HARDMAN HAPPENINGS

Happy New Year to all.

Tommie Dean left Saturday for Portland to visit his mother, Mrs. R. H. Stillwell.

Mrs. G. G. Gaunt has disposed of the stock of goods in the drug store, Mr. Humphries taking the prescription goods and Wm. Ayers, the patent medicines. Mrs. Gaunt left Saturday for Portland where she will make her home with her mother, Mrs. Mekin.

A very interesting and appropriate program was given by the grade pupils on Friday evening in the school house. A small Christmas tree for the little ones was greatly enjoyed. The house was filled to overflowing and the teacher deserves much praise for the way they had the pupils drilled. Earl Sailing and Roe Bleakman acted as Santa Claus distributing candy and peanuts, which greatly pleased the little folks.

The dance and supper given Friday evening in the Ashbaugh hall was one of the most enjoyable events of the season. It was given for the benefit of the Red Cross and everyone seemed to enter into the spirit of making it a grand success. The supper was served in cafeteria style and after supper there being many cakes and other articles of food left, which together with other donations were put up at auction and sold to the highest bidder. Mrs. Emma Emry deserves praise for her cake which was trimmed with a large red cross and sold for $1.50. Altogether the occasion netted the Red Cross $100.60. There will be another dance given in the Ashbaugh hall New Year's night.

Mrs. C. W. Booher and grandchildren, Jimmie and Debie Leach left Saturday for Portland to spend the holidays. The children will visit their grandmother and Jimmie will make his home in Portland with his father Will Leach.

Frank Glasscock went to Monument Wednesday after Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Leathers and family, who will spend a few weeks in Hardman and vicinity visiting friends and relatives.

A quiet wedding took place on Dec. 20th, at the Christian parsonage, Rev. Turner B. MacDonald officiating, only a few relatives being present, when Claire Ashbaugh took for his bride, Miss Fay Kirk. Both parties are popular young people of Hardman, Mr. Ashbaugh, being one of the leading merchants and the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ashbaugh. Miss Kirk is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kirk of Hardman. The happy couple will make their home at present with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kirk. A host of friends join in wishing them a long and happy journey thru life.

A jolly crowd of about 30 friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Knighten on Xmas Eve with bells, tin cans and all that goes to make a lively charivari, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Taura Peterson, prosperous farmer of the Eight-Mile country and Mrs. Eva Crawford of Lone Rock, who were married in Heppner on Dec. 23, and come out to spend Xmas with Mr. and Mrs. Knighten. The happy couple will leave at once for Lone Rock, where the bride has a homestead. Their many friends

Mrs. Hettie Smith, of Hamilton, daughter of Mrs. Adeline Howell, has been very sick in the Sanitarium at Heppner, but has recovered sufficiently to return Wednesday and will visit a short time with relatives here before returning to her home in Grant county. Her mother also returned from Heppner a few days ago where she had been in attendance.

Jim Burnside and wife spent a few days this week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Swift of Eight Mile.

To every resident of Heppner and Morrow County, we extend our very best wishes for
