Heppner Couple Married in Portland

Mr. Joseph J. Nye of this city and Miss Sophia Burke of Portland were united in marriage at St. Mary's cathedral, Portland, Wednesday, June 5, 1918. Rev Father Sheridan performing the ceremony, following which Mr. and Mrs. Nys went to Saltair beach where they spent a week, arriving in Heppner last Sunday evening.

Mr. Nys is a popular young attorney of this city and his many sterling qualities and high character has made for him a host of friends in Morrow county during the few years he has resided here, and his bride is also very well known here and is held in the highest esteem by all who know her. She was a former teacher in the Heppner schools, leaving here at the Christmas holidays last winter. Her many friends in Heppner will welcome her return to the city as a permanent resident.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Oscar Borg made a business trip to Portland during the week.

Meals at all hours at Parker's Mill hotel July 4, 5 and 6. Don't go hungry. 6ds

Billy Corson, well-known resident of Lexington, spent several days in Heppner during the week.

Charles Groshens, of Portland, was here this week at tending the funeral of his brother, the late Louis Groshens.

A. M. Slocum, former Heppner resident, died in Portland last evening following an operation in a hospital in that city. Funeral arrangements have not been announced.

Mrs. A. C. Cornett, a highly esteemed lady of this city, was stricken with paralysis yesterday afternoon and is in a serious condition. It is her fourth stroke and recovery is hardly hoped for.

C. L. Freeman of the Minor store is wearing the smile that won't come off today, the reason being that Mrs. Freeman, who has been visiting her mother at Vancouver for several weeks, is expected home this evening.

Norton Winnard returned from his eastern trip Wednesday and reports a fine time. He visited Chicago and points in Michigan, but is mighty glad to be back in good old Oregon. His father will return in a day or two.

The last will and testament of the late Louis Groshens was opened and read Thursday prior to the family's departure for their ranch home on Rlea creek. All of the property was left to the widow, Mrs. Helen Groshen.

B. F. Swaggart, of the Eastern Oregon Jack Farm, Lexington, has just returned from a trip to Kettle Falls and other points in northeast Washington and reports crop conditions in that country very bad. The season has been late and cold with no rain since early in March. Mr.
Swaggart says crops in his section promise to be fair and he thinks more of Morrow county now than he ever did.

Wins School Credits in Portland

Kenneth Binns, who was debarred from graduating in the Heppner high school because of some trouble in the school shortly before its close, went to Portland two weeks before the schools closed there and, being admitted to Lincoln High, succeeded in passing his examinations and securing his credits. While not receiving a diploma from the Portland school the young man secured all the credits necessary to insure his entrance into any college in which a diploma would be recognized.

LEXINGTON ITEMS

Ralph Reade is here visiting his sister, Miss Muriel.

Grandpa and Grandma Brooks are home again after a visit with relatives.

Wm. McBeth is here doing some finishing work on the John F. McMillan house.

Earl Warner is away at Walla Walla this week, called there by the serious illness of his father.

Neal and Claude White went to Seaside to bring their father home, as he does not seem to improve any there.

Word was received here that a 9 pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cutting of Walla Walla. Mrs. Cutting was formerly Abbie Johnson of Lexington.

The Tumalum Co. is adding to the improvements of Lexington by having a concrete watering trough erected on their grounds for the use of the public.

Friends were surprised to hear of the marriage of Miss Ruth Burrows of Portland, but formerly of Lexington. All unite in wishing her a long and happy life.

There is a lot of sickness in our little town, with the whooping cough in almost every home.
The Carmichael boy, after recovering from an operation for appendicitis, now has an attack of rheumatism. Mrs. Scott fell and sprained her ankle and now walks with a cane. Chas. Pointer was taken to the Heppner hospital and operated on for stomach trouble Sunday. Hobart Johnson and some others are suffering from tonsillitis.

NEW COSTUME SILKS

... AT MINOR'S ...

Shoppers at our store will find an abundant and rich assortment of the new Costume Silks, Twilled Silks, Taffetas, Foulards, Pongees, Tubs, etc.

These Silks are unusually attractive in their rich colorings and artistic designs and are immensely popular because of their good wearing qualities and their adaptability to the season's styles. Prices reasonable, too. See them at our silk counter and in the window.

Undoubtedly you will want a new Silk Petticoat to wear with that new Dress.

You will find here a wealth of changeable colorings and newness of design which charac-terize our silk petticoats as the most desirable offerings of the season. There are many styles in beautiful color combinations that have been created, it would seem, especially to be worn with the new skirts and costumes.

At no former time have values such as these been offered at more attractive prices.

Please Pass the Pone

Cass Simpson, farmer and stockman of the Spray country, has earnings of a strain of Missouri blood in him from the way he specializes on corn, hogs and home-made corn meal. Mr Simpson was in town during the week and left a sack of made-in-Oregon corn meal at the Herald family domicile as a sample of what the real thing in corn meal tastes like, and said that if we liked it he would bring in more, so we take this way of calling his bluff by publicly stating in cold type that we like it better than anything in the eat line we have met up with west of the Missouri.
Home-made corn meal is as different from the commercial article as a piece of dry fir bark is different from the kernel of a ripe hickory nut. It produces a brand of corn dodgers for your morning meal which entirely eclipses any other known product of the hot cake griddle, and it makes a corn pone that is as sweet as a May maiden's song.

Commercial corn meal has the germ, which contains all of the oil and most of the life and flavor of the grain removed so that the meal will keep indefinitely without becoming rancid. Home ground meal has all of the good left in. If every family in Morrow county could have a taste of pone made from Mr. Simpson's meal he would soon find a ready market for every pound he could produce and bring to Heppner.

H. E. Storm of Bonners Ferry, Idaho, but who has recently been employed in a bank at Cheney, Washington, arrived in Heppner Saturday evening and took a position in the First National Bank Monday morning. The growing business of this popular institution under the present management makes an increased working force imperative.

Rest in the shade July 4th, 5th and 6th at Parker's Mill. Be comfortable as well as patriotic.

Verdot-Sthupp

Mr. George W. Verdot, of this city, and Mrs. Marie Sthupp, of Jennings, Oklahoma, were married at the office of City Recorder J. P. Williams, at 6:00 o'clock Tuesday evening, the ceremony being performed by that official.
Mr. Verdot is a well known resident of Heppner and has been engaged in business here for the past couple of years. His bride arrived from Oklahoma Monday evening after a courtship which had been carried on by mail and the marriage took place 24 hours later. While the couple had never met previously Mrs Sthupp was acquainted with a number of Mr Verdot's close relatives in Oklahoma so that they were not entirely strangers to each other. They will reside in their house-keeping rooms on May street.
