MORROW MAKES GOOD ON 2ND LIBERTY LOAN

The second Liberty Loan campaign came to a close at midnight Saturday with a total of $162,000 subscribed in the county. The county's quota, as fixed by the state committee was $140,000.

Morrow always makes good, ultimately. She may be a little lazy about going against a cold collar in the morning but towards the finish she lugs like a wheel-horse and sprints like a "goin' hound."

Further activities of the soliciting committees in the country districts were made impossible Saturday by the severe storm, the billows of dust rolling so high and fierce that no "boat," neither Ford nor super-six could safely ride the waves. The campaign was not allowed to lag in town, however, and more than $60,000 was added to your Uncle Samuel's war chest during the day.

Bishop Paddock came all the way from Portland to help Heppner in her final fling. He made a whirlwind speech at the city hall at 8:00 o'clock and at 9:30 went over to the opera house where a minstrel show was in progress and spoke between acts while the solicitors went after the mazzama. The combination worked like a charm. The bishop is a forceful speaker, chock full of patriotic fervor, which he well knows how to transmit to his audience. The campaign closed with a rush that showed exactly what bunch-grassers can do and will do and do when they once "tie in," on any proposition.

The quotas fixed in these drives are based on the bank deposits in each county and in this Morrow county experiences quite a handicap in showing a high percentage of her quota for the reason that Heppner banks carry heavy deposits for customers in Grant, Wheeler, Gilliam and Umatilla counties while our soliciting committees remained within the boundaries of Morrow while seeking subscriptions to the loan.

W. P. Mahoney, S. W. Spencer and C. E. Woodson, committee in charge of the drive, seek no credit for the splendid success of the campaign but prefer to give that to the field workers who scoured the county for subscriptions. Among these workers were many ladies who rendered valiant service. To all these the committee wishes to express its thanks and appreciation.

Practical Patriotism

Those who have signed pledges to conserve food are demonstrating practical patriotism. Saving food and the substitution of perishable foods for staples means much. School children are securing pledges and are scoring 100 per cent. in many districts. If you haven't received a card notify Com. by phone. Unused cards should be returned to S. E. Notson. Committee needs them.

Says Soldiers Fine Body of Men

Frank Roberts returned from a visit with his family in Portland Tuesday. While at Portland Mr. Roberts went over to Vancouver to visit his nephew, Ray Rogers, well known and popular Heppner boy who is now a member of the 14th Infantry U. S. A. He found Ray hearty and happy and taking to army life and intensive training like a veteran.

The boys are getting plenty of training and are fast becoming hard as nails and ready for any kind of service that may be required of them. The company to which Ray is attached, Mr. Roberts says, is as fine a body of young men as could be found anywhere all being physically fit, intelligent, high class,—just such fellows as would make even a bevy of Heppner girls look twice and smile sweetly.

Return From Successful Hunt

Willard Herren and Dr. McMurdo returned Tuesday evening from a successful hunting trip to the mountains. They brought back two fine, fat bucks and are pretty well pleased with their trip. Mr. Herren, who is an old time hunter and mountaineer, says does and fawns are very plentiful this fall but he has never known buck deer to be so scarce. He thinks that unless the game laws are changed to allow the killing of does and a measure of protection given the males that deer hunting will in a few years be a thing of the past in Oregon. Many fallow does, without fawns are to be seen this fall, Mr. Herren says.

John Lawrence registered at the Palace Sunday from Monument.

The County Sunday School convention will be held at Lone, Nov. 14-15. All Sunday Schools are urged to send delegates and also to send reports of their successes, their failures and their needs.

JOHN WIGHTMAN IS GORED BY VICIOUS BULL

John Wightman, of the Alfalfa-Lawn Dairy, was attacked by a Jersey bull late yesterday and seriously injured. His thigh was gored and torn, his face and head cut and bruised and his spine injured. His life was no doubt saved by his brother who came to his rescue, caught the infuriated animal by the horns, and by kicking the brute on the nose pluckily forced him to break away from the unequal combat. Dr. Winward attended the injured man and reports that while the injuries are serious he expects the patient to recover.

Happy Hallowe'en Party

A gladsome crowd of children filled with song and laughter the home of Father O'Rourke last Wednesday evening for Miss Peggy O'Rourke was giving a Hallowe'en party to the Catechism class. Games sanctioned by long usage for Hallowe'en time were played and the amusement of the onlookers at the mistakes and miscalculations of the contestants was intense. After the games were played and the wee ones filled to satiety and clutching tightly the little souvenirs of the evening had departed the older ones whiled away still more hours in dancing.

Y. M. C. A. ASKS AID FOR BOYS IN TRENCHES

One of the most meritorious causes for which aid for American soldier boys is being solicited is that of the National War Work Council of the Y. M. C. A. of the United States.

The work for which funds are being solicited is world-wide in scope and will be carried to every spot on earth where American boys are wearing the khaki-colored uniform of the United States of America.

The great work before this organization includes looking after the physical, moral, social, educational and religious welfare of the one million American lads who are being called away from home ties and home influences and massed in training camps at home and in the trenches and on shipboard abroad. "Keeping the Home Ties from Breaking," is a slogan of these tireless workers.

A fund of $35,000,000.00 is required for the successful prosecution of this great work and an eight-day campaign, November 11 to 18 inclusive, has been planned during which this stupendous sum is to be raised by popular subscription. Morrow county's quota of this sum is $3000.00.

At a meeting held at the Palace hotel Sunday afternoon a committee was selected to have charge of this drive and, judging from the manner in which the county has met all former demands of like nature the sum will no doubt be raised.

W. A. Dillon, camp secretary for the army Y. M. C. A. at Vancouver, Washington, was present at this meeting and after an explanation from him of the nature of the work and the immediate need for funds the following committee was appointed: M. D. Clark, chairman; W. B. Barratt, A. M. Phelps, Sam Hughes, C. E. Woodson, Vawter Crawford, C. A. Minor.

Before the meeting adjourned W. B. Barratt headed the subscription list with $100.00 and W. P. Mahoney, for the First National Bank, pledged a like amount. Other subscriptions will be received by Chairman Clark or any member of the committee at any time. Morrow county people should jump in and raise the full amount of its quota before the drive opens just to show the rest of the state that we know how to do things that need to be done.

Fire Destroys Woodshed

Heppner had a real fire alarm about midnight Tuesday when a lively blaze started in Clint Gilliam's woodshed on Church street. W. T. McRoberts, who lives in the same block, was aroused by the blaze and immediately gave the alarm. The fire boys and hose cart were on the scene in record time and had the flames under control in a few minutes. The shed stood within a few feet of the house but quick action by the hose team and the absence of wind saved the house from damage. The woodshed was totally destroyed but Mr. Gilliam's winter supply of fuel was damaged but slightly. The origin of the fire is unknown.

David C. Davall was in the city from Lexington Tuesday.

Mrs. F. Luper returned from LaGrande where she spent a few days visiting with her son, who is connected with the surveyor general's office.

Red Cross Notes

Don't forget to subscribe to the Christmas Packet fund.

We would like to see all the towns in Morrow county form auxiliaries to the Morrow County Red Cross Chapter.

The Red Cross ladies assisted the Liberty Loan committee last week in selling Liberty Bonds and report very favorable returns.

If any school district or other outlying places, wish to help the Red Cross by giving some form of entertainment for its benefit, such action will be very much appreciated.

Over ninety Christmas packets were prepared by the ladies of the Red Cross last Friday and forwarded to headquarters at Seattle from where they will be sent to the boys in France.

RED CROSS RECEPTION TO SOLDIER BOYS

Red Cross ladies tendered a splendid reception to the last contingent of Morrow county's first draft last evening in the opera house, the building being filled to capacity for the affair.

Mayor Notson presided during the program which included speaking and musical numbers. Prof. H. H. Hoffman delivered a splendid address thrilling his audience with patriotic utterances while recalling historic battlefields on which American soldiers distinguished themselves in the world old fight for freedom and democracy.

Rev. Turner MacDonald made a brilliant address in which he pointed out that it is to the credit of our young men that they were, at first, not anxious to enter the war but that now that we are engaged in the conflict and the real need of winning so apparent, they are going cheerfully and willingly to do their part in the greatest struggle recorded in history.

C. E. Woodson spoke on the National War Work Council of the Y. M. C. A. in which he explained to the departing soldiers the work this organization is doing for them in training camps and on the battlefields, also urging on those of us who remain at home the immediate need of getting behind this work with our money. Mr. Woodson's address was, perhaps, the most practical of the evening. Henry Peterson, class of '17, Heppner high school, one of the soldier boys, responded to the speakers on behalf of his comrades.

Splendid musical numbers were rendered by Miss Peggy O'Rourke, Mr. Roy Cochran and Mr. Guyle Shurte, all of whom received hearty encores, and the exercises closed with the "Star Spangled Banner," directed by Mrs. Noyes.

Following the program punch was served by the ladies and a dancing party was enjoyed for a couple of hours.

A large number of citizens went to the depot this morning to bid the boys God-speed as they entrained for American Lake.

J. W. Johnson III

Word has been received here from Seattle, that J. W. Johnson, well known contractor who built the Farmers Union elevator here last summer besides doing considerable cement construction work in the city has had a complete physical breakdown since returning to Seattle and is in a serious condition in a sanatorium in that city. Mr. Johnson was called home from here several weeks ago by the dangerous illness of his daughter and it is said that overwork and worry over his child's illness brought about the collapse. Mr. Johnson's family was here with him during the summer and made many friends here who will join in regrets for their present misfortune.

Miss Baker arrived from Portland Monday evening to take a position as one of the grade teachers in the public school, taking the place recently vacated by Miss Margaret Vedder. Miss Baker will also act as teacher of music in the high school in which line she is said to be very proficient. It is understood that Miss Vedder will accept a position in a school in the state of Washington.
