

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Tom Deen was in from Hardman Sunday.

Norman Florence, of upper Willow creek, was in the city yesterday on business.

Ross Langdon, employed in the Forest service, was in Heppner yesterday.

Walter Crosby was down from his Willow creek home yesterday.

County Judge Patterson and County Commissioner Currin visited the famous "banana belt" section Wednesday looking over county roads.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Swank, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Veghte and H. Holbrook, were Morgan visitors in Heppner Saturday and Sunday. They were called here as witnesses in the coroner's inquest into the death of U. S. Hanson.

W. B. Tucker and wife, of Sand hollow, were in Heppner Sunday.

W. E. (Billy) O'Rourke, well known young man of Heppner, who has been in the hospital for several weeks suffering from rheumatism is able to be on the streets again.

Tom Ross, Echo wool buyer, was in the city Saturday.

Oscar Borg, Ben Patterson, H. H. Hoffman and Jim Wilson motored to Condon Sunday to try conclusions with the Condon Gun club at the traps. Needles to say the Heppner delegation upheld the honor of their town and club in good shape.

NOTICE—During my absence in the east my practice will be looked after by Dr. H. T. Allison, Dr. N. E. Winnard. 31f.

O. M. Whittington, accompanied by Mrs. Whittington, were in from their ranch home Friday.

The story recently in circulation that Miss Jessie Vickers had committed suicide at Enterprize, Oregon, seems to have been without foundation. C. J. Thornton informs the Herald that he recently received a letter from Miss Vickers written from Kansas where she is living with her family.

WANTED—By man and wife, job through harvest, woman as cook, man as combine driver, or would consider steady job the year around. Capable of taking full charge of wheat ranch having had 20 years experience on same. References if desired. Call this office. 3d4

H. Roland, a Condon garage man, was in the city Saturday.

H. E. Dodson, a railroad man of Ione, was in town Saturday.

Not gone or going but here to stay. Permanently located at Heppner, Oregon. Dr. D. R. Haylor, eye specialist. 48tf.

T. J. Mahoney was in the city yesterday from Portland looking after business affairs.

FOR SALE—Twelve good work mules; also some good work horses. See these animals at my place. GUY BOYER, Heppner, Ore.—46tf.

F. P. Nutting, formerly publisher of the Albany Democrat and one of the best known newspaper men in the Willamette valley, was in Heppner over Sunday on business. Mr. Nutting is now employed in the U. S. revenue service.

Sam E. Van Vactor and family and Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Spencer enjoyed a motor trip to Condon last Sunday. They report the roads in fine condition. The only complaint filed by Mr. Van Vactor is that he found rather more roads on the trip than he really needed.

Now is the time to get a new Spring Bonnet. Every one reduced in price at Mrs. F. Luper's. 1d3

W. P. Scrivner has sold a three-bottom Rumely Oil Pull tractor to Theodore Anderson, of Eightmile.

BELGIAN RELIEF FUNDS—Should be left with W. O. Hill at the Heppner Loan & Savings Bank who will receive and account for the same. 31f

Dr. N. E. Winnard left for the east Tuesday evening for an indefinite stay during which he will visit the famous Mayo hospitals at Rochester, Minnesota, where he will take a special course in advanced surgery. He will also visit other hospitals during his trip and expects to acquire many valuable ideas along the most advanced lines of his profession. Dr. Winnard will be accompanied on the trip by Dr. Chick, of Ione, who goes on a similar mission.

Honor Pupils Burton Valley

Following is a list of "Honor Pupils," those neither absent nor tardy during the past month at Burton Valley school:

- Alice McDaniel, Dollie, Elmer, Earl, Iris Musgrave, Alvin McCarty, Thomas McCarty, Madge Osborn, Sidney Osborn, Helen Osborn, Victor Johnson, Marion Hayden, Elwood Hastings, Anna Heiny.

Crops Looking Fine

Farmers report crops looking fine all over the county. The recent fine rains keep the ground well supplied with moisture and the indications now are good for another excellent crop.

Rains are somewhat delaying shearing operations but the fleeces are said to be of extra quality and weight.

S. P. Garrigus Passes

S. P. Garrigus, a former resident of Heppner and a heavy property owner here, dropped dead on the street in Portland yesterday morning according to advices received here at noon. He leaves a widow and one son, Percy Garrigus, both of whom reside in Portland.

Real Estate Transactions

An important real estate deal was closed Monday whereby Dan Hanshaw, a well known farmer of the Blackhorse district, sold his fine 480-acre wheat farm to Edgar Stevens, of Portland, the consideration being $21,000. The deal included stock, implements and crops.

R. M. Morrison, who has been farming in the Willamette valley for several years will operate the property. He is already on the ground and in charge of the farming operations.

Mr. Hanshaw expects to locate on a small farm in the Willamette valley but before doing so he expects to spend some time visiting his old home in the east.

Mr. Morrison is a progressive farmer and will no doubt prove a successful farmer and valuable citizen.
