LOCAL AND PERSONAL

H. S. Noel was in the city from Condon Sunday.

W. H. Kime, of Caldwell, Idaho, came in Saturday and will spend some time here buying mules. Mr. Kime represents the Caldwell Horse & Mule Co., of Caldwell.

Jake Wattenberger and family, who have resided in Heppner for a number of years, left Wednesday morning for Pendleton where they expect to make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ayers and Mrs. S. W. Spencer are arranging to leave within a few days for southern California where they expect to spend a good portion of the winter.

Mrs. Lester Ingram expects to leave tomorrow morning for Salt Lake City, where she goes to join her husband, who has located there and is in the employ of a big sugar company.

Robert Matteson, pioneer of Heppner and Morrow county, is seriously ill at his home in this city, his ailment being probably due to the inroads of advanced age. Mr. Matteson is 81 years old and his health has been failing for several months.

Married—At the home of Ben Buschke, Sunday afternoon, Oct. 28, N. H. Fehmerling and Anna Buschke, Turner B. MacDonald officiating. A number of friends and relatives were present, and after the ceremony, the company adjourned to the dining room, where they partook of a splendid old-fashioned wedding dinner, such as one seldom sees in the west. The young people will reside near Mr. Buschke's on Rhea Creek.

Gene Noble and John Vaughn are down at Harney lake shooting ducks this week and by way of proving that they are not wasting their ammunition they sent three big boxes of ducks home by express Wednesday to be distributed to their friends in Heppner. Stewart and Stone made the distribution Wednesday evening much to the delight of all recipients. The Herald family can testify that the fowl were fat and fine.

Eugene Matteson, who lives 18 miles south of Heppner in the mountains, while hunting deer a few days ago with Bill McFerrin on the head of Alder creek, unexpectedly ran onto two big bears in a thicket. McFerrin chased the big fellows out into the open and Gene plugged one with a dead shot. The other bruin got away in the thick brush. The men had no way of weighing the bear but say it was a whopper and the meat as fine as any venison. Bear are said to be plentiful in the mountains this season.

WANTED—Position by experienced man and wife on ranch, 26328 Box 218, Lone, Ore.

New Fall Models in Wirthmor Waists

The Standard Dollar
Waists of America

This Blouse is developed of a very pretty fancy striped Voile—a new Fall material. The front center is of plain white Voile solidly tucked, lending a most pleasing effect. The large collar, coming to deep points in front and turn back cuffs are also of plain white Voile. Sleeves are inset with hemstitching. A model that will be much admired.

A simple, appealing model that almost anyone, be they large or small, could wear becomingly. The front is solidly tucked almost to shoulder seams with tucks of alternating widths. The collar is so fashioned that it is equally attractive when worn upstanding or laying down. Collar and turn-back cuffs are outlined with dainty Venice Pico edging. Two very large ocean pearl buttons for fastening. Made of a splendid quality of Voile.

A neat, semi-tailored model, simply and effectively trimmed. The collar is convertible—can be worn high or low. The front is attractively trimmed with pretty embroidery and four full length tucks with short shoulder tucks for fullness. Sleeves are finished with turn-back cut in point effect. Three large ocean pearl buttons for fastening are ornamental as well as useful. A practical, sensible, serviceable Waist.

Somewhat more elaborate than the other three models in this group, and a Blouse that has the appearance and character of a far more costly model. The embroidery covering entire front is particularly pretty and distinctive; while the collar is embroidered all over in matching design. Hemstitching is liberally applied on collar, down front fold, and to inset sleeves, lending added refinement. A Blouse that will find favor everywhere.

We highly recommend them because of their unusual merit—and genuine worth.
