POLICIES AND OPERATION

THE fundamental basis of service at the Farmers & Stockgrowers National Bank consists of both the ability and willingness to helpfully co-operate in the problems of the local Farmers and Stock-raisers. Wherever we can aid legitimate enterprise and development—we shall be found more than glad to do so.

Checking and Savings accounts—both small and large—are invited.

New Song is Adopted

42 States of the U. S. A. have adopted for use in the Public Schools the new Patriotic Song "Loyalty is the Word To-day, Loyalty to the U. S. A."

Oregon is among the forty two States and Supt. Churchill has sent a limited number of copies of the words and music for distribution among the schools where there is a musical instrument. Teachers who would care to teach this song to their pupils may secure a copy from the office.
Very truly yours

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Haidee Brierly, of South Bend, Washington, is the house guest of Mrs. J. T. Knappenberg this week.

Bill Dobson, of Ione, was in town Wednesday transacting business, and had his name placed on the Herald's Ione subscription list.

C. N. Jones was in from his ranch Monday feeling pretty good, thank you, over the fine rain and the good growing weather. Mr. Jones has his crop all in the ground and he says it is growing fine.

Cass Simpson, of Spray country, came in from his ranch last Saturday and on Sunday shipped out a car of fat hogs for the Portland market. Mr. Simpson drove his pigs in several weeks ago and has been having them fed near the stockyards since putting on the finishing touches.

C. R. Williams, who has been engaged at carpenter work on Mrs. Anderson ranch in the 8-mile country, left for his home in Newberg, Tuesday morning, where he will spend the winter. He expects to return to Morrow county in the spring, however to carry on farther building operations in the same section.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Sims, of Eugene, have arrived in Heppner and will make their home here indefinitely, Mr. Sims having accepted a position as assistant cashier in the Farmers and Fruit-growers bank. Mr. Sims has had a wide experience in the banking business and this growing institution is fortunate in securing his services. Mrs. Sims (nee Miss Hager) is a native daughter of Heppner and her host of friends here will be overjoyed to again have her as a neighbor and as associate. Mr. Sims until recently held the cashiership of a bank in North Dakota, resigning that to take the position here.

WOOD AND COAL--I have a quantity of first-class Rock Spring nut coal now on hands. Best for stoves and ranges. Ed Breslin. 31f.

Married--At the county clerk's office in Heppner, Wednesday, December 5, 1917 Mr. Smith Dotson and Miss Mattie B. Brashears, Rev. Turner MacDonald, pastor of the Christian church officiating. Both the parties are residents of Ione where they will make their home.

John Sheridan, well known sheepman of the sand country north of Ione, was a business visitor here Thursday, called at this office and ordered the Herald sent to his address. Mr. Sheridan says the recent rains have started the grass in his section and the sheep are doing well. He had been feeding for a month before the rain, however.

Born--Tuesday, December 4, 1917, to Mr. and Mrs. Pete Farley, at the home of Dr and Mrs. H. T. Allison, in this city, a bouncing baby boy, weighing 11 pounds. Mother and babe are reported doing nicely and papa Pete is proud as a peacock of this second soldier for Uncle Sam that has come to his house hold.
