JAKE DEXTRA ASSAULTED YESTERDAY AT HIS HOME

Yesterday Sheriff Evans got an urgent call to proceed at once and without delay to the Robert Dextra ranch east of town. On arriving there he found Robert's son, Jake, suffering from a knife wound on the left side in the abdomen. A man by the name of Davis, who had entered a team in this city with another man by the name of Stanley and had appeared at the Dextra ranch shortly after dinner, was accused of having done the deed. Davis was brought back to Heppner last night and placed in jail. He claims that he did not stab Jake, but that he cut himself with a piece of wire.

Dr. Culbertson dressed the wound which appears to have been made with a sharp instrument and which is about one and one-half inches in length. At the present time Jake is getting along all right and it is thought that nothing serious will result. Sheriff Evans left for the ranch again this morning for other particulars and see if they can find the instrument by which the deed was committed, which as yet they have been unable to find.

LEXINGTON ITEMS

Mrs. Jess Foster left Tuesday morning to join her husband, who has acquired an interest in a grocery business in Portland.

Howard Slade, accompanied by his rother, Wilbur, returned Sunday from a visit with his parents in Idaho.

Mrs. G. Nordyke left Wednesday morning for Seattle, where she will spend the holidays with relatives.

Frank and Jeff Evans, of Blackhorse started in reseeded just before the present cold spell set in. They expect to reseed all of their fall sowing, as a large percentage of it rotted in the ground. They say they would rather risk getting a full crop by seeding again than perhaps half a crop by letting it go as it is.

V. E. Way, a former resident of Lexington, was in town several days this week, looking over some farm land north of town. Mr. Way traded a farm near here for a farm in the Willamette Valley last winter, and now is looking around with a view of trading that for a farm in Morrow County. He says one year in the Valley convinced him that this section of the country is hard to beat; also that there is more money in circulation around here than in his section of the Valley.

Leach Bros. now have the heating plant installed in the new section which was built to connect their main store building with the hall, which was recently purchased by them. The furnace will heat the entire store and the hall, and is a decided improvement. A full concrete basement was constructed under then ew section and they will now be able to keep canned goods and vegetables from freezing. The hall has been newly painted inside and out, which adds much to its appearance.

Joe Burgoyne's new machinery and implement building is well under way, being erected by Geo. Bradley and his force of carpenters. The building is 33 by 90 feet and will be filled with a full line of farming machinery.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

There are some Xmas goods on Gilliam and Bisbee's snap table that are really snaps. Foolish people will sell goods that way, but they will do it.

Mrs. Bell Bucknam left Wednesday for her home in Baker, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Lucinda Elder, who will visit with her daughter's family indefinitely.

The grade students of the Heppner school are going to give an entertainment for the starving Belgians next week.

You will find china and crockery ware at your own price on Gilliam and Bisbee's snap table.

Vern Brambaugh and family of Shaniko, are in the city, the guests of Mrs. Brambaugh's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave McAtee.

That stove window at Gilliam and Bisbee's is out of the ordinary; something funny there, stop and see it. Also see their clock window, it shows you the time all over the world.

J. F. Ward came up from Portland to look after business here the first of the week. Mr. Ward is well known as he formerly lived in Hardman.

To show us that he appreciated good service in the shape of an up-to-date county paper, Mr. John C. McIntyre, the well known sheep man, north of Lexington, stopped us on the street Wednesday and handed us a check for $5. "No I don't want any change, you just send me the paper and we will call it square for a while," he said.

Stop and look at Gilliam and Bisbee's store window. If there are no Guinea Pigs there is something else that might surprise you.

D. H. Kinley dropped in our office yesterday for a general look around. Mr. Kinley was formerly the owner of the Hermiston creamery but is now located in Portland. We noted on his card the following list of products in which they deal: Butter, eggs, cheese and buttermilk. "And we are getting ready for a good business in the latter," he added.

If you don't know what is in Gilliam and Bisbee's store window it is in your interest to stop and see. You ought to know.

Calvin Bell, a young man living over near Butter Creek, died last Wednesday. He has been suffering with consumption for some time. He was well known all over the Butter Creek country as a good horseman.

Miss Leona Newton, who has been teaching the 5th grade in the Heppner school was called to her home in Monogo, N. D., the first of this week on account of the serious illness of her father. Miss Newton will be greatly missed, not only in the school but also in the community, as she was universally well liked and had a kindly and generous nature. Mrs. C. W. Shurte has been secured to fill this vacancy and is a valuable acquisition by the school, as she is exceptionally well qualified.

High School Wins Two Games

There were two basket ball games in the Commercial Club building on Monday night. The town boys played the High School boys and the latter won by a score of 14 to 6. The High School girls played the Grammar School girls and the former won by a score of 10 to 6. For the High School Lera Githens, Oma Bennett, Loa Briggs, Neva Hayes, Daisy Barlow and Helen Aiken composed the team. Helen Aiken got three baskets and Neva Hayes got two. Loye and Cecil Devore, Gladys Wattenberger, Nellie Thompson, Lorraine Grosven and Alma Akers represented the Grammar School. Lorraine Grosven made all the points for the Grammar School and is one of the best players in the entire school. Several towns have written here for games and some will probably be played soon.

These People Start life Right

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sparks started their married life with the proper spirit when they held "open house" at the Star last night. It has been well said that a young man certainly feels generous, if he ever does, just after he gets married. Be that as it may, when the doors opened at 7:15 there were enough on hand to fill every seat and many stood outside and waited for the second show, which was as large in numbers as the first. During the second show the bride and groom appeared, having just arrived from The Dalles in a new Studebaker car. Some of them are peaceable members of the community might have thought that a band of hostile Germans had invaded the city, for hen the newly-weds appeared inside the theatre there was considerable reaching under the seats and from them came every conceivable kind of musical instruments one could imagine. Some were slightly off-key but in the general harmony which followed, volume was the predominant characteristic. The couple are already in their new home just south of the Commercial Club building which has been elegantly furnished.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to our many friends who were so kind and willing to help through the sickness and death of our wife and mother.

J. S. Young and children.
The "Summer Colony" has been moved to the County Court building and we have noticed Bill Ayers and his crew of assistants putting in new furnishings for his growing list of patrons.

To the public: There have been many inquiries concerning our annual New Year's dance and entertainment and for the benefit of our friends we wish to say that there will be no entertainment of this nature this year.
