HEPPNER, OREGON

Lexington Bank Elects Officers

At the annual stockholders meeting of the Lexington State Bank held on Thursday, January 10, 1918, the following board of directors were elected: W. G. Scott, W. O. Hill, Chas. R. Pointer, Geo. L. McMillan and Mrs. Minnie Leach, all of Lexington, and Frank Gilliam of Heppner and T. J. Mahoney of North Portland.

After the stockholder's meeting the board of directors met and re-elected the officers of the bank, being W. G. Scott, president; T. J. Mahoney, vice president, and W. O. Hill cashier and secretary.

The stockholders were well pleased with the showing made by the bank since being opened at Lexington and look forward to a prosperous business for the coming year.

The matter of adopting plans for the new home for the bank was deferred to a later meeting.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

For Sheriff

I hereby announce myself as a Candidate for Sheriff of Morrow county on the Republican ticket at the coming primary election.

I am a pioneer resident of this county and heretofore have never asked any favors of its voters, and I would not do so now, did I not know that I am competent to administer the affairs of the office in an efficient manner.

If nominated and elected I will endeavor to enforce the law and handle the affairs of the office as economically as is consistent with the duties of the office.—adv.

Yours truly,

Adv. WILLARD H. HERREN.

For County Commissioner

I will be a candidate for County Commissioner at the coming election on the Republican ticket

Respectfully,

G. A. BLEAKMAN,

Adv. Hardman, Oregon

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Minor returned from an extended visit at Portland last Friday.

About one inch of rain fell during the "shower" last Saturday night, which is "going some" for mid-winter time in Morrow county.

W. J. Beymer, president of the Farmers & Stockgrowers Bank, accompanied by Mrs. Beymer, is spending the week in Portland.

Joe Mahon of near Parkers Mill was in town after supplies during the week, and while here had his name added to the Herald's subscription list.

Edgar Matteson, a pioneer resident of the Parkers Mill country, was in town during the week and while here was a pleasant caller at the Herald office.

Miss Struck, domestic science teacher in the high school, was called to Hood River Wednesday by a telegram announcing the death of a relative in that city.

Henry Schwarz returned from Walla Walla Wednesday, where he spent some time taking treatment for a trouble in his hand and arm resembling rheumatism.

Mrs. Kinny-McAtee will demonstrate Spirella made to measurement corsets at Mrs. Luper's millinery store on Saturdays. To secure the degree of health comfort, style and durability your corset should be selected and fitted by Spirella professionally trained corsetier. 36437

Frank Gilliam and George Curran left for Portland Wednesday morning to attend a meeting of the Scottish Rite Masonic degree and will also attend a convocation of the Shriners while in the Rose City. Joe M. Hayes and Andy Rood, jr., went down Sunday and will be members of the class of initiates to be inducted into the Scottish Rite and Shrine degrees. Mr. Gilliam expects to remain in Portland to attend the Oregon Hardware and Implement Dealers' Association which meets there the last of the month.

Final Report of Elk's Ball

The local lodge of Elks wants to thank everybody who helped to make its war relief ball a success. It is pleasing to tell you that the gross receipts of the entire affair were almost $700, and that the lodge has made a deposit of $420 with the Farmers & Stockmen's Bank of Heppner subject to the call of the Red Cross chapter of this city.

Respectfully yours,

H. H. HOFFMAN,

Exalted Ruler.

PRECETT COX, Secretary.

Bring Fine Horses Here

Carl Smith, of Arlington, accompanied by Harry DeMares and W. W. Loftus, came in Wednesday evening with a shipment of fine stallions and jacks which they will sell to Morrow county stockmen. The animals are extra fine and will no doubt be sought for by horse and mule breeders.

Frank Hughes, who is building barbed wire entanglements on Johnny McEstire's ranch to keep out German spies, stray cattle and other undesirables, was in town Saturday evening taking in the city sights.
