

LAST YEAR—AND THIS

1917 gave a marked demonstration of the patriotism of American farmers.

1918 opens with new and increased demands upon all of our citizen patriots.

Farmer, merchant, manufacturer, business man, banker—each must do "his bit" wholeheartedly and unreservedly.

Our officers are ready to co-operate with the farmers of this vicinity in their plans for increased production in 1918.

THE FARMERS AND STOCKGROWERS NATIONAL BANK

HEPPNER, OREGON

UPPER WILLOW CREEK

Quietly and without ceremony Mrs. A. E. Binns, with the assistance of Misses Baker and Lakenan and Ernest Hyne, of Heppner, organized a Red Cross auxiliary in the Willow Creek district last Sunday afternoon. After Mrs. Binns had told the story of the Red Cross and explained how its work was carried on, seventeen persons joined and expressed their willingness to make personal sacrifice for the cause. Mrs. George Krebs was elected chairman and Mrs. Ralph Thompson secretary and treasurer, and plans were laid for carrying on the work.

Lost—Mackinaw Coat between Heppner and Hager place on Willow creek Saturday last. Leave at this office. 38d39

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Ralph Bengé, who farms the Minor ranch below town, cut his first 1918 crop of alfalfa yesterday, January 24th, which is going some for this latitude.

Miss Lulu Hager returned Saturday evening from an extended visit in California. Miss Hager also visited friends at Portland and Pendleton while away.

I will pay the top cash price for good fat chickens and all other poultry, fresh eggs, dressed veal, vegetables and fruits. Cummings Fruit and Vegetable Market. 34th Heppner.

The Misses Lillian and Anna Haynes, who have spent the past three months with friends at Cottage Grove, returned to Heppner Saturday evening and will reside here with their father.

L. J. Burnside, a well-known resident of the Hardman country, was brought to Heppner yesterday on an insanity charge. Mr. Burnside has been in ill health for some time and, it is said, has suffered from a nervous breakdown which in turn has brought on his unfortunate mental condition.

Suspected of Bootlegging

Dave Lightner, who claims Portland as his place of residence, was arrested at Boardman yesterday and brought to the county jail, where he was held as a suspected bootlegger until this morning when he was taken to Condon, where it is said he is also wanted on a similar charge. Deputy Sheriff Gibbons of Boardman made the arrest and took the man to Condon.
