Hardman Ladies Attend Bazaar

The Herald office was honored by a call from half dozen Hardman ladies last Saturday, who had driven in from their homes to attend the Red Cross Bazaar. Those making up the party were: Mrs. C. W. Bocher, Mrs. W. P. Prophet, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. John Hadley, Mrs. James Wyland, Mrs. Ida Bleakman and Mrs. Guy Hadley. The ladies report Red Cross matters active in their town and much good work being done. They are proud of, as a member of their auxiliary, Grandma Bates, who, despite her 84 years is an active member of the organization and although somewhat crippled by rheumatism, is busy every minute of her time knitting articles necessary for the comfort of our soldiers.

Mrs. May Conner, of Eightmile was in town for a few days during the week and while here was the guest of Mrs. Ed Breslin.

WOOD AND COAL—I have a quantity of first-class Rock Spring nut coal now on hands. Best for stoves and ranges. Ed Breslin. 31tf.

Raymond Steers, of Hardman, was in town Monday making proof on his homestead before U. S. Commissioner C. C. Patterson.

Hardman Boy Backs U. S.

Dale Bleakman, the eleven year old son of C. A. Bleakman was the first applicant to buy thrift stamps and war saving stamps at the Hardman Post Office the young man bought two thrift stamps and three war saving stamps. He secured the money that he had been saving for the last year or two by his own labor doing little jobs and had saved the money to help his mother put hot and cold water in their home, but he decided that his country needed it and he would do what he could to help his flag.
