

LEXINGTON ITEMS

Joe Osburn after buying a place and concluding final arrangements returned to Teanese. We do not know whether Mr. Osburn intends to rent his place or return with his wife and family but we hope the latter is the case.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Devine Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Burchell are enjoying a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Reaney and boys of Pomeroy. Mr. Reaney is Mrs. Burchell's father.

Mrs. Minnie Leach had the misfortune to mangle her hand very badly in the Electric washer while doing her washing Monday. Dr. Chick was called, and dress on the injured member.

Miss Merle Carmichael came home Thanksgiving Eve after visiting several months with relatives in College Place Wash.

Professor Fertig took advantage of Thanksgiving holiday to go to Hood River his former home. He returned with his wife and family Wednesday evening. They will live in the Barnett house formerly occupied by the Lantfords.

The people of Lexington and vicinity enjoyed a rare treat when Rev. James Pointer of Eugene Oregon, preached to them here at the Christian church.

A Good sized crowd attended an all night Thanksgiving dance Supper was served at the hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk came Tuesday evening to visit their daughter Mrs. Helen Taylor.

Miss Cora Mulligan is visiting her sister Mrs. Brashers.

A daughter was born Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Brashers. The little lady will be called Emma Helen.

Mrs. Van Dwyne, who has been here for some time assisting in the care of her mother, the late Mrs. Eliza J. Ayers, has returned to her home in Spokane.

CECIL ITEMS

Mr. Hat Pearson and Ed Wilcox, arrived from Heppner with a Bull Tractor engine and a crew to proceed with the hay baling on Willow Creek Monday. Mrs. Moore of Heppner is cooking for the outfit.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Forkner moved to the Willows Monday, for an indefinite period accompanied by Mrs. Ahalt.

Mr. A. M. Perkins who is in ill health left for Portland Monday to have a consultation with Dr. F. B. Kistner.

Mrs. John Nash and Mrs. Albert Forkner visited with Mrs. Boyd Logan Monday.

L. E. Bisbee spent Monday and Tuesday at the Last Camp Cecil fixing up the Morse and Fairbanks engine.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davis who has been working for the last few months on the Leon Logan place left for California, where he has bought some land.

Henry Stender and his son Roy were Cecil callers on Monday.

Mrs. Bennett left for Troutdale Wednesday, to attend the wedding of her Niece Miss Wallace. Mrs. Bennett will after the wedding proceed to Portland, where she intends to stay a few days before returning to Cecil.

Miss Easton and the pupils of the Cecil school gave a fine Thanksgiving program on Wednesday November 25th.

M. L. Williams spent his Thanksgiving at the Franklin home in Cecil leaving for his place at Boardman Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Lowe and Master Robert Lowe, Miss Inez Easton and Miss Bernice Franklin were guests at Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hynds for their Thanksgiving dinner.

Mr. Swanson of Morgan did some business in Cecil on Friday on his return from the Landells Thanksgiving dinner.

Mrs. John Nash took her son Homer to Morgan where he is working with the Surveyors on the State Highway, Friday morning.

Cecil Ahalt was also a business caller in Cecil on Friday.

Peter Baunerfiend of Cecil accompanied Mrs. Davis of Ritter Springs as far as Heppner Junction on her return journey home after spending a few days on business in Heppner.

Jack Hynd and Geo. W. Willson and Walter Pope accompanied Mrs. T. H. Lowe and Misses Easton, Shaw, Bjoigk, Hynd and Logan, also Master Robt. Lowe authored Morgan to the Entertainment and Basket Social given by school Dist. No. 28 under Miss Irene Douglas, the program was a fine success.

Geo. Melton, has been spending the week end in Arlington taking in the sights.

Herb Hynd from Heppner High School has been having his usual week end at home this week.

LENA ITEMS

The cold weather is just setting in, and many are expecting snow very soon.

Shirley Straight, who spent Thanksgiving with his folks here went back to town Sunday to attend school again.

The Lena folks organized a Sunday School at the Pleasant Point grave yard. We hope that there will be many attend every Sunday at 10 A. M.

The Lena cattle men are on their way to hunt cattle in the mountains.

Vern Pearson returned from Pilot Rock last Wednesday where he has been spending a few weeks in work. "Very seldom he ever does."

Quite a few of the Lenites attended the big dance at the Ed Doherty ranch on Big Batter Creek last Friday night. They reported a good time.

FOR RENT - Two furnished rooms. Mrs. F. M. Bayless