Alva Jones Goes East

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Jones received a letter from their son Alva, who went to the training camp at American Lake with the Morrow county contingent leaving here October 31st, saying that he had been transferred to some point east, his exact destination not being given. Mr. and Mrs. Jones expected to go to American Lake this month to visit their son for a few days but the unexpected transfer prevents that visit being made. Alva being an O. A. C. boy has had considerable military training and it is possible that his speedy transfer to an eastern camp may mean further training in an officers' school.
