Michigan Lady Suffered Such Pains
In Back and Head, But Says
Cardui Stopped These Bad Spells.

Palmyra, Mich.—Mrs. Chas. T. Puler, of this place, writes: "In 1911 I got run-down, and I suffered great pain... with both dull and sharp shooting pains... also back and head. I was weak and could only drag around, and should have been in bed, for I really wasn't able to be up. At times I would have spells that would be so bad I'd have to go to bed, and suffer intensely..."

I decided to try Cardui, and saw a great improvement in less than a month's time. I used 7 or 8 bottles and was stronger... I got so much better that my strength returned and my work was easy for me. Cardui did me a world of good. It built me up in health and strength. I haven't had one of those bad spells since. I haven't had to take any more medicine since or have any doctors either and have been able to do my work right along... I recommend it to other women highly as the best medicine I know of for women who suffer from female trouble."

If you suffer from female troubles, follow this advice. Get a bottle of Cardui today and give it a thorough trial. It should help you, as it has helped thousands of other women in the past 40 years. At all drugists.

Tom Sheridan Returns

Thos. E. Sheridan, who went to American Lake with the last contingent of the Morrow county draft, and who has been in training there since that time, returned to Heppner Sunday evening after having received an honorable discharge from the service. His discharge was granted on the surgeon's certificate because of physical disability. Mr. Sheridan's record as a soldier was first-class, as is shown by his discharge papers.

Mr. Sheridan met Hap Woods, another Heppner boy while in Portland the other day and learned that he also has received a discharge from the service.

WILLOW CREEK DISTRICT

When the time had arrived all was ready without knocking or bowing, Santa Claus on Christmas Eve went right into the Willow Creek school house, and without any hesitation he went up to the Christmas tree and with the aid of Frances and Albert Connor he gave every child a nice present, also a bag of candy; to the older folks he gave an orange, Santa was so tired after sliding down so many chimneys in Heppner that he sat down by the inner door of the school house, put his ear to the key hole and listened to the program. He said that he was so pleased with the manner the children spoke their pieces, played their plays and the way the older folks read their compositions and spoke their pieces, that he felt almost like going right in and making a speech himself before his time was ready, but he waited and when he did come in the pupils gave him three rousing cheers that made his heart glad.

The next morning a note was found on the school house door step, which read as follows:

The Kind Folks of Willow Creek,

I wish to thank Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rasmus, Miss Lena Krebs, Mr. L. A. Florenon, Mr. and Mrs. Watkins, Mr. Krebs, Mrs. Robert Dexter, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Florence, Mr. and Mrs. Hill, Mrs. James Kirk, George Krebs and Mrs. Ralph Florenon for decorating the tree and taking such an interest in the program. I wish to thank all the ladies for preparing such a bounteous supper, especially will I remember Mrs. L. A. Florence and Mrs. George Krebs for managing its preparation. I feel deeply indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Mr. Claud Knowles, Mr. and Mrs. Justus and Oral and Clifford Hendrickson for buying the candy and oranges, thus relieving me of such a heavy load. I cannot forget the kindness of Mrs. Bryant for presenting me with a new suit of clothes, which I badly needed as I had worn my last year's suit out in climbing over the ice cliffs of the North Pole. Wishing you a Happy New Year. I am yours for everyday happiness,
Santa Claus.

Garnett Barratt returned from Portland Tuesday where he spent the holidays.

Hooverizing

My Tuesdays are meatless,
My Wednesdays are wheatless,
I'm getting more eatless each day;

My socks are feetless,
My bed it is sheetless,
They're all sent to the Y. M. C. A.

The barrooms are treatless,
My sugar is sweetless,
Each day I grow poorer and wiser;

My home it is heatless,
My trousers are seatless,
My gosh, how I do hate the kaiser.

T. W. Lowe who has been spending the past few weeks around Yamhill and McMinnville returned home Sunday.
