

PROTECTION FOR FUNDS

SECURITY for money deposited here at the Farmers & Stockgrowers National Bank is threefold: Government Laws and Regulations, Modern Time-locked Fire and Burglar Proof Vaults and Conservative Management. You will find all three features of importance.

May we suggest that you call and get acquainted with our Directors and Officers?

MEMBER OF FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

THE FARMERS AND STOCKGROWERS NATIONAL BANK
HEPPNER, OREGON

H. F. TASH

A. S. Akers

TASH & AKERS

Successors to Vaughn & Sons
GENERAL HARDWARE MERCHANTS

Our stock of Shelf Hardware, Tools, Builders' Hardware, etc., is full and complete and we respectfully solicit your inspection and patronage. We believe we can give you satisfaction both as to quality and prices.

PLUMBING DEPARTMENT

We are installing a new Plumbing Department and have secured the services of a master plumber as manager. All work in this line will receive careful attention and will be executed in the most approved manner.

A share of your patronage is respectfully solicited.

TASH & AKERS

HEPPNER

OREGON

Archie McKinsie was a Monument visitor in Heppner Monday.

Marshall Phelps has gone to San Francisco where he expects to enlist in some branch of the military service preferably the aviation corps or the navy.

Amos Missildine has sold his residence property to William Campbell who will take immediate possession. Mr. Missildine expects to spend the winter on the coast.

Postmaster Richardson has received notice that the Heppner postoffice has been made central distributing office for Morrow county. Hereafter all stamps and supplies for every postoffice in the county will be handled through the Heppner office. The honor is not exactly an empty one as it entails a lot of extra work for the Heppner office force without any increase in salary or clerk hire.

Born—Saturday, September 22, 1917, to Mr. and Mrs. Ed E. Adkins, of this city, a fine daughter.

Marion Scrivner, of Echo, was here during the week attending the funeral of his brother, W. P. Scrivner.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Putnam, of Fossil, were here a few days during the week being called here by the death of their brother-in-law, W. P. Scrivner.

Anthony H. Greif, of Uniontown, Washington, was here this week looking after business matters and visiting his former schoolmate, Francis A. McMennamin.

Married—Mr. Chas. W. Acock and Miss Luella M. Stamp, were married at the Federated church parsonage, Tuesday, September 25, 1917, Rev. H. A. Noyes, performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Acock will reside in Sand Hollow where he is engaged in farming.

BANK APPEALS TO SMALL DEPOSITORS

WHILE this Bank transacts a general banking business and enjoys the patronage of large depositors, it appeals to people who wish to make smaller deposits on personal or family accounts. This Bank accepts deposits in any amount and serves the small depositor with the same courtesy as it extends to larger depositors. New accounts are cordially invited, in small as well as large amounts, and every depositor is assured the greatest security for money and every attention and service.

Personal and Home Checking Accounts

4 per cent Paid on Your Savings Account

The First National Bank

HEPPNER, OREGON

LEXINGTON ITEMS

Chas. O. Klum is on the sick list.

Mrs. Frank Magers is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Connors.

J. V. Saxe has gone to Fraser, Idaho, to visit his son for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Sarah Snyder, of Pendleton, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ora Wilkins.

Mrs. E. J. Evans is enjoying a visit from her mother of near Spokane, Washington.

All who attended the Round-up from Lexington reported having had an excellent time.

Gus, McMillan is still away doctoring at the Shipard Springs at Carson, Washington.

Mrs. Eli Mulloy was taken quite ill at her home near Lexington, which necessitated the calling of Dr. Chick.

Joe Sibley and wife and family have returned after a three weeks' visit at Drain, Or., and other valley points.

R. F. Weigle, former Tam A Lum manager at Lexington and now living at Portland, paid Lexington friends a brief call.

Mrs. Minnie Leach, Karl Beach and W. G. Scott, all went to Portland Sunday on a business trip, returning on Tuesday.

A business deal was completed this last week whereby Lawrence Reaney sold out his stock and household goods to Park Carmichael. Mr. Reaney will move to Heppner to make his future home.

Alex. Thompson, whose wife is now one of our Oregon Representatives from Hood River, was in town Wednesday. Mr. Thompson is salesman for the Fleischmayer Co., of Portland, and is well known and well liked in Lexington.

Mr. Robinson and Mr. Howland stopped in Lexington lately from Portland. They were in a new model 1918 Ford tourist car. This car has several new changes from the 1917 model and help to make the Ford look and act more like the big cars.

Miss Hulda Tucker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tucker, of Black Horse, went to Salem to attend the State Fair, where she has some nice work on exhibition. While in the capitol city she will be the guest of her grandpa, T. M. Scott.

Mrs. Mary Lentsford had an accident whereby she injured herself so badly about the body that she was forced to remain in bed for a day. At present she is able to walk by holding on to the chair. Her sister, Miss Edith Reaney, is staying with her for few days.

Most of Lexington's people were overcome with astonishment when the "Oregon Limited" pulled into the station on time. As it was about the second time the train has arrived on time since the wreck, you can understand their complete amazement. Let the good work continue.

Mrs. Nellie Palmer had quite an accident when she went to round up some horses Tuesday morning. The horse she was riding suddenly shied throwing her to the ground breaking her left arm just above the elbow. Dr. Chick was immediately called to set the broken bone. Mrs. Palmer certainly has our sympathy.

Mike Roberts is laying a fine hardwood floor in his building and making other improvements getting it ready for the Humphreys Drug Store, which will soon move to that excellent location.

Henry Cohn, who was one of the party of Heppnerites who visited Kansas City recently, returned Wednesday evening having stopped off at Boise, Idaho, for a few days to visit friends. Henry is well pleased with his trip and thinks Boise valley and city, beats 'em all.

YOU SHOULD CALL

and inspect these two new arrivals

REFLECT THE MODE OF THE HOUR

When planning your fall wardrobe assure success by starting with stylish corsets. Study the exhibit of smart new Royal Worcester styles. Make it a point to visit our corset section and see the charming new Royal Worcester style. Price $1 to $3

RECREATION SET

The very latest novelty for summer wear. Stunningly designed and handsomely tailored, equally attractive for outdoor wear or indoor use. They will launder beautifully and nothing so smart in appearance or clever in design has been offered before.

Don't forget to have a look at our new fall goods, wools and silks in all the fancy and plain colors.

New line of fall coats, "CLASSIC COATS", their merit is known to most everyone. Moderately priced.

Minor & Company

"Dry Goods Department"

HARDMAN HAPPENINGS

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Stephens made a flying trip to the county seat Monday.

Mrs. Hannah Dean and Mrs. W. W. Brannon visited at the home of Mrs. A. E. Wright Tuesday.

Mrs. Goldie McDaniel and children, of Rock Creek, visited in the city Tuesday with her sister, Miss Ethel Sailing.

Born—On Thursday, September 20, to Mr. and Mrs. James Hams, a 11-pound boy. Mother and son doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stevens accompanied by Mrs. Cora Walker and children, Miss Lavilla and Eslie, motored to Heppner Monday.

The late rains have put the ground in fairly good condition for fall work, and quite a number have begun their fall seeding.

A fine girl was born Saturday, September 22, to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ashbaugh, of Rood Canyon. Mrs. Ashbaugh is with her mother, Mrs. Henry Neal, who resides at Lone Rock.

Among the Round-up visitors from Hardman were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Sailing and son Archie, Miss Naomi Wyland and Miss Vivian Leathers. The party went overland in Mr. Sailing's new Buick Six.

Roy and Clair Ashbaugh, of Rood Canyon, have purchased the general merchandise stock owned by Albert Emery. We have not learned the consideration. Henceforth the firm will be known as "Ashbaugh Bros."

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Severance and daughter, Miss Sylvia, left Tuesday, the 25th, for Banks, where they have purchased a fine home. They have leased their mountain home to Glen Farrens. We regret very much to lose them but wish them success in their new home.

Geo. Burnside, of Rood Canyon, with his son Kenneth, who

HARDMAN GARAGE

BLEAKMAN & RAU, Props.

Courteous and Efficient Service by Courteous and Competent Workmen
Accessories, Supplies, Expert Vulcanizers
Guaranteed Tire Service

HARDMAN, OREGON

met with an accident last week while playing with a dynamite cap, returned from Portland Monday, where he had taken the little fellow to receive the attention of a specialist. It was found necessary to remove the eye. At the present time the boy is getting along nicely and will soon be able to start to school.

Mrs. J. A. Adams returned Tuesday, the 18th, from Corvallis, where she has been spending a few weeks with her daughter, Etta, who is attending the O. A. C. Miss Adams was formerly a teacher in Hardman. She was met in Portland by Mr. Adams and son Floyd, who had gone down with a car load of cattle for the Portland markets. J. A. says he is mighty glad to welcome her back again if he did have to meet her half way. As goodies were all eaten up, they were needing a cook pretty bad.

Mrs. Edward Curran, of Portland, came out Saturday accompanying her mother, Mrs. Meek, who has been visiting in Portland for some time. Mrs. Curran is sister of Mrs. W. P. Scrivner.

Spencer Crawford, one of the Gazette-Times force, is in Portland this week having a troublesome ankle repaired. E. M. Shutt, veteran printer and newspaper man, is taking his place for a few days.

C. R. Price and C. Bellinbroke were in from Monument Tuesday.

H. A. Connors, Portland paper salesman, was in Heppner Wednesday evening.

George Perry was in town again Wednesday from Rock Creek kicking about the Round-up being over. George says if they will make the show a continuous performance he will go to Pendleton to live.

Harvey Bauman, well known Lexington young man, who was among the 16 draftees who left Heppner last week for American Lake, writes to have his copy of the Herald sent to that address. "Must have the Morrow county news", says Harvey.

W. S. McKimney left Wednesday morning for Salem, where he recently bought a small tract at the edge of the city for a home. He has been here looking after the harvesting of his wheat crop. He expects to take a trip east soon visiting his old home at Terre Haute, Indiana, and will also visit at Buffalo, New York.

HOUSE AND LOT FOR SALE
Cheap. C. S. Jayne, Heppner, Oregon. 15tf.

WOOD AND COAL—See me about cash prizes for your winter fuel. It will pay you. Ed Breslib. 17tf.