HERALD'S ANNIVERSARY

This issue of the Herald completes the first year of the paper's life under the present management. It has been a war-torn year, a time of chaos in business affairs, a time of uncertainty and unrest.

It is good to live in Heppner, to get to know Heppner people as neighbors and comrades and friends. It is good to feel the ground beneath one's feet, to feel that honest effort to render service to the best of one's ability is appreciated.

As an independent, local newspaper the Herald has, during the past year, honestly endeavored to render service to its community. It has tried to be constructive in its policy, aiding to the extent of its ability in every project that has for its object the betterment of Heppner and at this time it is glad to know that it has done what it could for progress.

The Herald is by no means fully responsible for these improvements, but if it has helped in slight degree to bring them about it is glad.

Red Cross Notes

The Red Cross ladies in charge of the "Heroic France" matinee last Saturday desire to express their thanks to everyone who contributed to the success of the affair, and especially to Mr. Sparks, who turned over all the proceeds of the matinee to the Red Cross. The affair netted the neat sum of $125.

Mrs. Herrin, chairman of the surgical supplies committee, reports that the big box of triangular bandages for which a hurry call was made about a month ago, to be shipped February 29, was all ready on that date except the tape fasteners, it being impossible to secure material for that purpose on the coast. As soon as the tape can be secured the work will be completed and shipped. In addition to this big order the committee also completed and shipped a box of gauze compresses.

Glenn Y. Wells returned from a business trip at Portland and Salem Saturday evening. He reports everything very good in the metropolis, due to ship yard and other building activities.

DULL AND SHARP SHOOTING PAINS Michigan Lady Suffered Such Pain In Back and Head, But Says Cardui Stopped These Bad Spells. Pillsbury, Minn.—Mrs. Chas. T. Pillsbury of this place, writes: "In 1911 I got run-down, and I suffered great pain, with both dull and sharp shooting pains, also back and head. I was weak and could only drag myself, and almost have been in bed, for I really wasn't able to be up. At that time I would have sworn that would be the last I'd have to go to bed, and suffer such pains..."
