

Loans to Farmers

Co operating closely with the local farmers, this institution extends financial accommodations under conditions which prove especially attractive.

Farmers are invited to consider Farmers and Stockgrowers National Bank at their service and to call upon us for such financial accommodation as is consistent with the sound, responsible banking policy here maintained.

Unnecessary formality is dispensed with and promptness is a feature of our service.

County Agricultural Notes

H. A. Vickers, assistant to the Director of Extension of the O. A. C., was here during the week conferring with County Agricultural Agent Brown in regard to plans for handling bulk grain the coming season. Mr. Brown will render every assistance possible to the farmers in securing elevators and other proper equipment to aid the farmers in handling their grain in this manner. The price of grain bags is likely to be practically prohibitive next harvest and every effort should be made to handle the big crop now promised in bulk.

F. R. Brown, Agricultural Agent for this county, has located a year load of Early Bart wheat available for immediate purchase. Those desiring to secure seed for spring seeding should communicate with him by phone or in person as soon as possible.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Pat Healy, at the Heppner hospital last Saturday, February 2, and Mr. Healy reports that mother and child are getting along nicely.

LEXINGTON ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor and Miss Irene Taylor, parents and sister of the Taylor brothers, came to Lexington from Sequim, Wash., Sunday night. They are moving into the Penland house.

Miss Myra Mack and Miss Pauline Pierce are visiting at the home of Mrs. Eph Eskelson.

There will be a celebrated temperance speaker at the Congregational church next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The lecture by Mr. Morrow is free and all are welcome.

Miss Owens, of Baker, Oregon, is a guest this week at Burgoyne's store.

There was a couple of young ladies in town Wednesday soliciting for papers, as they were trying to secure a scholarship. If they are as successful in other places as they were in Lexington there is no doubt but what they will win the scholarships.

James Carty was in from the Sands Tuesday on a business trip to Heppner.

The McCarty brothers, dealers in scrap iron, are back from Pendleton and will be in Lexington a week. So bring in your old scrap iron and used tires.

Up to date business men thoroughly understand modern advertising as a business proposition.

They fully realize that they buy advertising service as a wholesale selling agent, just as they employ salesmen.

They keep their names and goods before the public to make sales or create a demand. They do this honestly or else they ultimately fail.

Our local merchants are doing this truthfully and in a businesslike manner. Consider their ads. carefully and take advantage of inducements they offer you.

Nutritious Corn Bread

One New York hotel has arranged a thoroughly patriotic corn bread recipe. It combines cornmeal with rye flour, both of which are being consumed in greater quantities this year in order to release wheat flour for the allied nations. This recipe fits in a large pan—16 by 22 inches—and contains the following ingredients: One quart milk, four ounces butter substitute, ten ounces light syrup or honey, three eggs, pinch salt, two pounds cornmeal, one pound rye flour and two ounces baking powder.

The butter and syrup are thoroughly mixed. Then add the eggs gradually, pour in the milk, then add the rye flour mixed with the cornmeal and baking powder. Bake in a hot oven.
