUME 1

WAR TAX HITS MANY BUSINESSMEN OF HEPPNER

SEMI-WEEKLY

Bowling Alleys, Billiard Halls, Tobacco Dealers, Theatres

1914. This act will have effect on the pocketbooks of several life in this manner. business men in Morrow County and for their benefit we reprint the notice in full as follows:

Internal Revenue Service NOTICE

An Act To increase The Internal Revenue And For Other Purposes. Dated Oct. 22nd, 1014.

EFFECTIVE NOV, 1, 1914 provisions of the above mention- Dalles team recently trimmed ed Act, who have not received the Washington High School due notice of his or their liability team of Portland and are lookunder the said Act, are hereby ed upon as probable champions etc., covering the following, and failure to comply therewith incurs a penalty as provided by Statute:

Bankers, for each $1000.00 of capital employed$ 1.00 Brokers, who have not paid as Bankers 30.00 WILL Pawnbrokers 50.00 Commercial brokers 20.00 Customhouse brokers 10.00 Commission Merchants, who have not paid as Commer cial brokers 20.00 Proprietors of Theatres, Museum and concert halls:

Seating capacity not over 250 25.00 Seating capacity over 250 and not over 500,..... 50.00 Seating capacity over 500 and not over 800..... eating capacity over hours in the County Seat, dropped into the Herald office and wanted to know if it would make us mad if he paid his subscription. Of course such things do peeve the editor mightily but in

S & notar

The town of The Dalles has gone "football crazy" to judge TREASURY DEPARTMENT by an article appearing in The Chronicle. It appears that The Dalles High School players trim-med the Walla Walla team last Friday afternoon in the Washington city by a 27 to 14 score. as the champion of Eastern Washington and also lays claim All parties liable under the to the state championship. The notified that application must be of Oregon. Coach Earle of the

to their newly acquired property, acres in the place and Mr. Hill known as the Dave Herren place,

A few days ago Mr. W. G. Palmateer of Morgan, who hap-ANNUAL EXHIBITION IN JANUARY

JEPPNER HERAL

HEPPNER, OREGON, NOV. 24, 1914

A meeting of the members of Heppner who desire advertising peeve the editor mightily but in order not to hurt Mr. Pal-mateer's feelings we took the money. If there are any others of our readers who are hold the annual poultry shown in per half page. Local business The body of the car only needs a Must Pay. Postmaster Richardson of Heppner has just posted in the would advise them that we are how that we are affinite the methan we are affinite the methan we are field gathering advertisements in the premium list and the book-Heppner has just posted in the would advise them that we are field gathering advertisements in the methan pount of the premium list and the book-Heppner has just posted in the would advise them that we are field gathering advertisements in the methan pount of the premium list and the book-Heppner has just posted in the would advise them that we are field gathering advertisements in the methan pount of the premium list and the book-Heppner has just posted in the would advise them that we are field gathering advertisements in the premium list and the book-Heppner has just posted in the would advise them that we are field gathering advertisements in the premium list and the book-Heppner has just posted in the would advise them that we are field gathering advertisements in the premium list and the book-Heppner has just posted in the would advise them that we are field gathering advertisements in the premium list and the book-Heppner has just posted in the would advise them that we are field gathering advertisements in the premium list and the book-Heppner has just posted in the would advise them that we are field gathering advertisements in the premium list and the book-Heppner has just posted in the would advise them that we are field gathering advertisements in the premium list and the book-Heppner has just posted in the would advise them that we are field gathering advertisements in the premium list and the book-Heppner has just posted in the book advertisement in the premium list and the book advertisement in the premium list adve local office a notice regarding the becoming somewhat accustomed and soliciting special prizes to copy will be ready by Saturday payment of "War Tax" which went into effect November 1, to such shocks and are willing to to such shocks and are willing to the committee also wishes to an-be ready for distribution the take a few more chances on our nounce that parties outside of first of next week.

TAKE PLACE PAST FEW DAYS

MIKKIW

The Walla Walla team is touted Nearly 1700 Acres of Wheat Land Change Hands---W. C. Lawson and Son Buy From The McHaley Estate.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Weils are ranch about two miles south of paid $25 per acre, totaling $26,-500. Mr. Stapleton, one of the middle men in this deal, is the middle men in this total, is the Lawson, at a considered and gentleman who bought the $15 p_r acre. It will be remem-Mountain Valley Stock Farm bered that the younger Mr. Law-

Sheriff Evans and Dan Rice

UEALS

N

Valley with the avowed inten-The will of the late Lafayette is a great booster for Morrow tion of seeking a location. A Penland has been opened and County and informs the Herald week or two below was sufficient Schools met on the former's beautiful casket smothered by read. The widow was bequeath-three weeks in and around Salem ed one-third interest in the looking for buyers for more of has since been looking for such these two teams and the Egg then wended its way to the estate and is also made adminis- Morrow County's fine land. In a place as was included in the City warriors were again victor- Masonic cemetery where the last 50.00 tratrix. The children, Will, 75.00 Eugene, Mrs. Cox and Miss Stel 100.00 of the remaining two-thirds of Proprietors of circuses..... 100.00 of the remaining two-thirds of Owing to the uncertainty of leased his place to the same all the way through but the them had been intimately assothe estate and Mrs. Cox is also Oregon laws the mill has not parties and has since been look- Lexington lads showed much im- ciated with him during the past given an extra $200 per year as been in operation for some time ing around for another place, provement over the form dis-quarter of a century. They long as her health remains but wheat is commanding a high It is quite probable now that he played at lone a week previous were: Messrs, T. J. Mahoney, poorly, and the condition is also figure and Morrow County land and Mrs. Lawson will move to Carl Miller, Ray White and Roy is now one of the best buys in Heppner to live permanently. Campbell puton a stubborn game. S. W. Spencer, M. D. Clark, Clyde Brack W. * Richardson Therefore, Mr. N. F. will live on the new place for Lexington, and the work of Clyde Brock, W. A. Richardson than the $200 per year extra if Stapelton is of the opinion that and will take possession within Roy Elake shown out a little and John Kinsman. Rev. Ferris she is in need of same. The he will be doing his friends in a couple of weeks, notified that application must be made to Milton A. Miller, Collec-tor of Internal Revenue for the District of Oregon, Portland, casily District of Oregon, Po of the A. W. Johnson grain day when the McHaley Estate, setts, brand on. Finder please "In the Hour of Trial" and through their agent, D. E. Gil- leave at this office and receive "Lead Me Gently Home, Fathmaking preparations to move in- Heppner. There are about 1060 man, disposed of a 520 acre tract suitable reward. which lies about seven miles up Balm Fork south of Heppner, to W. C. Lawson and son, N. F.

LIMNIY

ed a sawmill near Cottage Grove son sold his grain ranch south for a tract of grain land just off of town several weeks ago to Scott Brothers and left for The Willow Creek about four miles

I have a 33 horse power auto mobile, which has been run only 1 little over 18,000 miles and which is in first-class condition I am offering this machine for sale or trade for the reason that I bought a larger car. This machine is equipped with electric lights and the motor has first-The class cooling and oiling systems. The motor is as good as new car at a very low price for cash or will take horses in full or part Federated Church in Heppner Campbell, Lexington, Oregon.

FOR SALE OR TRADE

ner Garage went down to Port land yesterday morning after a new Hupmobile car for Emmet Cochran of Monument. Emmei recently sold his Ford car-

Frank Evans, Willow Creek rancher between Heppner and Lexington, has purchased a Maxwell "25" from the Jackrabbit Garage.

LOST Between L. V. Gentry's and day had gathered to worship.

Pat Roucke.

for him, however, and he soon re- grounds last Saturday in the turned to Morrow County and second game of the season for

SEMI-WEEKLY

NUMBER 47

Old-Time Friends Gather to Honor Memory of Pioncer Citizen.

The funeral of Lafayette Penland, whose passing was noted in our last issue, was held at the payment. Inquire at the Herak Sunday afternon. Rev. Will N. office or see the owner, W. T Ferris preached the sermon and the church was crowded to its utmost capacity with scores of Albert Bowker of the Hepp- the deceased's old friends and neighbors. The scripture reading and remarks by the pastor were very appropriate. Rev. Ferris spoke at length of his intimate association with Mr. Penland during the last few weeks of the deceased's life on earth and told of the noble character he discovered was possessed by the man whose mcmory the large audience on Sun-> er," two beautiful hymns which had been selected by members of the deceased's family were rendered by the quartet and Miss Marion Long and Mrs. Harlan sang a duet, "Abide With Me."

In passing from the church, the friends viewed the remains of their former comrade, which Lexington and Ione High were resting peacefully in a flowers. The funeral procession stronger than that of his lone had charge of the services at the exhibitions or shows for money Proprietors of bowling alleys and billard rooms, for each alley or table Dealers in tobacco (Manufactured tobacco, snuff, cigars and cigarrettes) exempt when annual receipts not. over $200.00 Manufacturers of Cigars: Annual sales not over 100,-000 cigars Annual sales exceed 100,-000 and not exceed 200,-000 Annual sales exceed 200,-Annual sales exceed 400, 000 and not exceed 1,000,- a specting the above mentioned law may be obtained upon application to the undersigned.

3.00

Q)

MILTON A. MILLER

near Lexington yesterday and made this office a call. They were seems eminently fitting that in drove the team across the mountion.

turned to his home in Portland also be up for consideration. Mrs. Hall will revesteriav. main in Heppner for several days. Mr. Hall is superintendent of the O.-W. R. & N. steel bridge.

10.00 made that she is to have more the world. 5.00 estate amounts to practically and the residence in town.

President Smead wishes it announced that a meeting of the 6.00 Heppner Commercial Club will

000 and not exceed 400,-000 12,00 eve to consider several important and the officer will bring back a broken leg. matters, among which will be Frank Wyner, the hide buyer Mr. Hux was riding a horse, the question as to whether or who was in Heppner several driving cattle, near Parker's Any further information re- behind the petition filed in its Wyner rented a team from Mr. him, breaking both bones in his town teams of Lexington and their heavy artillery. The first mission of Oregon. The Club terior and on one occasion he Padberg and John Cochran were Ali the old-timers in these two and two "old crows" were their ILLER will also consider the mater of failed to return. Therefore Mr. just passing by in the former's lowns are out practicing failh only victims. However, they had better luck the next day and the machine and rushed to the Rood is doing the coaching stant. Portland, Oregon, Nov. 18, 1914. Relief Fund. As the time has horses and notified the officers. Heppner Sanatorium where he for the Lexingtonites and managed to bag seven geese.

been known when the town of Wyner was arested a few days was given the proper attention. Mr. and Mrs. Epr Eskelson, Heppner was well remembered ago in Portland by Sheriff Word. He is now getting along in good for the Egg City players. The spirits with this outlay. We were in the city from their home in its time of deep distress it Ae we understand it, Wyner shape.

greatly interested in the linotype our time of plenty we should tains to Albany and sold the animachine and had the intricacies not be slow in helping our less mals there. Since it became ette Penland which appared in of its working thoroughly ex- fortunate fellow men, whose known that he had made away the last issue of the Herald a The committee of the B. P. O. Rock and advised them to go plained to them. The Eskelson's homes and crops have been de- with the team, numerous other typographical error made it ap- E. Lodge of Heppner has secur- there on their next expedition are among the most prosperous and crops have been de which paries have notified the officers pear that Mr. Penland was marthe Herald intends to say more they are unwillingly a part, that Wyner owed them. The ried in the year 1874. The fig- of Portland Lodge No. 142, to W. T. Campbell, who is one of about them in our Annual Edi- Not only members of the Club sheriff expected to return tomor- wes shuld have been 1883, deliver the address at the the leading wheat raisers of the are invited to be present to dis- row evening with his prisoner. Two other corrections should Annual Memorial Services of county, made Heppner one of his cuss this matter but all citizens

Mr. Sam Hall, who was here are invited to be present. Sev- Mr. Ed Dunn, who formerly name of James Penland, broth- held in the lodge rooms at 2:00

The purchaser is F. M. Bayless, yesterday morning.

4.80 $32,000, mostly in securities, ARRTSTED FOR STEALING A FALL OF HORSE BREAKS A TEAM OF HORSES MAN'S LEG

games in Morrow County.

In the obituary of Mr. Lafay- Furkey Day.

also be made. We omitted the the local lodge which will be frequent visits today.

to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, Lafe Penland, re- eral other important maters will "ived at Willows but whose home er of the deceased, from among p. m. on Sunday, December 6. There will be but one Mass in is now at Clarni station near the list of relatives, and also A fine program has been arrang- the Catholic Church on Sunday Portland, was here several days were mistaken in saying that ed for this occasion and the gen- next, the 29th inst. The Jackrabhit Garage sold another Mxawell "25" today. "Find, John Hughes. He left was a sister of the deceased, be present, as well as the mem-vices at Jone at 10:30 a. m. on She was a sister-in-law. bers of the order.

Ed Adkins took a party conalso a feature of the game. Al- sisting of himself and Edgar though the result of the game Ayers, Ed Buckman and Sherm A man by the name of Hux yet it was interesting to the Shaw down to Arlington last Heppner Commercial Club will be held at his office this Friday went down to Portland today was brought into Heppner last spectators, and was stabbornly Saturday on a went down to the teeth" Saturday by Lewis Padberg with 'ought. This will end the seaspectators, and was stubbornly Saturday on a wild goose chase. on for High School football at the expression goes and many The Egg City gridiron will be and diverse threats upon the the scene of a football game on lives of any honk honks that Thanksgiving Day when the might come within range of name with the Railroad Com- Rice to make trips into the in- left leg, below the knee. Mr. Ione meet in their annual tuesde, day out the hunting was slim game will be hotly contested and fone will strive to regain the heard Phill Cohn giving them a taurels she lost to Lexington last little advice last evening. Phill says that geese can be bought for only $5 a dozen at Castle

The Mass Sunday next.

teammates. Roy was particularly grave also. strong on the offense and carried the ball for consistent gains. The punting of Meavle Blake was