Heppner-Jono Football Game

The football game last Sunday on the local gridiron between the Heppner and Jono eleven, was a warm one even tho the day was frigid. The Heppner boys acted very badly in the game in not allowing their visitors even a look in at the thing they call a score, but the boys excuse them selves by saying that the wind was so chilly they could not play slow enough to be considerate. The Jono boys are a lot of good sports and they put up the best they had with them but they declare that "It will be different next time." The score was rather too one-sided to publish but it may be said that if Heppner had made one more score she would have had 19 and that Jono got 12 less than a dozen.

HARDMAN HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Frank Ward visited in Heppner over Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. W. W. Brannon took her son Jimmie to Heppner Monday to have a bad tooth looked after.

G. A. Beakman and wife made a business trip to the county seat Monday.

A lively bunch of the Heppner High School Students attended the Literary at Rhea Creek Friday eve.

Gay Barlow went to Heppner Friday and brought back his sister Flossie Barlow, chief operator in the telephone office, for a short visit and to attend the Literary at the Rhea Creek School House. She returned to her duties Saturday, with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Barlow.

Joe Howell has rented the Fred Koighen ranch just north of town from A. K. Wright and will move his family into it this week.

Mrs. Ora Wyland is spending a few weeks in Heppner keeping house for her father while her mother is away on a visit.

Mrs. Jimmie Wyland spent a few days visiting in Heppner last week.

A bunch of Monument boys passed through Hardman Monday on their way to join the colors.

Mr. A. Riley made a business trip to Heppner Saturday returning Sunday.

A school election was held Saturday for the purpose of electing a director to fill a vacancy formerly held by M. E. Devore. Mrs. Prophet was elected and became our first lady director.

Clarence Howell, Louis Kath, Preston Enyart and Arthur Cable went to join the colors. This is Mr. Kath's second attempt as he was rejected by the examiners some time ago.

All Bates has gone to Portland where he is working in a ship yard.

Mrs. J. W. Stevens was a business visitor in Heppner the first of the week.

Mrs. Carl Farnsworth, of Rhea Siding, visited her sister, Mrs. J. T. Knappenberg, for a few days last week. Mr. Farnsworth came up Monday and accompanied Mrs. Farnsworth home Tuesday.

County Commissioner George Curran went to Portland Sunday and County Clerk Waters and District Attorney Notson went Tuesday to attend the annual meeting of county officials, in session there this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Cochran are spending a few days at the Palace hotel before leaving for a trip which will take up the remainder of the winter. Emmett says he don't know where they will go; "just knock around and loaf for awhile," is the way he puts it.
