LOCAL AND PERSONAL

A. Hendrickson, of Cecil, was in town Tuesday.

Spend the 4th at Parker's Mill and camp among the pines. 6d5

Miss Lulu Hayes went to Portland Sunday to spend a few weeks visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Connell were in town from their ranch home on Rhea creek Wednesday.

Roy Whiteis is having substantial improvements made on his residence in the south part of town.

Miss Vera Mahoney returned home Monday from Seattle where she has been attending the university.

Dr. and Mrs. McMurdo drove to Pendleton Wednesday, expecting to buy a new Franklin car while there.

Rev. Father O'Rourke returned Saturday evening from Portland, where he spent the week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam E. Van Vactor drove over to Pendleton Sunday on a business trip returning Wednesday.

Sherman Wakefield was in town Tuesday and reports that his crop is fine and he predicts a fair crop for the county.

The new Coats residence being erected on the site of the home recently destroyed by fire is rapidly nearing completion.

Adam Knoblock was in town Wednesday looking rather cheerful even if the rain did miss most of his place last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Minor and little daughter were guests at the Van Vactor home in this city for a few days the first of the week.

Miss Lera Githins has returned from Monmouth, where she recently finished the teachers' course in the Normal school.

Mrs. J. W. Stevens, of Hardman, accompanied by her niece, Miss Grace Leayhers, who is her guest this summer, was in town yesterday.

Miss Peggy O'Rourke, who has been spending several weeks in California visiting friends and relatives, returned to Heppner Saturday evening.

The big Morrow county tractor and grader was working on North Court street Tuesday finishing up the job after the laying of macadam had been completed.

Work on the new residence being erected for Mrs. James Thomson, on South Court street is progressing rapidly. When completed it will be one of the most modern dwellings in the city.

John Woodward, of Lena, sustained a dislocation of the shoulder a few days ago by being thrown from a hay rack. Dr. McMurdo reduced the dislocation and reports the patient recovering nicely.

C. R. Rice, of the Monument country, is in town for a few days. Mr. Rice is carrying his left leg in a sling as a result of a mixup with an overturned wagon the other day. His knee was dislocated and he will probably use crutches for some time.

Jeff Jones was in town Wednesday from his ranch on Rhea creek. He says the wheat is doing fairly well and is much more promising now than at this time last year and he predicts a fair crop. Competent help for the harvest is the greatest problem. Mr. Jones thinks.

Mine Host Wilkins, of the Palace hotel, is on his way east this week with his friend Dillard French who is shipping a train of cattle to the eastern markets. They shipped from Pilot Rock Monday and were undecided as to whether their destination would be Kansas City or Chicago.

Dr. N. Winnard returned Wednesday evening from a trip to Chicago and other eastern points. He reports having had a most delightful trip, much advanced work in the clinics and pleasant weather all around the circle. Like all other Oregonians who travel occasionally, however, the is displayed by men of refinement—more in what they leave off in their dress than what they put on. And a shirt can make or mar your appearance. There are some shirts that have an air of quiet elegance—a certain exquisite refinement—a "something" hard to define, but nevertheless very real. When you put one on you know you're well dressed in this respect—just as well dressed as it is possible to be.

are made with extra care. The cloths are tested for fastness of color as well as for strength. The collar bands are cut with steel dies—always exactly the same size. Every operator who works on these shirts is the graduate of a "sewing school" maintained by the factory. A dozen other little details make for perfection in fine shirts. If you will come to the store and see the Beau Brummel shirt we will be grateful. We shall not press you to buy—but we do urge you to get acquainted with this supreme shirt.

doctor is tickled to death to get back to Oregon, Morrow county, and Heppner. "No other state for me", he declared as he said hello to the Herald.

NOTICE—Will the party who got the key to the Red Cross work rooms from Mrs. Herren's store please return same at once?

J. R. Olden, a well known farmer of Rhea creek, was in town Tuesday and reports crops doing nicely. There will be plenty of 20 bushel wheat, Mr. Olden says and other crops will also be good. Mr. Olden has a field of barley he estimates will make around 80 bushels per acre.

Charles Thomson went to Portland Monday driving as far as The Dalles in his car. Rev. and Mrs. Andrews and Mrs. J. A. Waters accompanied Mr. Thomson as far as The Dalles where they are attending the Eastern Oregon Sunday School convention as delegates from the Heppner church.

Many fine showers have fallen in different parts of Morrow county during the past week or so much to the benefit of the crops. While the rains have not been either as general or as heavy as could have been wished they have undoubtedly added thousands of bushels of wheat to the county's 1918 crop.

John McNamee, a well known young sheepman of this county, who is summering his flocks near Starkey, Oregon, was in town for a few days this week. Mr. McNamee says the feed in the mountains where his sheep are running is fine and every thing is looking good. Mr. McNamee is in class two of the draft and expects soon to be called for military service.

Card of Thanks

We take this means of thanking our friends and neighbors for their kindly offices in rendering assistance and sympathy to us at the time of our late bereavement. Words can but feebly express our gratitude.
