

POLICIES AND OPERATION

THE fundamental basis of service at the Farmers & Stockgrowers National Bank consists of both the ability and willingness to helpfully co-operate in the problems of the local Farmers and Stock-raisers. Wherever we can aid legitimate enterprise and development—we shall be found more than glad to do so.

Checking and Savings accounts—both small and large—are invited.

MEMBER OF FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

THE FARMERS AND STOCKGROWERS NATIONAL BANK
HEPPNER, OREGON

When the Chill Wind Blows

You will be reminded that you need a warm

WINTER SUIT

a snug OVERCOAT, or a COMFY MACKINAW.

Call and inspect our stock, leave your order and become one of our satisfied customers.

LOUIS PEARSON
MERCHANT TAILOR
HEPPNER OREGON

MULES WANTED MULES

I will be at the PALACE HOTEL, Heppner, Or., to buy all kinds of MULES, from 4 to 12 years old, from 15 hands high up. Broken or unbroken. Will buy some smaller mules for the south. If you have any for sale, call or write me care the above hotel and I will come out to see them.

W. H. KIME

AUTO CASKET DELIVERY FOR QUICK SERVICE
M.L. CASE FURNITURE CO.

THE WORLD WAR

Has taught us the necessity of Industry, Thrift and Frugality. Make every effort during these trying times to husband your resources and increase your bank account with the

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

We pay 4 per cent on time and savings deposits.

Knights of Columbus Will Gather

A n important meeting of Pendleton Council, K. of C., will be held in that city Sunday, December 9, when a large class of initiates will be received into the order. It is understood that Heppner will send a large delegation over to this gathering.

This popular Catholic order is growing rapidly and every member added means another American behind the war relief work now being carried on on the battlefields of Europe.

School News Notes

By Sibyl Cason

The Ciceronian Literary Society has undertaken the arrangements for a community Thanksgiving Eve Gathering to be held at the school building Wednesday evening, November 28. A short program, representing certain phases of our country's early history appropriate to Thanksgiving time, musical numbers and a Thanksgiving address by Mr. F. A. McMenamin. After the program visitors are invited to remain and inspect the school building. If you have never been thru the building you are especially invited to come and see what a splendid place Heppner provides for its school pupils. Program begins at 8:00 o'clock. No admission will be charged.

The play, "Between the Acts," to be given by students, will be staged sometime in December. It promises to be a big success.

The quota for the Y. M. C. A. campaign asked for from the boys of Heppner High and Hardman schools has been realized. Of the total of $74.00 Hardman gave $11.45.

Church Notices

Catholic Church Services,
First Mass, 8:00 a.m.
Second Mass at Juniper 11:00 a. m.
Evening Devotions 7:30 p. m.
Reverend Father O'Rourke.

The Federated Church

Next Sunday will be Home Mission Day at the Federated Church. In the morning the pastor will speak on "The Work of Marcus Whitman", pioneer missionary to the Indians of Oregon, and we shall have with us a band of Christian Indians, who will take part in the services both morning and evening.

Christian Endeavor 8:30 P. M. Topic: "Thanksgiving", leader, Kathryn Pattison.

Preaching by an Indian minister at 7:30 p. m.

H. A. Noyes, Pastor

Church of Christ.

Sunday morning will preach at lone.

Sunday evening: "The Millennium: What It Is and When We Can Look For It"

Turner B. MacDonald, Minister.

Stray Bucks Picked Up

I have picked up with my band, above Pilot Rock, five (5) head of Lincoln bucks. Owner please come forward, prove property and take them away.—John McNamee, Echo, Oregon. 29d31pd

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

John Kiernan, of near Lexington, was a visitor in Heppner during the week attending the Hibernian festivities and visiting friends.

Dan Hansbaw, former resident of this county, now residing near Hillsboro, was here for a few days during the week on business.

George W. Verdor expects to spend part of the winter at the coast, hoping by the change of climate to get relief from rheumatic trouble.

The Misses Gerlie and Ross Shannon, two charming young ladies of Condon, were members of the delegation from that city Friday evening who attended the Elks' social.

BLANKETS! BLANKETS!!

It is time to think about those good warm blankets for winter. We have a complete line of cotton, wool and woolnap blankets. Make your selections now, as they are going fast.

We have on display some Wool-comfort Batts. These are quilted all ready for the top covering. Why not try one, they are great.

OUR COAT DEPARTMENT

still contains a few good numbers and it will pay you to look them over.

New line of SHIRT WAISTS in this week.

MINOR & CO.

GOOD GOODS

Dry Goods Dept. Heppner, Oregon

THE BRICK

McATEE & AIKEN, Props.

ICE CREAM and CARD PARLORS.

John Dyer, a well known business man of Pendleton, was one of the Pendleton delegation in Heppner Sunday attending the A. O. H. banquet.

J. D. Burns, prominent business man of Condon, was a Heppner visitor last Friday evening and enjoyed an evening's browsing in the Elks' forest.

Arthur Hunt, who resides northwest of town, suffered from a stroke of paralysis last week but at this writing his condition is considerably improved.

A large and enthusiastic school meeting was held in Heppner yesterday when the budget of $11,388 asked for by the board was unanimously approved.

C. P. A. Lonergan, vice president of the Smith-Lonergan Co. of Pendleton, was here Sunday attending the Hibernian meeting during the afternoon and was one of the speakers at the banquet in the evening.

Roy White's reports having closed a deal for the purchase of the L. A. Miller ranch near Lone Rock. The place contains 1280 acres and the deal includes 60 head of cattle. The consideration was $16,000.00.

Charlie Roysse, well known cattleman of the Spray country, was here Tuesday looking for feed for a band of cattle he contemplates purchasing. Mr. Roysse has been in the cattle business at Spray for many years.

R. J. Carner and family were Heppner visitors during the week from their cattle ranch near Spray. Mr. Carner has bought a large amount of hay on Butter creek and is driving his cattle there to be wintered.

Mrs. W. H. Herren went to Hardman Thursday in the interest of the Red Cross work there. Creede Owen, patriotic stageman on that route, loyally furnished free transportation to the Chapter for the trip.

EXTRA FINE CABBAGE for kroun in any quantity at Cummings' Vegetable Market. 29d31

Mrs. W. R. Irwin and daughter, little Miss Betty, have returned from Portland, where they visited for some time after spending the summer at the coast. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin expect to soon occupy apartments in the new bank building.

Mrs. Hill, the efficient trimmer in Mrs. L. G. Herren's millinery store, left Monday for Portland, where she will spend the winter. She was accompanied by Miss Stella Penland, who will spend several weeks visiting friends in the city.

John McNamee, sheepman, who is wintering in the Echo country, was in town during the week attending the Hibernian lodge session and banquet. Mr. McNamee recently picked up a number of bucks on the range which he advertises in this impression of the Herald.

The Hibernians showed their loyalty to Heppner and Morrow county by employing a home orchestra for the banquet Sunday evening. If the same rule applies to other things in that order Heppner printers will wish that all users of printed stationery in Heppner were Hibernians.

Wm. Dunn, former well known and popular conductor on the Heppner branch, now a resident of Pendleton where he is engaged in business, was busy greeting old friends and making new ones Sunday evening at the Palace hotel banquet given by the A. O. H. Mr. Dunn knew Heppner in the palmy days of 20 years or more ago and enjoys talking over the good old days with his many friends here.

LEXINGTON ITEMS

Mrs. Susan Boothby and son Grant, went back to Calico Rock, Arkansas. M. D. Tucker having purchased her house here, has moved his family into the place.

The crosswalks between the Leach store and the postoffice and between the postoffice and restaurant are completed and help a great deal in the looks of the town.

A good roads election was held Tuesday afternoon, and we understand the results were 2-1 in favor of good roads.

Geo. Allyn of the garage, is visiting in Weston.

Thos. Beymer is visiting in Athena.

Frank Bell of Spokane, is here looking after his farming interests. Mr. Bell owns a large ranch on Black Horse.

A great deal of excitement has occurred the past week occasioned by the High school students going on a strike. We believe the matter was satisfactorily settled as the youngsters are now back in school.

What might have been very serious turned out rather lucky for Mr. and Mrs. Doc Lewis as they were driving into Lexington Tuesday, when a part of the harness on one of the horses they were driving became unfastened and scaring the horse it started to run overturning the buggy and throwing Mr. and Mrs. Lewis out in the dust. Mrs. Lewis sprained her ankle and besides being covered with dust and frightened, experienced no other injuries.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Valentine were passengers for Walla Walla for a brief visit this week.

Grandma McMillan is on the sick list. Dr. Chick is in attendance.

Subscribe today for the Herald.