'What's the Matter With Oregon.'

By F. C. Harley, Mayor of Astoria. The next great political battle will be fought in Oregon. It will be a battle of deepest concern to every man, woman and child in the state.

As the war continues it becomes more evident that, before it is over, every American will be called upon to do his bit for his country in whatever line of service he is best fitted to perform his part.

Telephone Rate Hearing City Recorder J. F. Williams has received an official notice from the Public Service Commission of Oregon to the effect that a hearing will be held in the Multnomah county court house at Portland, February 20, 1918, at 10 a. m., in the matter of the rates, charges and regulations of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co.

HARDMAN HAPPENINGS Mrs. Roy Ashbaugh is visiting at the home of Walter Road in Clark's Canyon. Fred Ashbaugh and wife and Mrs. Rottie Knighton went to Monument Monday to be at the bedside of Mrs. Goldie Leathers, who is quite ill at that place.

of the State and its resources. Let us select men not afraid to come out in favor of definite, constructive policies and let us compel them to commit themselves in advance. Let us, this year, concern ourselves with issues rather than personalities and see if we cannot by concerted and forceful action free Oregon from the rut she has been relegated to by political legislation that has been heaped upon her in the past.

Physical Exams Less Rigid

The new regulations governing physical examinations for military service, which have recently been sent out to local exemption boards, are less rigid than formerly and it is understood that many men who had been placed in class five will be changed to class one.

As the war continues it becomes more evident that, before it is over, every American will be called upon to do his bit for his country in whatever line of service he is best fitted to perform his part.

Pain Here is a message to suffering women, from Mrs. Kathryn Edwards, of R. F. D. 4, Washington Court House, Ohio. "I am glad to tell, and have told many women, what I suffered before I knew of Cardui and the great benefit to be derived from this remedy. A few years ago I became practically helpless..." TAKE Cardui The Woman's Tonic "I was very weak," Mrs. Edwards goes on to say, "and could not stoop without suffering great pain... Nothing seemed to help me until I heard of Cardui and began the use of it... I gradually gained my strength... I am now able to do all my work." If you need a tonic take Cardui. It is for women. It acts gently and reliably and will probably help you as it helped this lady. All Druggists
