That Fire Siren.

The new fire siren recently ordered by the city council has arrived and is now installed on top of the Roberts building at Main and Willow streets.

The only two citizens yet heard of who are pleased with the thing are W. S. Pruyn, superintendent of the Water Company and Dr. Butler, the tender hearted tooth carpenter.

City Dads Buy Big Auto Truck.

If Heppner is ever again swept by disastrous fires it will not be because the city mayor and councilmen are not trying to equip the town on modern footing as regards fire fighting apparatus.

At a meeting of the council Monday evening a contract was made for the purchase of a late model auto fire truck in which is combined a modern chemical engine, hose reels, hook and ladder equipment as well as a battery of old, reliable buckets which can be used to excellent advantage in quenching incipient fires.

Popular Couple to Wed Sunday.

Frederick Cox, popular first assistant cashier of the First National Bank, left in his car Thursday morning for Portland carrying with him a marriage license to wed Miss Nettie Curran, the charming daughter of County Commissioner George Curran, now residing in Gresham.

Mr. Cox has recently purchased a cozy home in Heppner where they will be at home to their friends soon after September 1st.

Off For Fishing Trip.

Mayor W. W. Smead, Maurice E. Smead and wife, Dr. A. D. McMurdo and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Bayless made up a party of tourists leaving Heppner Tuesday morning for Odell lake in south central Oregon for an outing of two weeks.

PRETTY LEGEND OF NIAGARA

How the Great Lakes Joined in Their Wondrous Leap Over the Famous Ridge.

In old, old times, on the highest peak of a great mountain, there dwelt a hunter and his five sparkling daughters. Their lodge was of bright betula bark and on clear days they could see the distant ocean flashing like a silver band.

ROOM FOR MANY MILLIONS

At Spaces of Siberia That Have Yet to Be Surveyed and Exploited by Man.

The biggest and loneliest land on the globe is Siberia, of which at the present moment there is so much talk, says London Answers.

In these vast spaces there is a population less than London contains by a couple of millions, and there are hundreds of thousands of square miles of territory where no human being is to be seen.

Siberia, it is said, is destined to be the granary of the world; and the opening of the railway across its entire breadth has certainly done much to develop its resources.

Man in the Making.

We are all sculptors of life. From the anthropoid ape stage clear up through the ages, in the slow process of evolution, man has been at work chiseling himself.

Our sculpturing is mental; our thought is the chisel that traces the ideal in life's marble. Angel and demon, beauty and ugliness, success and failure lie side by side in the marble of life.—Dr. Orison Swett Marden, in New Success.

"Nuts" of Priscend.

Priscend makes remarkably modest demands on orthography for a Balkan town, being spelled in only six different ways.

It has no need for a water board, because the river Britza, called the Maritza by casual geographers, cuts the town in two, while in almost all the streets there are brooks that become torrents after heavy rains.

The Priscendian "nuts" are the most gaudily dressed people in the Balkans, and the local bazaars blaze with garish garments, beside which the rainbow-hued neckties inflicted on innocent Englishmen at Christmas would look drab.—London Chronicle.

Looked Like Decorations.

A huckster drove out into one of the suburbs with a load of produce late the other night and his horse wandered into a road where repairs were being made.

"Didn't you see the red lanterns?" the suburbite asked. "Yes," replied the huckster, "but I thought they were part of the decorations."—Detroit Free Press.

LEXINGTON ITEMS

R. H. Lane is spending a few days in Portland.

Wednesday is Aid Day and Thursday the Ladies' Guild meets.

Little Ruth Dinger meets Jill at her home with tonsillitis and fever.

August Miller, of Nebraska, is here visiting his brother, E. C. Miller.

Mrs. I. J. Padberg is enjoying a visit from her sister, who came Sunday's train.

Ferman Hill is taking his vacation this week in Portland visiting his grandmother.

Miss Margaret Jackson is entertaining her friend, Miss Giatt and her cousin, Miss Florence Casey.

Mrs. Ada Miller, wife of E. C. Miller, has left for an extended visit to her old home in Illinois. She expects to be gone until October.

Miss Vesta Cutsforth is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Maude H. Pointer. Vesta is well known here, as Lexington formerly was her home.

W. O. Hill and C. A. Johnson went to the mountains over Sunday and were lucky enough to bring home about a gallon of luscious huckleberries pie.

W. F. Barnett has purchased the W. P. McMillan building that is occupied by Burgoyne's store and is having the upper story remodeled into apartments for rent.

The Tuzalium Company has certainly been getting a supply of coal and wood on hand this week. It has kept Holmes hustling to get men to unload the fuel on time and save the demurrage charges.

Someone wanted an inner tube for a Buick very badly for they broke into the Lexington garage Tuesday night and "borrowed" one. There is a lot of petty stealing going on which would or should be stopped by having the city appoint a night marshal. What is the matter with ringing the carfew, as in the good old days?
