NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

In order to set at rest any and all rumors which seem to creep into circulation every few days to the effect that the undersigned is about to give up the publication of the Heppner Herald and remove to some other field the following statement is made:

All such rumors are absolutely without foundation and can only come from idle gossip or malicious "knocking."

A new and modern printing plant has already been selected in Portland and will be installed in Heppner by the Herald as soon as a suitable building is available.

Pending the installation of the new plant the Herald is being printed in Ione, the foreman of the Herald shop remaining in that town, the undersigned spending about two days in the week there.

We are also, for the present, publishing the Ione Independent by arrangement with the owners of that plant.

The publisher and family are still residents of Heppner and expect to remain such indefinitely.

S. A. PATTISON.

Will Visit Family in South.

E. M. Shutt went to Portland Wednesday to attend the conference of county managers for the Fourth Liberty Drive which will commence September 29th and continue for three weeks. Following the conference, which convened Thursday, Mr. Shutt expected to continue his journey to Santa Monica, California, to visit for a few weeks with his family who are spending the summer there for the benefit of Miss Essie Shutt's health. The many friends of Miss Essie in Morrow county will be rejoiced to know that her condition is steadily improving and her complete recovery is expected.

Mr. Shutt will return in time to take charge of the Liberty drive September 29th, having been appointed manager for Morrow county for that campaign.

Mrs. W. P. Mahoney and daughter, Miss Kathleen, are visiting in Portland this week.

LEXINGTON ITEMS

Mrs. Eli Mulloy is entertaining her sister, Miss Hathorn, of Laurel, Ore.

T. M. Scott and O. S. Hodsdon of College Place, Wash., are here visiting for a few days.

Mrs. Iona Gilbreath returned to her home in Dayton after attending at the illness and death of her father, J. M. White.

Ray White returned to duty for Uncle Sam after a furlough with his folks to help his father harvest. Ray but recently enlisted and the furlough was appreciated.

The Taylor Bros. have just completed an excellent well on the Breckhairs place and have moved their drill on to Frank Burgoyne's residence. This will make Knob Hill very well supplied with wells.

A great deal of sickness in our town this week. Grandma Thompson is quite ill at her home with an attack of the heart; Vina Thorge was taken to the Heppner hospital to be operated on for appendicitis; Mary Durn is ill with typhoid, and the Holmes baby is also on the sick list.

Since Barnett's have purchased the building of W. P. McMillan formerly used as the postoffice and later occupied by Burgoyne for his drug department, Bennett having other uses for the building. Burgoyne is giving up that part of the store and are moving their drugs into their own building.

L. M. Ziggler, one of the clerk's in Burgoyne's store decided that man should have a helpmate, so he took himself to Portland a week ago, where he was married to Miss Ada Owens. Mrs. Ziegler will be at home to her friends about Sept. 1, 1918. Congratulations, Lew, and a good healthy ekivariva soon.

The funeral services of the late J. M. White was held at his residence in Lexington last Sunday afternoon, Rev. J. L. Jones conducting the service. John Marshall White was born in Arkansas 58 years ago, and besides a host of friends and relatives he leaves a sorrowing wife, three sons and two daughters to mourn his early death, J. M. or "Uncle Marsh" as he was generally known, was a fine type of manhood, being loyal to his family and true to his friends. He was a great social leader and was always for the unbuilding and improvement of the town of Lexington. Men like him are very few and his death will cause a vacancy in the town. To the ones who are left we extend our heartfelt sorrow in this, their great trouble.

When You Have Extra Help

Carnation makes everything you cook taste better.

What a boon in hurried, hot days is the everready Carnation can on your pantry shelf!

is just clean, sweet milk, brought fresh every morning to our fifteen plants and there evaporated to the consistency of cream and sterilized to preserve its wholesomeness.

For tea and coffee use it undiluted, just as you would cream. Use it in the same way on fruits and cereals.

Lots of good housekeepers, in times of stress like harvest, just punch two holes in the top and set the comedy can on the table.

Always keep a case or two of Carnation in your storeroom—and you have the right "Answer to the Milk Question."
