Car of Yakima potatoes just received—Phelps Grocery Co.

The Pilot Rock Record exceeded the speed limit in the printing line for that burg last week when they printed a double page ad for a local store. The order also called for 1000 posters from the same copy. As brother Robbins expressed it, "the order was such a large one that the office cat threw a fit, the bulldog died and the gasoline engine had heart failure."

I am an agent for Mrs. Summers' famous home remedies. Samples sent on request. Mrs. Hardesty, Morgan, Oregon.

For rag rugs and rag carpet weaving and also rugs from old ingrain carpets, see the Heppner weaver just south of the Catholic Church.

Society News

Miss Amy McHaley is in the city from Portland looking after interests of the McHaley estate here. Miss McHaley is accompanied by Mrs. Mattie Edmundson.

Mrs. L. E. Cohn, whose home was formerly in Heppner, has been visiting in the city several days. Mrs. Cohn has recently been visiting in Pendleton and has accepted the position as head of the millinery department in one of the large stores there. Her duties there will begin soon. Mrs. Cohn will be assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Gladys Slaughter.

Mr. G. A. Jackson invited in a number of friends last Saturday for the purpose of surprising Mrs. Jackson, whose birthday was at hand. Quite a large number were present, including the members of Mrs. Long's Sunday School Class, also Misses Virginia Crawford, Leala and Lulu Campbell, Lulu and Sybil Hager, Marion Long, Helen and Ella Aiken, Melba Griffith and Messrs. Spencer Crawford, Harry Morgan. The evening was spent in a jolly fashion, playing games, etc., and the guests were served with refreshments of ice cream and cake.

The benefit entertainment and cake and coffee sale given by the Heppner Library Association last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Glenn Y. Wells, was a great success. The price of refreshments was set at only ten cents and the sum of $11 was cleared by the Association. While this sum is not large, it was all that was expected by the officers of the Association and they are well pleased.

This event was of more importance from a social standpoint than from the financial standpoint. Mrs. C. A. Minor, Mrs. Wells and Mrs. Van Vactor were the receiving committee while the serving committee was composed of Mrs. S. W. Spencer, Mrs. Phelps, Mrs. Crawford, and Miss Farnsworth. Mrs. Otheo Crawford had charge of the musical entertainment. During no part of the time between the hours of 3:00 and 6:00 was there a lull in the entertainment. Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. Winnard each sang two solos. A quartet of young ladies from the High School, Miss Helen Aiken, Miss Melba Griffiths, Miss Grace Van Vactor and Miss Edith Thorley, sang several selections. Mrs. Jackson and Miss Virginia Crawford rendered some excellent piano duets.

The officers of the Association desire to thank all those who attended the party and those who assisted in the entertainment.

Portal In South Wall of Palace of Education, Panama-Pacific Exposition, San Francisco, 1915

Copyright, 1914, by Panama-Pacific International Exposition Co.

THE doorway shown is one of the lesser portals of this palace and overlooks the South Gardens and the southern end of the Fine Arts Lagoon. In influence the portal is early Italian renaissance. The twisted fluted Roman columns have been given an eastern flavor by the application of contrasting colors in alternation, applied under the direction of Jules Guerin, director of color of the Exposition. The portal is over thirty feet in height. The outer wall of the palace is sixty-five feet high.
