

APPLES

Still a Few Boxes Left

While they last we will sell

RUSSETTS --- C Grade at

$1.00 per box

BLACK TWIGS --- Fancy at

$1.25 per box

Phelps Grocery Co.

MORROW COUNTY CREAMERY CO.

John H. Bush, Manager

We want all the cream which can be produced by the farmers of Morrow County, paying top market price. Buy cows and we will help you lift the mortgage. Re-organized and in strong shape to produce the best results possible for the farmer who maintains a small dairy herd.

CHAS. THOMPSON, President
FRANK WINNARD, Vice-President
JOHN VAUGHN, Secretary & Treasurer

Conservative Borrowers

will find it to their advantage to place their applications for loans with this bank.

We have always endeavored to take good care of merchants, stockmen and wheat-growers, in times of stress as well as abundance; our steady growth, under conservative management, with ample capital, is proof of conscientious fulfillment of all reasonable demands made upon us by our friends.

Resources:
Over One Million Dollars

The First National Bank
HEPPNER, OREGON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Ralph Bengel, of Walla Walla, was a business visitor here Monday.

Frank Roberts returned Sunday from a business trip to Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cummins, of Cecil, were Heppner visitors Tuesday.

H. J. Biddle, well known Rhea creek farmer, was in Heppner, Saturday.

William A. Kupers was down from Pendleton during the week on business.

E. C. Stoneman, of near Harlan, was a business visitor in Heppner, Tuesday.

B. L. Doherty, of Blackhorse, was in Heppner for a few days during the week.

Hulless, beardless seed barley for sale. B. F. Swaggart, Lexington, Ore.—46tf.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Healey, of Butter Creek, were Heppner visitors on St. Patrick's Day.

Fred Brown, national bank examiner, of Boise, Idaho, was in the city Monday on official business.

Mrs. Jim Carty and children, of Lexington, attended the St. Patrick's exercises in this city last week.

B. F. Swaggart, pioneer farmer and stockman of the Lexington district, was a business visitor in Heppner, Monday.

E. J. Clough, lumber dealer, formerly of Arlington and Condon, now living in Portland, was here on business Wednesday.

James Johns, Sr., manager of the Hartman Abstract Company, of Pendleton, was in Heppner during the week on business.

E. F. Day, a former well known resident of this county, now living in Portland, was in Heppner during the week on business.

Mrs. J. S. Taylor, of Heppner Junction, was a visitor in Heppner Saturday evening, attending the dance at the Fair pavilion.

John Kilkenny, accompanied by his wife and daughter, spent several days in the city during the week, guests at the Palace hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom O'Brien, of Butter creek, were Heppner visitors for a few days last week, enjoying the observance of St. Patrick's Day.

J. E. Berwick, who underwent an operation recently in a Portland hospital for mastoid disease, is reported improving and now out of danger.

FOR SALE — Twelve good work mules; also some good work horses. See these animals at my place. GUY BOYER, Heppner, Ore.—46tf.

Dan Smythe, prominent Pendleton attorney, spent several days in Heppner and vicinity this week looking after his business interests.

W. F. Lieullen, of Portland, was a Sunday arrival in Heppner, combining business with a visit with relatives of the same name in this county.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Case returned a few days ago from Ashland, Ore., where they were called two weeks previously by the death of Mrs. Case's sister, Mrs. Tilden.

J. W. Dyer, former mayor of Pendleton, was a week-end visitor in Heppner, returning to his home Monday morning. While here Mr. Dyer enjoyed a portion of the St. Patrick's Day festivities.

LOST—On Main street, Heppner, Thursday, March 22, small leather purse containing more than $20 in cash besides Rebekah lodge receipt and other papers. Suitable reward. Return to Mrs. Ella C. Fell, or leave at post-office.

Dr. Turner, the well known eye specialist of Portland, will be in Heppner again Saturday, March 24th at the Palace Hotel. In lone Friday, March 23rd. Headaches relieved, cross eyes straightened, satisfaction guaranteed. Consult him. Don't forget the date. 45-46

Walter E. Cochran, affable and able publisher of the lone Independent, was in Heppner last Saturday evening attending the St. Patrick's Day ball. While in Heppner, Mr. Cochran was a caller at the Herald office, where the usual print shop experiences were exchanged during a pleasant half hour. Mr. Cochran gives the people of his town a good newspaper service.

WAISTS! WAISTS!

JUST RECEIVED -- A shipment of new Spring Waists. Very stylish and made of the newest material--Lawns, Novelty Voiles and Tub Silks. Some are made with the popular Shawl collar, and others are beautifully trimmed with Lace and Embroideries.

All Styles! All Colors! All Prices!
All Sizes! Come and See Them!

How about that Silk Petticoat for the new Easter Suit?

We have a complete line of Silk Taffeta Underskirts, changeable and solid colors.

Better have one, hadn't you?

MINOR & COMPANY

Dry Goods Department

Muslins, Gingham,
Table Linens, Towelings,
Cotton Flannels,
Hosiery, Notions.

HOLEPROOF HOSIERY: No time limit for having these goods replaced if unsatisfactory.

SAM HUGHES CO.
HEPPNER : : : OREGON.

Bring in Your Old Ford

and we will convert into a one-ton truck for $350

You retain all parts and equipment taken from the car in making the change.

E. H. Kellogg County agent for HENDRICKS TRUCK ATTACHMENT

Sheepman Still Cheerful
George Perry, Rock Creek sheepman, was in Heppner, Tuesday. Mr. Perry did not sell his band of sheep at the price of $18 per head, as he rather expected to do when last in Heppner, and he now says he is mighty glad he didn't. He figures now that they are worth to him around $21, considering the prices being offered for spring lambs and wool. The prospect of $21 sheep does not seem to worry George. He is the same cheerful optimist he used to be when he 'bot 'em for $1 a head and then sold 'em for more."

A GOOD POSITION
Can be had by an ambitious young man or young lady in the field of railway or commercial telegraphy. Since the passage of the eight hour law by Congress, it has created a big demand for telegraph operators. Positions paying from $75 to $80 per month, with many chances for advancement. It will pay you to write Railway Telegraphy Institute of Portland, Oregon, for full particulars.—46-49.

The Herald is now prepared to handle all your commercial printing. Give us a trial order.

Railway Strike Settled
The nation-wide railroad strike which has threatened for almost a year was settled last Sunday when the managers finally yielded.

Fire Destroys Farm Home

The farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Madison, near Harlan, was totally destroyed by fire Thursday of last week, together with its entire contents. Besides the loss of the building and household effects, some $406 in greenbacks was also destroyed. A considerable portion of the money belonged to their son, Harley Madison. Nine valuable guns were also among the property lost. The entire loss is placed at about $1200.

The fire originated from a spark from the stovepipe which settled on the roof, and the building was enveloped in flames when Mr. Madison discovered it, and no time was given in which to save anything. There was no insurance.