REAL ESTATE

I expect a number of land buyers here. If you want to sell your farm or ranch, list it with me.

Roy V. Whiteis Heppner, Ore.

WHEN we consider that 61 per cent of the whole population of this Country lives in cities, we can understand the need of an increase in food products, which come chiefly from the farms. It is an urgent call. It is a call upon the patriotism of every farmer, farm hand and land owner. Every acre should produce its quota of food products. The time to plan for this result is at hand. No delay can be allowed. Plant big acreage. Plan for a big yield. Work for a bumper crop. Prices will be good. The Country's need is the farmer's opportunity.

OUR COUNTRY CALLS. EVERY FARMER SHOULD RESPOND

sheepman, accompanied by Mrs.
Higgins, was in town Tuesday.

Not gone or going but here to stay. Permanently located at Heppner, Oregon. Dr. D. R.
Haylor, eye specialist. 48tf

Mrs. Robert Anderson, of South Springs, died last Sunday evening. The funeral was held at Lexington Tuesday.

Creston Maddock and Elra Hayes visited Arlington Monday.
Creston's father, who has been on the sick list there for some time, is much improved.

E. G. Haverstick, who bought the James Adkins ranch on Rhea creek was in Heppner Tuesday.
Mr. Haverstick came to this county from Bellingham, Washington.

Dave and Jack Hynd, prominent sheepman of the Cecil district, were in Heppner on business Monday.

Choice Early Vermont seed potatoes for sale at Phelps Grocery Company. 1tf

Pat Cornell, sheepman, was a caller Monday. Mr. Cornell expects to spend the summer at Hilgard with his flocks where the Herald will keep him posted on home news.

Now is the time to get a new Spring Bonnet. Every one reduced in price at Mrs. F.
Laper's. 1d3

A report is current in Heppner that Miss Jessie Vickers, who is well known here took her own life at her home in Enterprise, Oregon, a few days ago.
The Vickers family moved from this city to Enterprise a few months.

Mrs. Low, postmistress of Cecil, spent a few days in Heppner during the week the guest of Mrs. Barrett.

The Herald is informed that Prof. Pehr and his able corps of assistance have been retained for another year at Hardman which speaks well for their past work.

Hugh Neil is in the east buying a car load of fine bulls for W. O. Minor and will arrive in Heppner with the stock sometime next week. Watch for advertisement next week.

Dr. Van Waters will be unable to reach Heppner to hold regular services at the Episcopal church next Sunday but will be here at the regular hours Sunday, May 20th.

The Quaker Show at the opera house this week is not only drawing big houses but is putting on a first-class entertainment. Their vaudeville and specialty stunts are above the average and the bill for tomorrow evening, "Married in the Dark," is said to be their best feature. The Quaker people are no "cheap skates" as is evidenced by the large number of valuable presents given away every evening in the course of their medicine advertising campaign. They will leave Heppner for the interior Sunday morning.

Dandelion beer is said to be gaining in favor as an afternoon tea beverage. It is said to have a rather lady like "kick" and a bitterness like the real thing.

WHY NOT A SPORT SUIT?

We have the materials for making them.
Come in and examine it.

Stripes, Polka Dots and Fancy Figures in a good assortment of colors.

Sport Suits are all the Vogue Just Now and who wants to be behind the times?

Certainly none of our Heppner ladies, so we are ready to serve them in their wants.

We also have the Sport Hat to match your Suit. Don't forget to ask about them.

FOR THE YOUNG GIRLS.

And the young girls—They were not forgotten in this new creation.
We can please them with many beautiful things suited to their needs.
Come in girls and look at our new ribbons. We have just what you want.
